Washington, May 21 .- The senate resolution repealing the resolution by congress declaring the state of war with Germany and Austria was passed today by the house and made ready for immediate dispatch to the president, who is expected to veto it. The vote was 228 to 139 and was along strictly party lines, except that 19 democrats joined republicans in supporting the measure, while two republicans-Kelly of Michigan and Fuller of Massachusetts-opposed it. Democratic supporters of the resolution were: Ashbrook, Ohio; Caldwell, New York; Carew, New vote, it was clearly indicated that the resolution could not be passed over the veto of the president. The scnate vote on passage last week was 43 to 38.

The Bee Retracts Charges Against Police Officers Herdzina, Armstrong and Thestrup and Mrs. Sedlacek Are Withdrawn.

The Bee makes the following statement relative to charges published in its columns under a former ownership and management, concerning Police Officers John Herdzina, George Armstrong and O. V. Thestrup, and Mrs. Stephen Sedlacek, charges which the present management of The Bee has investigated and found to be false and groundless.

On June 16, 1919, The Bee published what is known as "Roy Kelly's Statement," in which it was charged that the police raid on the Brown apartments was "framed;" that Herdzina and Armstrong arranged it, were intoxicated, got Kelly drunk and allowed him to escape. In the same edition, an article was published alleging that Armstrong had wrecked the home of one Stephen Sedlacek, had taken Sedlacek's wife out riding repeatedly in police cars and was guilty of other improper acts.

On July 16, 1919, another article was published charging that the death of one John Redin was "due to the absolute neglect and rough treatment he was accorded at the hands of the police," naming Officers Herdzina and O. V. Thestrup. Redin died after falling into/a cistern and the article inferred that these officers took $33 from his pockets while removing the body. A similar charge of wrongfully abstracting money from a corpse was made against the same officers in an article published July 18, referring to the death of one Jud Tobias. Again, on July 7, 1919, Herdzina and Thestrup were charged with misconduct in connection with the arrest of one Tony Peruccello.

The present management of The Bee has investigated these several matters, which occurred while this newspaper was under another ownership and management. It is convinced that the officers were not guilty of the various acts charged, that Armstrong was not even acquainted with Mrs. Sedlacek at the time related, that the several publications were false in both fact and implication and constituted an unwarranted reflection on the character and motives of the various persons named. In accordance with its policy of fair dealing, The Bee makes these retractions and expresses its regret at the injury done these officers and Mrs. Sedlacek.

Dependable New Merchandise at Fair Prices

The theory of "something for nothing" was discarded long ago by thinking people. Time, skill and good materials cost money. By slighting quality it is only natural that the price is lower. But, as in every other instance, the first price is unimportant unless the service rendered is satisfyingly long and pleasant.

Puchase quality and the price will take care of itself in a manner entirely satisfactory

To Welcome Summer Days These Summer Frocks

Pastel tinted and as daintily fashioned as one could desire. Organdies, orchid, apricot, pink, rose, blue and white organdies in plain shades or strewn with Dolly Varden flowers-nets that are deserving of at least an honorable mentionvoiles in light colors with wide rows of hand drawn hemstitching and other touches of handwork, and fabrics galore that summertime fashions demand make up the Thompson-Belden showings.

A word about the net frocks, with their rows and rufflings of wide Valenciennes, with their naive blue and white and pink ribbons, but with the cleverest of side hoops and distended draperies to add a daring bit of style to such models of correct simplicity. For graduation, for summer dances or afternoon affairs, a young girl will undoubtedly find these net frocks irresistible.

The Pricings are Surprisingly Moderate and the Selections are Quite Limitless.
