

JACK PRINCE TO BUILD NEW AUTO SPEEDWAY HERE

Famous Builder to Try Second Venture In Omaha After Present Contracts Are Completed.

Omaha is to have a new automobile speedway. This was the news divulged Thursday by Jack Prince, famous builder of automobile speedways, who five years ago erected the East

Omaha speedway, which proved a failure. Prince dropped into Omaha on his way from Havana, Cuba, to San Francisco. He is going to start erection of a speedway in Frisco immediately. Next fall he goes to Havana to build a saucer, and the first of next year he plans to come to Omaha to make his second venture in this city. Prince declares he will profit by the lessons learned when he built the East Omaha speedway in 1915 that the track he will build next year will be an immediate success. "In the first place, we will build on high ground," said Prince, "instead of lowlands, where a person hesitated to go twice. We will make this speedway out of good materials and it will stand for years instead of crumbling, as did the old one, which was made out of scrap, owing to lack of money in the speedway company." Prince declares he already has enough Omaha money interested to make the speedway a success, and he will come to Omaha to begin construction work as soon as he finishes the Frisco and Havana tracks. Will Be Wood Track. The track will be a mile and a quarter board track, capable of sustaining 110 miles an hour. Prince built the new Los Angeles speedway, which was the first of the first race of the present season last February. At the first race on this track 96,000 persons paid from $3 to $10 to see the stars of the automobile racing world compete. (Continued From Page Eight.)

Batters and Wins Game
Joplin, Mo., May 21.—George Boehler struck out 14 Tulsa batters here today and Joplin won, 6 to 5, in a 10-inning contest. But for errors behind Boehler the score should have been 5 to 3 for Joplin in nine innings. Morris, who fanned the first three men to face him yesterday before rain stopped the game, was batted out of the box in the seventh inning.
