

A new electric locomotive of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway engaging in a reverse tug-of-war with a huge Mallet freight locomotive recently. The big electric machine in grim silence easily overpowered the "steam horse."

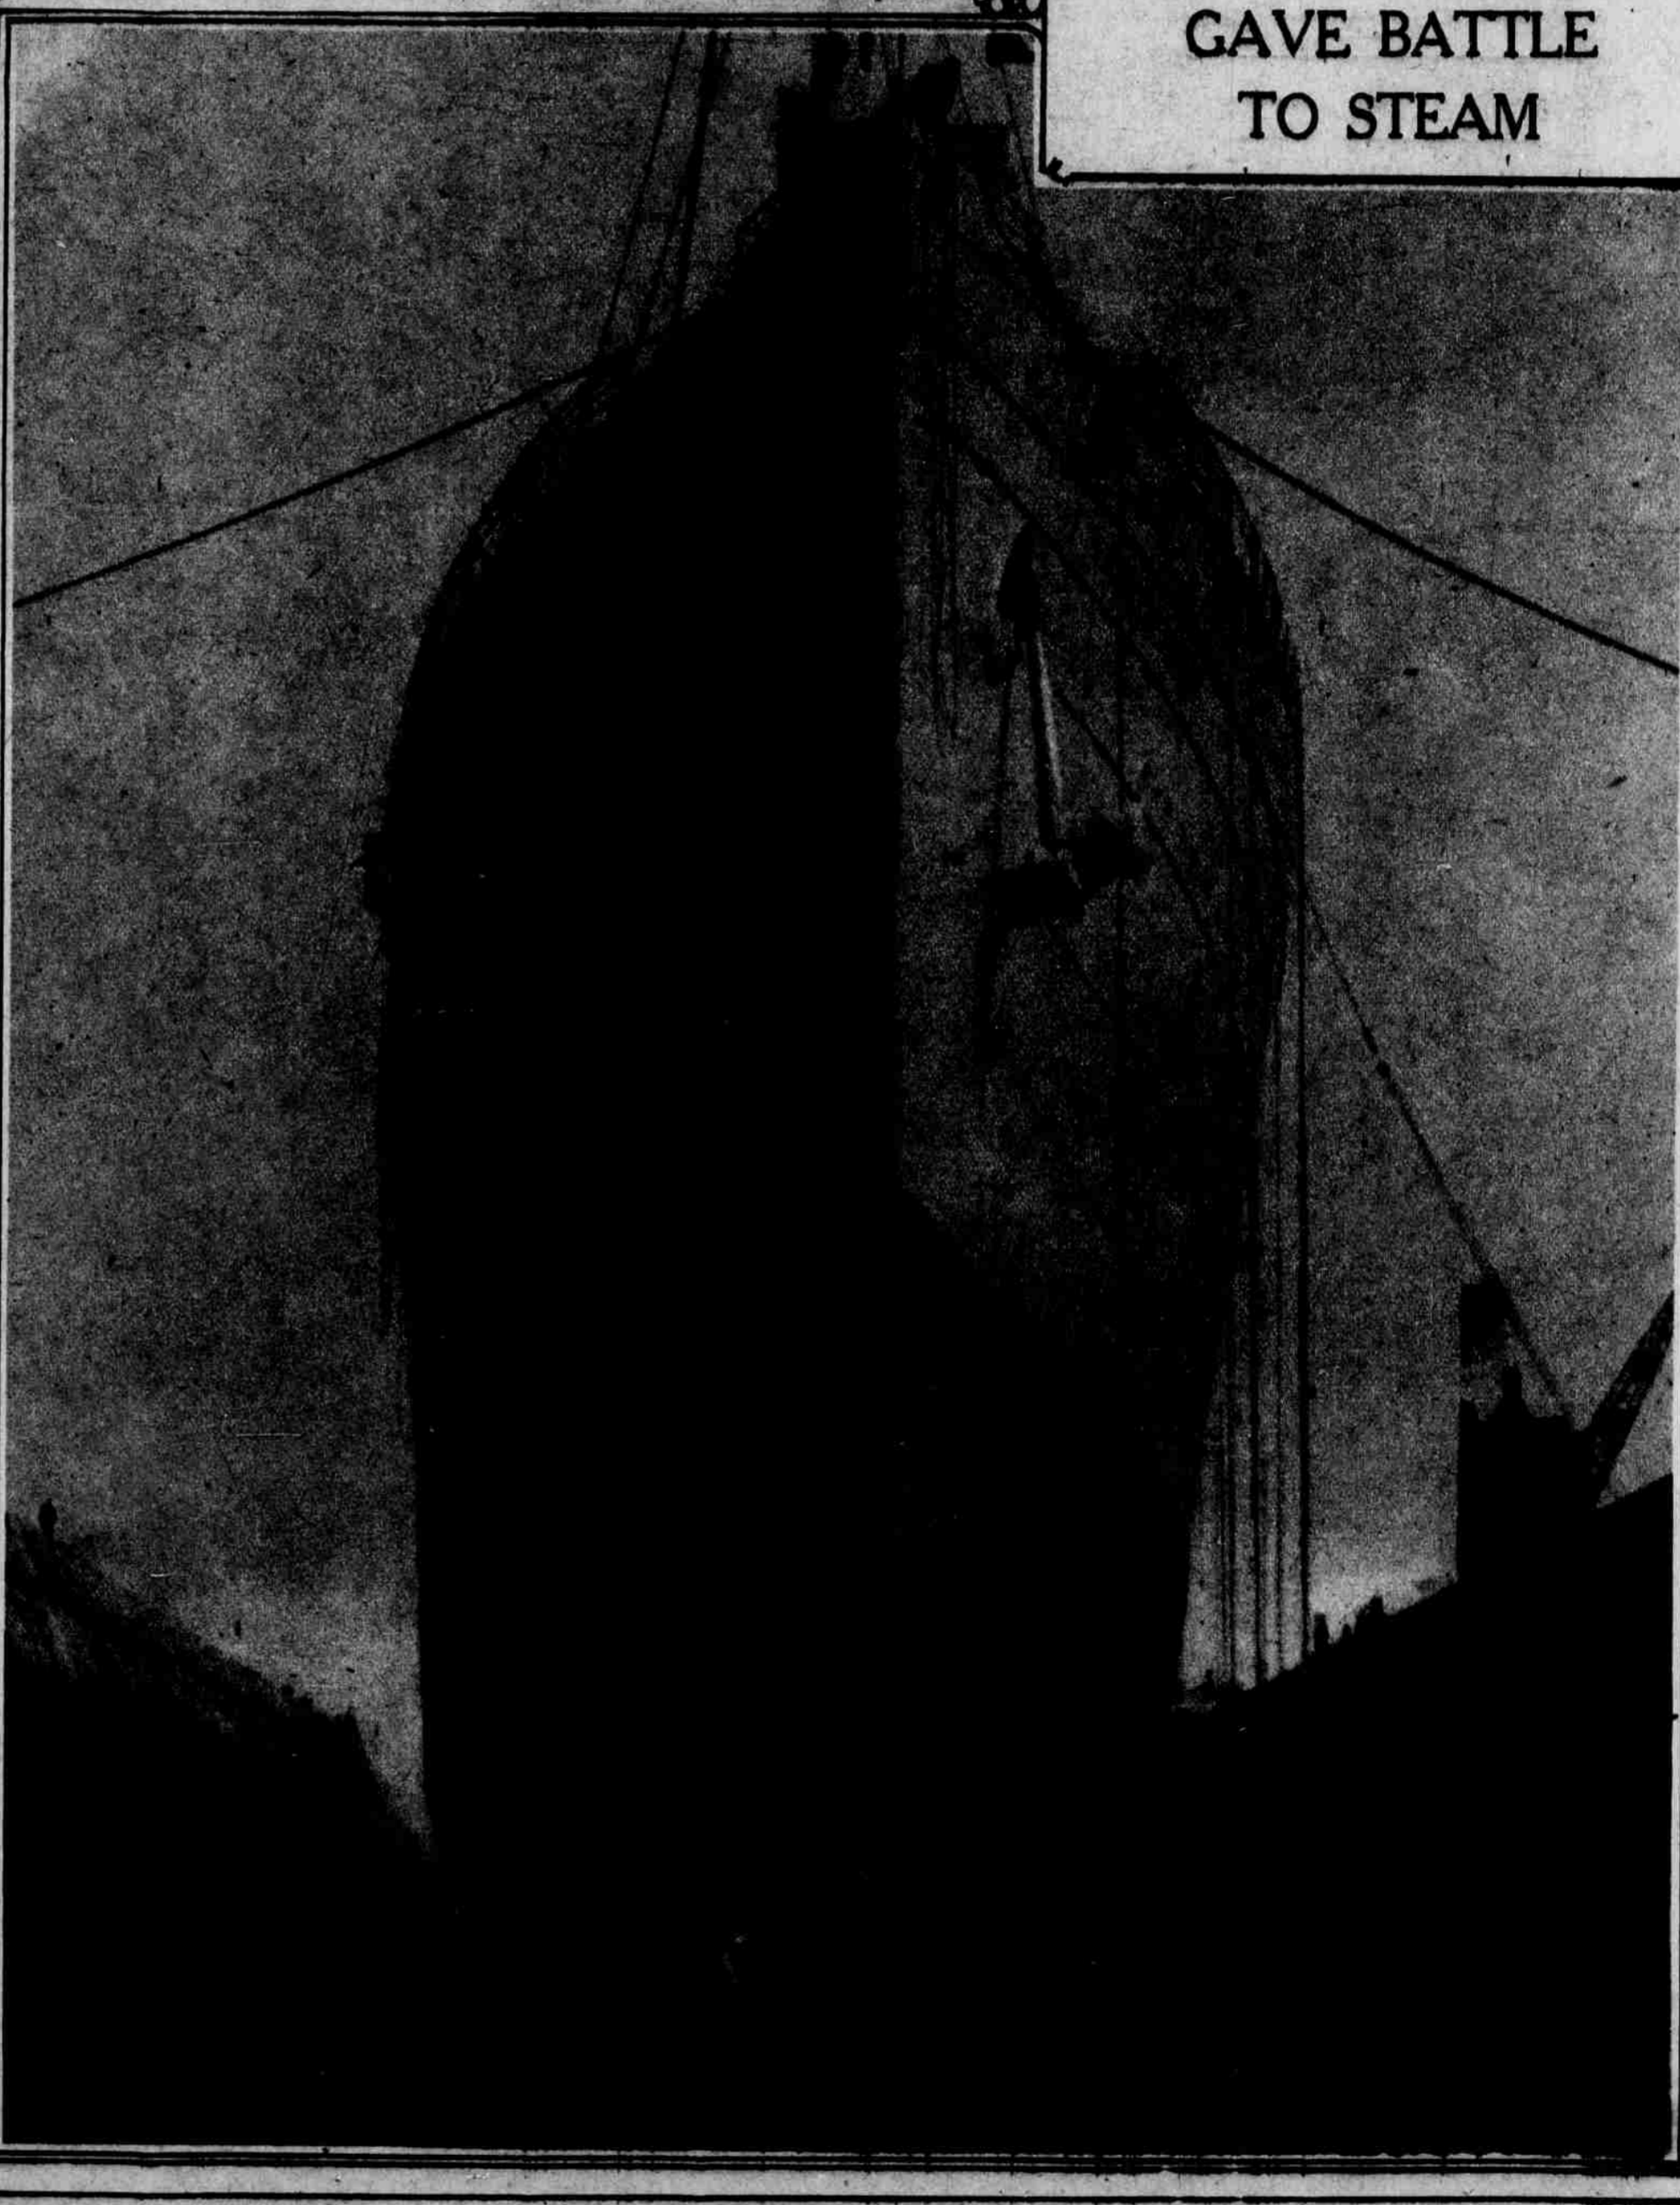

WHEN ELECTRICITY
GAVE BATTLE TO STEAM

The celebrated French tennis star, Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, playing at the Nice lawn tennis club on the Riviera, society's famous winter resort. It is reported that Mlle. Lenglen is to visit the United States next summer and participate in women's championships over here.

Here is little Miss Lillian Roth, only eight years old and already starring in a Broadway production. Lillian has a featured role in "Shavings," the Cape Cod comedy. As the scene of the play is a toy shop, Lillian says she doesn't have to act at all, but just have a good time.

Bow view of the United States army transport Mount Vernon as she lays in the new drydock of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, Hunters Point, San Francisco.