STOCK TO HELP SMALL PAPERS

Chicago Publisher Places 100 Tons at Disposal of Publications in Need of Supplies.

Chicago, May 26.-Victor F. Law-News, has released 100 tons of newsprint to be distributed to smaller newspapers, which are in need of supplies and are reported to face suspension if immediate assistance is not given them, it was announced

A number of newspapers throughout the country are without mill con-nections, according to J. L. Fearing, western manager of the International Paper company, who said that the action of Mr. Lawson and other large publishers in releasing part of. their tonnage at the request of the International Paper company, George H. Mead company and other concerns, had saved the lives of many papers. . Mr. Fearing, who asked Mr. Lawson to release the tonnage, said he found him anxious to co-operate in Kenyon comes to the Empress today in "The Harvet Moon," Augustus tract with my manager and they didn't get a chance to show me up."

A. Lessey is masculine lead. Wilfred Lytell, brother of Bert, is a member of the cast.

Strand—Wallace Reid, in "The Dancin' Fool," and Harold Lloyd, in Dancin' Fool," and Harold Lloyd, in Softening effect upon the "spot" Mr. Lawson's request the paper will be distributed by Mr. Fearing, who said this action and that of otherlarge publishers had already had a softening effect upon the "spot" market, and that there were indications of an early adjustment of the news print situation. Mr. Fearing stated that so far as possible the distribution of the paper would be effected through the committee on news print supply with which the Inland Daily Press asso-Muse-"Yankee Doodle in Berlin." ciation is affiliated through Willard Grand—Shirley Mason, in "Her Elephant Man."

Suburban—William S. Hart, in "Square Deal Sanderson."

Hamilton—Buck Jones, in "Forbidden Trails."

THEATERS

The week is to conclude the regular Orpheum season and the current bill is one of the most pepular shows oftered in many weeks. The fantastic comedy, "Tom Walker in Dixie," is one of the stellar attractions. It is a play written by John B. Hymer. Whether he is more distinguished as a playwright or as a character actor would be hard to determine. Certain it is that no portrayer of the negro character is more effective than he. "Whirl of Variety" is another headline attraction this week. It is a lavishly staged revue with diverse elements, which include a bit of grand opera, some jazz and much spirited dancing. Next week the summer season is to open at the Orpheum. There will be five standard Orpheum acts and a feature photopisy. The performance will be continuous from 2:15 in the afternoon until 11 at night.

Hughey Howard and Johnny Fieldz, of the bill.
