Stops Hair Coming Out;
Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

BIG ULCER ALL HEALED

"Now I Can Walk," Says Mrs. Southcott of Medina

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson, of Buffalo. "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

"Money isn't everything in this world. There is many a big hearted, rich man who would give all he has on earth to be able to produce a remedy with such mighty healing power as Peterson's Ointment, to sell at all drug stores for 50 cents a large box."

Read this letter, written February 14, 1918, by Mrs. Albert Southcott, of Medina, N. Y. It seems like a miracle, but it is true, every word of it.

"I know it because I get similar letters almost every day from people who have used my ointment for old sores, eczema and piles."

Is it any wonder I am happy!

Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sirs—

"I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcer. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine dollars worth of the ointment I am cured. The ulcer was 5 inches by 4 1/2 inches, it all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again."

"You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. I cannot say enough to praise it. Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Medina, N. Y. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y."

Best Home Treatment for All Hairy Growths

(The Modern Beauty)

Every woman should have a small package of delatone handy for its timely use will keep the skin free from beauty-marring hairy growths. To remove hair or fuzz, make a thick paste with some of the powdered delatone and water. Apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be free from hair or blemish. To avoid disappointment be sure you get real delatone.

To Shrink a Fleeshy, Flabby, Wrinkled Face

The woman whose face has a bloated appearance at times, as well as she whose face is permanently over-fleeshy or flabby, should use the simple saxolite solution. This is made by dissolving one ounce of powdered saxolite in one-half pint of witch-hazel ingredients which any druggist can supply. Use as a wash lotion. There is nothing better to reduce the face to a normal appearance. The loose skin shrinks, bagginess and wrinkles are ironed out. Not only does the effect quickly show in one's improved looks, but there is also a comfortable feeling of firmness and smoothness.

This treatment is far superior to massage. The latter, as a matter of fact, can afford but temporary relief, and the continuance tends to break down the muscular tissue and aggravate the trouble.

Problems That Perplex

Answered By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Lonesome Farmer Boy.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I thought I would write to you, as I am a lonesome farmer's boy. Do you think I am too young to go with girls to shows on Wednesday and Saturday, as I am 17 years old and am a good church and Sunday school member? I go every time it does not rain.

I will answer any letter or exchange cards with any boy or girl. Yours truly,

ELMER SCHACHT,
Cook, Neb.

We think your letter sounds sincere and are therefore printing it. Do you get much pleasure from good reading? You have an opportunity to make friends with the greatest writers of all time. Try to improve and do not waste your spare time.

D N B A C—I am sure a worthy young man such as you recommend yourself to be, will some day find the right girl for a wife. I judge you take yourself too seriously. Try to go more and enjoy the society of young people. Do not think it is wicked to have a good time. A hearty laugh is good for the soul. Attend church and go to other places where you will meet people of your own age. Do not lower your high moral standards, but try to see more of the joy and sunshine of life.

Rosebud—Perhaps the circulation in your arms and hands is not good. I cannot undertake to get correspondents for you. The purpose of this column is to advise.

Mrs. A—It is plain to me that your mother works very hard, receives little money and has little pleasure. No doubt she is nervous and cross at times. You are young and should keep your temper and help your mother keep hers. You say your mother buys you good clothes. She does very well at $7 a week, and no doubt has to sacrifice herself for you. Stand by your mother for the present and try to get some kind of an education. Then when you are a little older you will be able to earn a good salary yourself and can help take care of her.

Betty and Jane—Don't let any one persuade you that it is indecent to go with a young man for several years without marrying him. The woman who made the remark you speak of was not only unkind, but was quite mistaken.

In the case of the young man who has precise notions about what a girl should do, I think if he is truly fond of the young woman he is going with his "notions" will adjust themselves. That is, providing the girl does nothing which would give him just cause to find fault.

It is not necessary to dance every dance with one's escort. It is never rude to refuse to do anything which seems wrong to you. Do not accept the invitation of the young woman who ignores your fiancé. It is the man's duty and privilege to engage the dances for his partner. She should give the matter no concern.

For the Bride of Today

There are no dreaded thoughts of bread baking such as when Mother was a Bride

IT USED TO BE a part of every girl's education to be able to bake good bread. She was required to spend many long hours in the kitchen learning how to set a sponge, to knead dough, and how to shape it for the pans. For in olden times a mother who would send her daughter out unprepared in the art of bread-baking was considered careless and a poor housewife.

Many a perfectly matched daughter (or shall we say bride) took her vow to love, to honor and to obey with fear in her heart that her first baking would turn out a failure—even Mother's "luck" was sometimes not the best, and the thought of failure was a most dreaded one, the cause of many a tear.

But today things are different. The baking is all done in the bake shops—those wonderful snow-white kitchens where every possible scientific and sanitary advantage is used to produce BETTER BREADS—so why should the bride of today try to compete against such experts?

We make Tip-Top and Hard Roll Bread so good that, no matter how well the young husband has been "fed" at home, he will always enjoy them, whether as toast, sandwiches or with the heavier meals. Let us suggest to all 1920 brides that you put your faith in us and let us help make your married days the easier and more enjoyable.

Your Grocer handles Tip-Top and Hard Roll Breads—just look for our little trademark labels—don't accept a cheap counterfeit—insist that your BREAD bears our guarantee.

Breakfasts that all men enjoy—

Here are a few suggestions for the 1920 bride, as to what to serve him for breakfasts.

Men always like to start the day with a little fruit in season.

Then cereal—such as Puffed Oats, Corn Flakes, Shredded Wheat, or the like—served with plenty of cream.

Some men enjoy a slice of bacon with an egg—others like link sausage.

No breakfast is complete without its Tip-Top or Hard Roll TOAST, or love toast—and the better the bread the better the toast. Always serve Tip-Top or Hard Roll Toast.

Coffee. Serve "French" Toast on Sunday mornings, with syrup and link sausage or bacon.
