

ficulties.

Rarer than the most precious cf blood red rubies. More sought than the sparkling diamond in the tiara of Princess cents?" With Penelope.

More costly than a bushel of the sixth month of the year containing newest of new potatoes. Up from the night's repose on the bosom of Mother Earth, among the fairies and gnomes that flitter hither and yon amongst the daisies, pops Wearie Willie, the most extensive precious morsels of black diamonds known to modern man. traveler And from his ruby lips comes the nace door.

"What is so rare as a day in June? How about a beefsteak for 15 taining to wintry blasts.

-Oh, a Smile Always Wins.

Surprise Regarding Women

Dual Convention on Rear Platform of Wattles' Elec-

For this is the month of the June | With the approach of June, the bride and the June bug. The June bug is a useful little handily. beetle. On its wee shoulders are rested many a weavy burden and much blame. That dangerous human specie known as man of the vampire type, when charmed by slender ankle and into the yawning abyss of the furpretty face of charming maid, duly flickers the eyelid.

Same Old Alibi.

Pat is so rare-?"

50 MILES AN HOU

unsolved query with its much sought To the attic in moth balls go fur At times he is successful. But at other times he is rebuffed.

On these latter occasions, especial- stately micn, young Lothario stalks y, comes in the June bug most down the aisle to his fate. ly, comes in the June bug most "Pahdon me. There must be some mistake. A bug flew in my eye. Don't flatter yourself. I was hardly winking at you.'

What is so tare as a day in June ?

How about a beefsteak for 15#?

And as a rule, said flirt gets away with it. Little June bug thrives most heartily in the northern part of the United

NSWERED

ATLAST

ou

Can't

are catching. States. He is any one of several their original exponent. species of large brown melolonthine beetles of genus Lachnocterna, so called because they begin to fly about the first of June, according to Hon. Dannie Webster, Esq. Hence June bug gets blamed for everything.

JUNE

MILES AN HOU

8-D

Miss Gladys James started it. Jack Becket, bell boy, watched her, and learned the trick.

And now "everybody's doin' it,

Especially is he pestiferous when the speed demon steps on 'er down the country road. one's looking. Dad Knows Well.

Into young Oldfield's eye flits June bug, out of the car flops the demon, and into the ditch goes the

"If that bug hadn't-" is the alibi father hears. But the queen of the May becomes the bride of June in that fateful sixth month of the year. Why it is that pretty young brides surely are catching. Reading These Names Almost Provides One delight in picking June for their wedding is more than the bold young bridegrooms can figure. But such is the case. Some Good, At Last.

And with furrowed brow and The police morals squad was making the rounds of Omaha hotels in Statistics show that more careree young men have signed their eloped from Des Moines. For on little buggie's shoulder is death warrants in the month of June Here's what was found on the shifted the blame for said flickering than during all the other months of register: George Barr of Altoona, Ia.; John Sherry of Oskaloosa James Wines of Milwaukee and the year combined. And the same statistics show that Louis Ginn, who said he lived in fewer divorces grow out of June Oshkosh." weddings than from any other single month of the 12.

Could it have been such world-wise thoughts that drove the poet to formulate the famous line: head of the squad. But the combination of anti-prohibition names were not yet complete. On another page of the register were affixed the names of Clarence Porter and Emily Stout from Toledo and I. M. Beer of Fre-Not long ago they were up in the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria for lunch. After they came out, "Dovey" seemed not in her usual good spirits while he was in town.

Spanish? Who Knows

A special train bearing a number of Mexicans came into the Omaha Union station yards last week en route to the beet fields of western Nebraska.

desk. The Mexicans were to change "I see a patriotic French sculptor and two neckties and pointed out trains here and a Union station offi- is making a bust of Georges Car- that therefore he was able to wear ferent occasions while they were eatthey were going out on. star reporter.

"Midnight George" Tells of Actress Shakes Wicked Vertebrae In Omaha; Outrunning Bloodhounds Dance Now All Rage

Twas Exciting 60-Mile Race With Bloodthirsty Dogs Down In Oklahoma, Explains Guest of Sheriff Clark.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 30, 1920.

including the cooks, waiters, clerks and guests at the hotel where Miss James stopped. For the "shoulder shaking blues" Rev. George Warren, of Alabama, Oklahoma and other points south, who is serving a six-months sentence 10 minutes 'Ah heard the dogs And Miss James, at the Orpheum in the Douglas county jail on a again. Up they come an' stopped last week with William Rock, is charge of breaking and entering, is right at the barn an' soon men come one of the most interesting charac-ters ever confined in Sheriff Clark's of 'em stepped right on me, but They're a cross between an Oriental, an Egyptian and a Hawaiian dance, with a mixture of the vulgar shimmy thrown in, Miss James said. It is estimated that at least 24 gallons of soup have been spilled by waiters since the "blues" became popular at the hostelry. Bell boys are shaking 'em as they Bell boys are shaking 'em as they page bankers and silk salesmen. "By that time the high she'iff

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

guilty so as to avoid the possibility of being sent to the penitentiary for drove up in his car. They brought Bankers and silk salesmen are a long term, shaking 'em whenever they think no

Tells Bloodhound Adventure.

They became popular at a dance in the hostelry the other night. George tells in inimitable style of an amazing all-night race with bloodhounds in Oklahoma on an oc-casion fourteen years ago, when, There were no representatives of the welfare board present, but Miss James predicts that the welfare board will be shaking 'em too, if it's again, he claims he was persecuted by the law for another man's crime. exposed to 'em. For the "shoulder-shaking blues' With many motions and gurgling laughs he tells the story: "Ah'd come oveh an' wo'ked in the ha'vest in Oklahoma. Then Ah decided Ah'd go to Kansas City. There ain't no use payin' money foh a ticket when you can ride a freight. So Ah met another fellow an' we decided to take a freight that night. "The freight pulled up an' stopped foh water. The other fellow was Of Those Headaches on the off side an' Ah was on the near side. So Ah was just climbin' aboard when Ah hear a terrible up an' unlock the doors an' search of a couple reported to have shoutin' an' here come a crowd of 'You all get out of here an' don't you men. 'There he is', one of 'em yelled. ever come back.' "Well, the'e was another feller ar-Ran Hounds Breathless. "Well, Ah didn't know what was rested foh not suppo'tin' his wife. So the matter, so Ah lit out across the fields. Ah run foh 'bout three pray but them walls didn't shake one hours, from 11 o'clock to 2. Then little bit an' them doors didn't rat-Ah stopped an' listened an' Ah tle. So he got mad an' begun to "What kind of stuff is this hotel heard them dogs. They was blood-hounds bayin' 'Woo-oo-oo.' Ah But Ah told him the'e was a differtrying to pull," softly spoke the said to mahself, 'Boy, you'd better ence. This other man hadn't vilated travel.

Sport Slave Humbles

Star Reporter With

The sporting editor was talking it no laws of the land in preachin' "So out Ah lit again, an' Ah run bout three hours mo'e. Then Ah was tuckered out foh sure an' Ah lim."

> Smart Student Proves Mathematical Problem A Retort Courteous Prof. Says Impossible

me out. The minute he seen me he says, 'That ain't the right man.'

says, 'That ain't the high o'clock an' Well, they held me, till 8 o'clock an'

then they done turn me loose. "But Ah sure run them dogs to with their tongues hangin' out. The high she'iff done told me later that one of 'em died. Ah run 'im to death. Ah reckon Ah cove'ed 50 to

"Miracle" In Muskogee.

George also tells of a remarkable happening in Muskogee, Okla. "The'e was a feller arrested the'e foh preachin' on the street without a license. When he was in jail he get down on his knees an' pray that the Lo'd open the prison doors. An' the walls begun to shake an' the doors begun to rattle. An' the jailor come sav.

75 miles that night."

The professor of mathematics at over with the star reporter, who Creighton college had just begun to leans toward "art" and was trying to "gas" the low-brow of the sport desk. man who had three suits of clothes one suit with each of the two neck-songs, to jerk their tails and open their beaks in a manner most lifetheir lives to converting the heathen. They probably will go to South America, they say. In fact, the most sophisticated of

The Farnam car was speeding westward a few days ago. The con-ductor and a talkative gentleman the same instant the conductor were noticed looking long and hard at the tiny songsters, try-ing to appear as if they knew they were noticed looking long and hard at the tiny songsters, try-ing to appear as if they knew they signal by which to convey love mes-

Wherein Our Hero Gets Big Sweet Warblings of Now They Know Why "Borneo Bullfinch" That Old Lady Was So Stern at Their Table Puzzle Cafe Patrons At the University of Omaha are matter. A downtown cafe in Omaha re-tric Ends in Crushing Blow to Male Men Who birds. The birds are induced by birds. The birds are induced by the birds are

What is so rare as a day in June? times, that means "Yes, dearie, I do, indeed." and "Lovey" asked her what was the

"Why, you didn't ask me once times and you never answered me." And now the young pair know why the stern looking old lady who sat at the same table with them and public welfare. "That's Mrs. Whoizzit, quite a leader in women's politics," said the garrulous one.

"She looks like she'd be a good talker, all right," volunteered the conductor. "Judging by her jaw, I wouldn't want her for a wife." Knocked Him C

That's the Trouble.

"She could probably give you a certain lecture that would last all night if you came in 10 minutes later to look after. I'm surprised they do than she thought you ought to," so well.'

laughed the citizen of many words. "That's the trouble with them suffergets, they talk too much," conductor opened the doors with-spoke the conductor. "Talk an arm out slamming them.

spoke the conductor. "Talk an arm off you. Always want to have their way. Nobody else knows nothing. That's what I got against 'em." "I agree with you," said the man of words. "Woman's place is in the home. Being in politics makes 'em wild. They lose their poise. Get excited about the least fittle thing. I know."

Look Out! Storm Ahead!

The buzzer rang but the conductor was so interested in the argument that he didn't hear it. The car man. shot past Thirty-fourth street at full speed.

violent jerk. And Mrs. Whoizzit smiled. "That's all right," said she sweet-

"What kind of a bird is that?" nodding his head in its direction, "That," said the manageress of the cafe, "is a North Borneo bullly. "I can get off at Thirty-sixth street. It's just a nice walk back

The stout patron looked again. "Uh-huh," he said. Knocked Him Cold.

"Gosh. I'm sorry, lady," blurted Frank Expects Soon the conductor. "Oh, don't mention it," said Mrs.

To Be Able to Warble In Twelve Languages And the car slowed up and stopped at Thirty-sixth. And the out slamming them.

He even smiled. "I beg yer pardon," he said. Think of a conductor saying that! most cosmopolitan district. In ad-dition to selling pills and tonics, Frank also sells Victrola records. Full Day's Pay.

"Please don't mention it," smiled Mrs. Whoizzit. The doors closed. "Two bells."

Hungarians want Hungarian pieces. Itallans want Italian pieces. Poles want Polish records. And so "Say, you can't tell me nothing about suffergets," said the conductor.

Since Frank sells records in about "Gosh, I hope she didn't hear what we were saying," said the other that the frequent repetition of the wouldn't have her hear it for of his landing in a booby hatch ere a day's pay," said the conductor. long.

Frank Hermansky operates a drug store on West Q street, Omaha's

Here is where his troubles bubble

THE

OFFICE

feet protesting every minute. .

There is no charge for this service.

W. S. Stryker

Douglas Shoe Store, Inc.

117 North 16th St.

Opposite Postoffice

Competent Shoe Fitters to Serve You

The grand sire gave his shoulders "Humph," growled the sport scribe ties, whereat one of the wiseacres can the back platform were talking. A woman got on. She is a well known woman, prominent in politics and public welfare. "That's Mrs. Whoizzit, quite a " "He can wear "Why, sure he can wear more-

The star reporter hasn't come up suppose he does not wear any suit

FOR BREACH OF

Heart Balm-General Says It is . a Frame-Up By Political Enemies.

A dastardly attempt to blacken Stinger, editor of the Bumble Bee and a leading candidate for the presidency of the United States, was made today when a suit for $100 damages for breach of promise of marriage was filed against him by Miss Tessie Hyacinth Kewcumber, "It is a frame-up," declared Clarment issued right after he was ap- got to say.

turn.

GER IS SUED gentleman treats a lady. I took her a moving picture show to which he out walking and once took her for had passes and in 1917, again having a street car ride to Albright and re- passes, he escorted the plaintiff again to a moving picture show.

PROMISE "This was the extent of my at-tions to the lady and if she says I done or said more, she knows What she is, and I am too much of a gentleman to say it. "As a matter of fact, she proposed "As a matter of fact, she proposed" "As a matter of fact, she proposed "As a matter of fact, she proposed" "As a matter of fact, she prop "This was the extent of my at-to me. Yes, sir, she 'popped the question,' and, while I am sensible to the charms that a man of ap-pearance and success has to a girl, I did not feel like meaning has a girl, to which the defendant, Stinger, A dastardly attempt to blacken I did not feel like marrying her and, made no reply. e character of General Ananias therefore, did not. That is all there "Since that e

the character of General Anamas Stinger, editor of the Bumble Bee is to it. "This will not interfere with my changed been to see the plaintiff a pair of carpet clippers, presented by her to him on "Since that evening he has not Miss Tessie Hyacinth Kewcumber, "It is a frame-up," declared Clar-ence Small Nickel, campaign mana-ger for General Stinger, in a state-where they get off. That is all I've Bot to say.

the second second second second to the second s

YOU'LL GET RID OF UNSIGHTLY HAIRS SURE

"SEE STRYKER'