Thirteen-Inning Game Goes to Boosters, Score 3 to 1

ROURKES DROP OPENING GAME TO DES MOINES

Two Hits, an Error and a Mis play in the Thirteenth Frame Hand Game to Visitors.

Omaha lost the first extra-inning game of the local season yesterday when Kopp weakened in the thirteenth and Mason and Gislason fumbled the ball like amateurs, allowing the Des Moines Boosters to cross the plate twice. Cykowski, Des Moines' new pitch-ing acquisition from Cleveland Indians was on the mound for the visitors. He held the locals to three Oscar Fuhr did the hurling for Omaha until the ninth when Hale hit for him. O'Connor singled in the first inning, Hasbrook singled in the second and O'Connor singled in the second and O'Conno again in the third. Then Oscar set-tled down and held the Coon Creek-ers hitless for the rest of his ten-Des Moines Scores First. The Boosters tallied in the third. Breen walked, went to second on Breen walked, went to second on Cykowski's sacrifice and scored on O'Connor's single.

The Rourkes couldn't touch Cykowski. Lelivelt singled in the sixth for the locals' only hit of the first eight innings. Hale batted for Fuhr in the ninth to open the inning and slammed out a double to right center. Maullin, running for Hale, went down to third on Gislason's sacrifice bunt and tallied on Palmero's sacrifice fly to left.

Charlie Kopp took the mound for Omaha. He fanned O'Connor in the tenth and Breen in the twelfth and kept the rest of the Boosters rolling grounders to the infielders until the thirteenth.

McDermott singled after one was down in the thirteenth. Metz sent an easy grounder to Mason, exan easy grounder to Mason, ex-cellent material for a double play, and Mason tried to pick it up with his heels instead of his mitts. Two men on. Milan rolled a similar grounder to Gislason and "Whitey" booted it around for a while but finally got Milan at first. Both runners advanced on the play. French lifted a Texas leaguer over short, scoring McDermott and Metz. The closest the Rourkes came to winning the game was when Lingle singled in the eleventh with one down and went to second on Kopp's sacrifice. Gislason flied out to Metz. this afternoon.
