OF OMAHA TODAY

Junior Agriculturists Will Inspect Packing Industry And Other Sights of Greater Omaha.

Today 150 winners of the various unior agriculutral club contests in Nebraska will be entertained by the people of Omaha. In the morning the young people will be guests at the stock yards, where they will make an inspection of the yards and packing plants.

H. L. Van Amburgh of the stock yards company will take the party in charge and conduct them on a tour of all the interesting sights, after which they will be entertained at a luncheon in the exchange cafe.

In the afternoon the Omaha Chamber of Commerce will take the youngsters on a trip around the city in automobiles and in the evening they will be guests of the chamber at a luncheon, returning later to Lin-coln, where the party is in conference a thte annual meeting of club

The junior workers are being given a week's visit at Lincoln as a

ALFRED THOMAS $30 Per Acre Cheyenne County, Nebraska.

Nebraska.

Within 11 miles of Sidney, Neb., I own a section that I will sell for $30 per acre. Anyone who lives near the place will tell you it is worth all of that. If money was plentiful I could sell it to the neighbors. It has a frame house, a good barn, windmill, fenced and cross-fenced, two hundred acres are under cultivation. I have 100 acres, of it in winter wheat that looks like it will run 30 bushels to the acre, all this wheat goes to the buyer. Wheat will sell from three to five dollars per bushel this fail, with 100 acres lays for the profits. My only reason for selling is need of cash. The 200 acres lays fine, the balance lays rolling to rough. This would make a fine combination grain and stock farm. For the next two weeks it is yours for $30 an acre. Any kind of land now days is worth that price. Terms can be arranged. Write for further information Box Y-1151, Bec. I.OT-Fontenelle addition; bargain. Wul-nut 4121. REAL ESTATE INVESTMENTS
