Weisman-Bernstein.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Sunday evening when Miss Sarah Bernstein became the bride of Mr. Samuel B. Weisman at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. Bernstein, Rabi Schatz officiating.

Only immediate relatives attended the wedding. Little Bertha Tuchman, niece of the groom, carried the ring in a tiny golden basket of roses.

The bride wore a white satin and georgette gown, embroidered in silver, her tulle veil in cap effect, reaching the hem of the gown. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, her only ornament being a platinum wrist watch, gift of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Weisman are now on their honeymoon through the south and will be at the home of the bride's mother after July 1.
