Booze Locked in Safety Box Is Willed to Woman

Sacramento, Cal., June 5.—Charles Rhodes of this city believed in "safety first" when the 18th amendment went into effect. He stored his precious stock of liquors in a safety deposit box. Tuesday, May 4, Rhodes committed suicide. Several days later a will was found in a local bank making Mrs. Mary Nelson his beneficiary. By the terms of the will Mrs. Nelson was made heir to 15 bottles of whisky and a bank account of $2,000. All of Rhodes' worldly effects were stored in various safety deposit boxes.

What is said to be the first automobile in the world was recently located by American officers near Le Mans, France. The authentic record of this self-propelled road vehicle is that it was built in 1878.

Calls Cops to Quell Miniature Craps Riot Of College Students

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Evanston, Ill., June 5.—Dean Roy C. Flickinger of the College of Liberal Arts of Northwestern university Thursday night came upon five students playing craps, accompanied by much obscenity and profanity. The five youths also had obtained a bottle of liquor.

The dean ordered the game stopped and threatened the players with expulsion, whereupon they threatened to smash windows, tear down doors and wreck the university generally. Police were summoned and the incipient riot was quickly subdued. Four of the youngsters lost their chestiness and went to bed, but the fifth, Paul R. McGill, of St. Joseph, Mo., packed up his belongings and started home. He was a freshman in the college of liberal arts. Dean Flickinger refuses to name the others.
