

THE GUMPS-

CARP CAVIAR UP TO 644 TODAY.

Drawn for The Bee by Sidney Smith

given the name "Tiger?" Clem...
4. What was the name of the Tennessee mountaineer who in the late war, killed 25 Germans and had 132 others surrender to him? Alvin C. York.
5. Who was chairman of the official committee of public information during the late war? George Creel. Winner: No correct answer.

I'M THE GUY!

I'M THE GUY that sneaks up behind you and slaps you on the back. That's my idea of a pleasant little surprise. If I knock your hat off, so much the better. If you happen to have a hool on your shoulder or in the middle of your back, it makes all the more fun for me. It makes an interesting game for me to play to guess where it is and then try to whack it. I seldom miss.
I hand you a good, hard wallop, because that knocks the breath out of you and gives me a chance to tell you "I'm glad to see you're back!" before you can bawl me out. The only reason I've missed you is because there's been one less back for me to exercise on. I don't dare to try it on strangers. They wouldn't understand my playfulness. Maybe you don't either, but that's immaterial to me. I've got to have backs to slap to keep me happy and I might as well use yours. Especially if it's a nice, soft one that won't sting my hand.

Japanese Twins and the Colored Sand.
When the twins woke up the next morning it was cold, and the rain was beating on the roof. They couldn't look out of the window to see it, because there were no glass windows in their house.

For Boys and Girls (continued)
Bill raised no objection and in a few minutes Hunting Eye was arrayed in khaki, complete all save the hat, for he would not take out his feather.
"Why war paint, too?" he explained.
He was only allowed to wear it for a few moments and then was bidden to change back to his own buckskin suit.

What Do You Know?
(Here's a chance to make your wit worth money. Each day The Bee will publish a series of questions, prepared by Superintendent J. H. Beveridge of the public schools. They cover things which you should know. The first complete list of correct answers received will be rewarded by $1. The answers and the name of the winner will be published on the day indicated below. Be sure to give your name and address in full. Address "Question Editor," Omaha Bee.)
