ing-Selling league at Hotel Fontenelle last night. Continuing, he said: "The time has come when we can't let George do it; each individual must act, and we must all do a little bit more and thus overcome the difficulties that confront us." The meeting was unusually snappy, as the attendants wished to go to the Ak-Sar-Ben den. Mr. Larson presided. He urged that more attention be given to the civic life of Omaha and he believed more thought should be directed along the line of what he referred to as a real city spirit.

"If you have the right spirit behind a city, you cannot stop its growth," he added. "A real community spirit will do the job. Let us be wise in planning for the greater city that is to come. Let us think of tomorrow and not think narrowly only for today. It depends on the spirit you put into your city." Mr. Larson stressed the importance of parks, playgrounds, churches, schools and better working conditions for workmen.

"When can we white-collared birds in the city do to overcome the $10 potato?" asked Chairman Larson, addressing Frank Meyers.

Want Cold Storage Plant. "Establish a municipal cold storage plant," was the ready reply. "I am going to work with the best spirit I have to make Omaha the best place in which to live," was the response of Harry Koch.

"It is all right to have the spirit, but the spirit must move us," said M. Halsey. A. A. Taylor, known as "Dictaphone Taylor," gave a demonstration of the use of the dictaphone and also a brief history of sound-recording and producing instruments.

"Poppy Day" Sales. Plattsmouth, Neb., June 7.—(Special)—The committee in charge has issued its report showing the net receipts of "Poppy day" to be $183.81, donations ranging from $1 down.
