instantly killed when one of a team of colts which he was driving kicked him in the back of the head, fracturing the skull at the base of the brain. The accident occurred on the farm owned by the Mackens, Giants Make it Three Out of about 20 miles west of here.

Clarence was working on the farm and after finishing the day's work, hitched the team to a spring wagon and started to the house. He had just stepped into the wagon after getting out to close a gate when the team lurched and threw him over the dashboard. He fell under the heels of one of the animals which kicked him. A neighbor woman saw the accident. The team ran away and the body of the boy was dragged a quarter of a mile from where the accident occurred. He is survived by his parents and five brothers and one sister.
