A Place in the Sun for Your Family Washing

Pure sunlight and fresh air are the greatest of all purifiers-we use much of both in the laundering of your family bundle.

. It is more important, too, than you may have thought. Having the washing "done out" by the laundress under conditions that are not always of the best is often false econ-

Isn't it most comforting, and isn't it safest for your health's sake to send your family bundle, where there are clean, contended competent folk; where there is cheeriness and hominess; where there's sunlight; where there's fresh air; where there's spic-and-spanness comparable with that in your own home?

From these wholesome surroundings we return your family bundle finely finished, daintily fragrant.

Protect your own and your family's health; get economical wash-day service.
