

RIVAL SPRINGS UP ENDANGERING SAVIDGE HONORS

Rev. Oliver D. Baltzly of Kountze Memorial Church Is "Marrying Parson's Closest Rival."

June brides and grooms are placing Rev. Oliver D. Baltzly, pastor of Kountze Memorial church, and Rev. Charles W. Savidge, the "marrying parson," in close competition for a record of marriages performed. Rev. Baltzly performed his fifteenth wedding yesterday afternoon, when he united Oscar Hauptman and Miss Emma Kavan in matrimony.

Rev. Savidge has a total of 24 weddings to his credit so far this month.

May Overcome Lead.
"I've got more coming, too," asserted Rev. Baltzly.

"They're coming my way in droves," Rev. Savidge exclaimed. Since the first of the year, Rev. Savidge has performed 214 marriages as against 70 performed by Rev. Baltzly.

The "marrying parson" boasts that all his leap year marriages have been thoroughly happy ones, despite that in many cases the bride took the initiative.

"They all depart in smiles after my ceremonies," Rev. Baltzly declared.

The marriages performed so far this month by Rev. Baltzly were between the following:

Walter D. Abrahamson, Loomis, Neb., and Lillian Lindquist, Galesburg, Ill.

Charles W. Hadan and Clara M. White, Bennington, Neb.

Elmer A. Petersen and Lucille Hein, Omaha.

Edwin F. Booth and Louise Heins, Omaha.

Wilbur L. Gerner, Cedar Rapids, Ia., and Irene Scott, Salina, Kan.

John A. Swanson and Bernice Dohson.

William Huntsman and Alta Mae Briggs, Emerson, Ia.

John Carmichael and Osilla Christensen, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Leland M. Henslar and Cecil M. Zarub, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Earl Gregg Crum, Council Bluffs, Ia., and Wilhelmina L. Kruse, Omaha.

Charles Perry Watts and Florence E. Goehring, Omaha.

Frederick R. Fluhr and Ruby Wright, Omaha.

Carol A. Jensen, Omaha, and Alice Pauline Field, Denver, Colo.

Harry Austin Cline and Miss August Larsen, Omaha.

Oscar Hauptman and Miss Emma Kavan, Omaha.

BOYS AS JURORS

FREE NEGRO LAD

HELD FOR THEFT

Accused Prisoner of Stealing Bicycles—Decide That He Needs Another Chance.

A juvenile "jury" of four boys of prominent families yesterday "acquitted" Herbert Haliday, colored, of stealing bicycles and paroled him to Judge Sears in juvenile court.

The boys testified against Haliday for stealing their bicycles.

"The evidence is all in," said Judge Sears, "and I am going to appoint you the jury. Go into the next room and take a ballot and see whether you find this colored boy guilty or not guilty."

The boys were Harold Gifford, son of Dr. Harold Gifford, 420 South Thirty-sixth street; Ralph Carlberg, son of C. G. Carlberg, realtor, 1002 South Thirty-eighth avenue; Philip Werner, 3346 Harney street, and Robert Encell, 355 South Thirty-fourth street.

"Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed on a verdict?" asked the judge when the boys returned after three minutes of deliberation.

The boys said their verdict was "to give him another chance."

The colored youth solemnly shook hands with his four alleged victims and all departed together.

Ak-Sar-Ben Show to

Be Held Tuesday for

Benefit of Visitors

"Sky-Low," the great new Ak-Sar-Ben show, will be on the boards this week Tuesday night instead of the usual Monday night, to accommodate delegates to the conventions of the Nebraska Bankers' association and the Nebraska Pharmaceutical association, which will be here, beginning Tuesday. From these organizations 1,000 men will see "Sky-Low" and witness the initiation.

Membership is leaping ahead toward the 5,000 goal. It was announced at near the 3,800 mark yesterday. Last year the total membership was 3,841.

Those who want to be Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben should call Douglas 333 or send their application to Secretary Weaver, room 205, Courtney building. The $10 membership fee gives the holder admission to the den every Monday night and admits him and his lady to the grand ball next October. It is proposed to close the membership roll when the 5,000 mark is reached.

Yesterday "Neighbor Day,"

But Fosterers Didn't Know It

Yesterday was "Neighbor day" in Omaha and all over the nation by proclamation of Cardinal Gibbons. The big idea is to get everybody to be neighborly and to assist in the dissemination of the milk of human kindness.

Monsignor Augustine M. Colaneri, chancellor of the Catholic diocese of Nebraska, said yesterday morning that he had not heard anything about a "Neighbor day."
