Thin, Nervous People Need Bitro-Phosphate

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus, conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, inability and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear. Eminent specialists state that one of the best things for the nerves is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing. By strengthening the nerves, work, tired people regain energy and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace dejection and gloom; dull eyes become bright and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. It is sold by Sherman & McConnell and all good druggists. CAUTION—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

HEADSTONE IS PUT ON GRAVE OF "MYSTERY GIRL"

Richly Gowned Woman Plants Flowers in Memory of Victim of Murder Here Last November.

The mystery of the death and identification of the woman found slain in a ravine north of Florence last November deepens with the placing of an elaborate granite headstone and a bed of flowers on the dead girl's grave. Authorities at West Lawn cemetery have no clue, they say, regarding the identity of the person who placed either the headstone or the flowers there. An inscription on the stone reads: "Mystery Girl, found November 20, 1919; buried Dec. 2, 1919." A richly dressed woman drove to the cemetery in a limousine several weeks ago and asked to place flowers there, H. B. Shook, superintendent of the cemetery, declared. She gave no name, he said. Several days later the headstone was found on the grave. It weighs 1,000 pounds. The death of the mystery girl was one of the most unfathomable mysteries ever encountered by police and county officers. The girl, apparently not more than 26 years old, was found dead from a bullet wound in the head.

The Nebraska

Shirt "Service"

YOU'D be surprised to know how many men come in here to buy the same items that they could get more conveniently elsewhere.

We have tried to bring about that condition by making our service mean something.

Service, to our mind, includes information about the goods we ask you to buy.

If you're not satisfied with buying your shirts from a salesman whose chief duty seems to consist of spreading out his stock, come here and ask for an Eagle Shirt.

We dare say you'll know more about shirts when you leave—and why EAGLE SHIRTS have very little competition.

You'll have reasons for buying. The shirts themselves will give you enough cause for coming for more.

A great collection.
