Mrs. Holyoke Honored.
Mrs. E. A. Holyoke, jr., of Omaha was honor guest at a dinner party of 60 covers given at the Lincoln Country club, Saturday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dunn of Lincoln, Neb. Mrs. Holyoke was visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beaumont.

Luncheon.
Miss Luella Peterson entertained at a luncheon of 10 covers, Monday, at the Omaha club, in honor of Miss Frances Noble.

League Frolic.
The alluring costumes to be worn by the actors in the Junior league frolic at the Country club, Tuesday evening, were designed by Mrs. Taylor Belcher. Mrs. Belcher has studied designing and, according to her friends, shows remarkable talent in this work.

The posters which have been used in connection with the frolic are the work of Helen Danforth, in reality Miss Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith of this city.

Miss Adelaide Fogg, who is directing all the dance numbers, will give a solo dance.
Harry Munsey of New York, who is in charge of the vocal numbers, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clarke during his stay in Omaha.

Attending Convention.
Miss Alice Howell of the University of Nebraska, Miss Amanda Heppner, dean of women at the state university; Miss Annis Chaikin, secretary of the University Alumnae association; Miss Sarah Muir of Lincoln and Mrs. P. T. McGerr of Falls City, chairman of the health department, Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs, are attending the convention of the League of Women Voters and Suffragists.

Piano Recital.
Miss Winifred Traynor will present a group of pupils in a piano recital at her home Wednesday evening. Those who will take part in the program include Ruth Meddler, Ellen Stearns, Mary O'Brien, Clare Wack, Miss L. Rozmajzl, Mrs. T. Brick and Mr. Harry O'Connor.

Carnival.
A joint fraternity and sorority carnival will be given at the John Jacobs Memorial gymnasium Wednesday evening, June 16, by the sororities and fraternities of the University of Omaha. Vaudeville stunts will be a feature.
Those in charge are Dorothy Gray, Margaret Powell, George Jerpe and Harlan Haaker. Proceeds of the affair will be devoted to a fund for the Gateway, a school paper.

Happy Hollow Club.
Mrs. Charles McMartin entertained 21 guests at luncheon at the Happy Hollow club Monday. The O'Disc club of Central High school will give a luncheon at the club Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Reed entertained 7 guests at luncheon Monday: Mrs. S. Caldwell, 6; Mrs. F. H. Davis, 5; and Mrs. J. A. C. Kennedy, 4. Mrs. J. H. Hess will entertain at a dinner of 14 covers at the Country club Tuesday evening; M. J. Waldo will have 6 guests; Mrs. J. M. Daugherty, 4; Dean Weaver, 4; and H. P. Whitmore, 4.

Suffrage Leader

Mrs. H. H. Wheeler

Mrs. H. H. Wheeler of Lincoln is in Omaha attending the last convention of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association and the first state congress of the League of Women Voters, which opened Sunday evening with a memorial service for Dr. Anna Howard Shaw at the First Presbyterian church. The meetings on Monday and Tuesday will be held at the Blackstone hotel.

Mrs. Wheeler is recognized as a pioneer suffragist. It would be difficult to find one who has done as much for the advancement of womanhood in this state or elsewhere as Mrs. Wheeler. She is the author of "Hand Book for Nebraska Citizens" on state government and historian for the Nebraska Suffrage association.

Mrs. Wheeler reported Monday morning at the suffrage debt incurred on account of the referendum case.
Field Club
Parties of seven at supper Sunday evening at the Field club were entertained by A. W. Gordon and Hubert Hicks. Groups of five guests were entertained by Dr. R. S. Johnston, T. B. Coleman, T. H. McDearmon, J. A. Abbott, C. T. Thummell, J. A. Young and R. H. Manley. Foursomes were entertained by G. R. McBride, A. H. Peters, John McMahon, M. M. LeVings, Wayne Selby, J. C. Hartnett, E. H. Ward and J. W. Napier.

HOLDING A HUSBAND

Adele Garrison's New Phase of Revelations of a Wife

Why Madge Wondered if There Really Was "Nothing New."

As Lillian finished speaking she looked to my father for his answer. I fancied I detected a little triumphant gleam in her eyes.

With unwilling admiration mingled with resentment I realized that without seeming to do so she had made it possible for Dicky to be told of Grace Draper's attempt to drown me without my having any voice or blame in the matter. My father was bound by no promise or compact, and Lillian had given him the information unasked by conditions. I knew that if he ever considered it necessary to use the weapon which had been thrust into his hands he would do so, and I realized with relief that my responsibility was ended.

My father bowed to Lillian ceremoniously.

"I am sorry to disagree with you, Mrs. Underwood," he said. "But I cannot deny that I approve my daughter's decision. She should not tell him."

Was it my imagination, or did he stress the pronoun ever so slightly; did I see a swift, significant flash of understanding leap from his eyes to Lillian's? She had been watching him intently as he spoke, had turned away her eyes with an intangible effect of bored disapproval as he finished, but I was practically certain of her real meaning.

"You see, Lillian," I spoke abruptly, "my responsibility in the matter is ended."

Lillian's Friendly Smile.

I looked directly and smilingly into her eyes as I spoke, for though I realized her skill in circumventing what she was pleased to call my "bomb-proof mental cellar," I was feminine enough to wish her to know that in Dicky's parlance I was "completely open."

She shot a side glance at me, tinged with amusement. If I had hoped for a mad instant to discomfit her I realized my folly at her look. Then she smiled in conciliatory fashion at me, one of her friendly smiles, which I would give anybody living to resist.

"That is as it should be, dear child," she said lovingly. "You have enough to bear just to know that you have to share the same world with this Draper cobra, without having to worry your head about ways and means to scotch her."

She turned to my father with an air that somehow dismissed me. I felt a little like a child that had been kissed and told to run away and play with her dolls, yet curiously enough I felt no resentment. Lillian's Friendly Smile.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hughes announce the birth of a daughter Sunday.

MOTHERS WHO PREPARE CAREFULLY WITH MOTHER'S FRIEND
AID NATURE AND THE PHYSICIAN
She should remain healthy by having avoided the discomforts which usually accompany such an occasion where nature is unaided. The nerves, muscles and tendons are thoroughly lubricated. After the crisis she should speedily regain her natural condition. Mother's Friend is used externally.

lian is so big of brain and heart, so single-minded in anything she does that one would as soon think of resenting the leaping of a race-horse toward his goal, brushing aside everything in his way, as of feeling hurt at her little way of shutting out everyone else from her attention save the person with whom she is working.

Madge is Banished.
And yet—I caught myself wondering if that very quality might not have jarred perceptibly upon Will Morton and Harry Underwood.

I put the thought from me sharply as disloyal to the best friend I ever had or hope to have, and gave my attention to the words she was speaking to my father.

"If you don't mind," she said deferentially, yet the words had all the effect of an ultimatum, "leaving the Dicky-bird to me, I have a pretty strong hunch that I know how to manage that particular end of this middle."

My father looked at her keenly, then smiled with more than a little admiring amusement in his gaze.

"I fancy you do," he said, "and I shall be glad to keep out of it."

"So far, so good," Lillian returned briskly, then she crossed to me and kissed me fondly.

"Dear child," she said softly, "don't be offended, but go upstairs and let Marion give you another cup of tea. I've got to talk over some things with your father, and, frankly, I don't want you here. You would hamper me. No," in answer to my frightened glance and quickly outstretched hand, "there's nothing new, but—well! I wish you'd go."

The last words were uttered almost petulantly, and I hurried out of the living room docilely, for I knew by experience that this particular tone with Lillian meant something of unusual importance and of need for haste.

As I mounted the stairs I wondered if she had told me the whole truth when she had said there was "nothing new."

Mexican Girls Crossing Border Cared for by Y. W. C. A.

The International institute of the Y. W. C. A. in El Paso, Tex., is caring for many Mexican girls who have, with or without their families, come across the border during recent disturbances.

The International institute faces the "international bridge" leading across the river into Mexico. This center, which has a staff of Spanish-speaking secretaries, was started before the war when trouble along the border was most acute.

MRS. THOMAS' WORD TO WOMEN
Tello of the Great Good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Her.

Morrie, Mich.—"About a year after my second baby was born I suffered with dizziness every morning so that I could hardly get around. I had heard from other women about your medicine and had read letters about it, so my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I took according to directions and in a short time I was entirely relieved. I also took the Vegetable Compound before my last baby came and am thankful to say that it relieved my suffering very much and I shall never be without it at such times. I have told others of its great worth and will keep on telling it."

—Mrs. Ed. THOMAS, Box 184, Morrie, Mich.

Women should not continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like free confidential advice address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

LONG LIST OF SYMPTOMS
North Carolina Lady Was Nervous, Weak and Suffered Greatly, But Relief Soon Came After She Took Cardui.

Asheville, N. C.—Mrs. J. A. Sluder, of 45 Woodrow avenue, this city, recently made the following statement: "I was in a very run-down condition after... I wasn't able to go. I was nervous, weak and couldn't do my work. I felt like, at times, no matter what happened, I couldn't get up a spark of interest. I was depressed, blue and continually on the lookout for something to happen. I couldn't sleep to do any good, and had to force myself to eat when meal time came. I suffered some pain in my back and sides, but the worst trouble was weakness and depression. I decided to try a tonic. My sister had gotten such fine results from Cardui, I began using it. Soon I noticed I would get hungry, and sleep at night, and this, of course, was a great help. I grew less nervous. The depression left me and soon I was well and strong. I enjoy good health, thanks to Cardui." Ask your druggist about it.

Girls, Don't Wash Your Face

Use Liska cold cream instead (you have never used anything like it). Just try it once, and you will never be without it. Soap and water has a tendency to make the skin rough, and does not cleanse the skin as thoroughly as Liska cold cream. To prove it make this test: Wash your face with soap and water, dry thoroughly, then apply Liska cold cream, massage it well into the skin, then wipe off the superfluous cream with a soft white cloth; examine the skin and see how much dirt has accumulated thereon. Liska cold cream cleanses, softens and beautifies the skin. For sunburn or after a dusty auto trip there is nothing like it. It's fine after shaving too. Let hubby or brother try it. Just compare Liska cold cream with any other you have ever used, and you will need no further argument to convince you that it's the best. It's put up in tubes, the only sanitary way. Try it tonight. You will be delighted. At toilet counters everywhere, including Sherman & McConnell, Beaton and Merritt Stores.

COCONUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last every one in the family for months.

PETERSON SUCCEEDS AFTER 10-YEAR EFFORT

Had Been Fighting Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism Since 1910—Says Tanlac Has Made Him Like His Old Self Again.

"Tanlac has done for me just what I've been trying for ten years to get other medicines and treatments to do," said John F. Peterson, 1132 Agency St., Burlington, Iowa, while telling of his improvement by taking the medicine.

"It was back in 1910 that my stomach got out of order and other troubles have set in and pulled me down until it looked like I would have to give up my job and quit work altogether. My appetite was just about gone and it seemed that no matter what or how little I ate I couldn't digest it. There was a heavy, lumpy feeling right in the pit of my stomach and it caused me the worst sort of pain and cramps. Why, at times they nearly drew me double. I could taste what I ate for hours afterwards and felt nauseated most of the time. I often had sick, dizzy headaches and sometimes was so dizzy I had to sit down or hold on to something to keep from falling. Then to add to my troubles rheumatism settled in my right hip and the pains were so severe I could hardly use my right leg at all. I simply couldn't rest at night and, of course, that pulled me down, and I kept losing in weight until I was about played out altogether.

"It was my wife who suggested that I try Tanlac and I have never seen anybody improve like I have since I started taking it. My appetite picked right up and in a few weeks my stomach was in such fine shape I could eat anything set before me. I'm not bothered with rheumatism now and the headaches and dizzy spells are a thing of the past. I sleep like a top and get up of mornings ready for work. I have picked up ten pounds in weight and am once more feeling like my old self again. I consider myself lucky that I took Tanlac and I advise anybody troubled like I was to give it a trial."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha at all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harland Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forrest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and Benson Pharmacy, Benson, and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.
