

STATE BANKERS SPEND BUSY DAY AT CONVENTION

San Francisco Man Principal Speaker Today—Athletic Show on Program Tonight.

Members of the Nebraska Bankers' association, attending their twenty-third annual convention at the Hotel Fontenelle, went through a whirlwind of program events yesterday afternoon beginning at 1:30. Following invocation by Dr. Frank G. Smith, pastor of First Congregational church, F. H. Davis, president of the Omaha Clearing House association, gave the address of welcome to the visiting delegates. Thorne A. Browne's address on "The Freight Car Situation of Today" received hearty applause. Many of the visiting delegates were conducted on inspection trips through the Iren Biscuit company and the Sprague Tire and Rubber company during the afternoon. Ladies attending the convention were entertained at a card party at the Hotel Fontenelle. Important business affairs of the association and the principal address of the convention will be the chief attractions today. "World Economics" is the subject of an address to be delivered in the ball room of the hotel by John J. Arnold of the Bank of Italy, San Francisco. An athletic show will be a surprise to be given the bankers at Fort Omaha tonight, beginning at 7:45. William B. Hughes, secretary of the Nebraska Bankers' association, announced. An informal dance in the ball room of the hotel tonight will conclude the affairs of the convention.

High School Cadets Get Home News by Wireless

Central High cadets at Valley, Neb., get their home news by wireless now. The embryo soldiers have established communication with the High School of Commerce by means of a portable wireless station established by the class in radio telegraph at Commerce. The main radio station at the school is located at Seventeenth and Leavenworth streets. The radio work at Commerce has been taught for three semesters. Many graduates have qualified for government licenses to operate radio stations.
