

KENYON WILLING TO TAKE STUMP TO AID HARDING

Iowa Senator Disappointed At Action of Republican Convention, But Praises Nominee.

Fort Dodge, Ia., June 15.—Senator W. S. Kenyon, who has returned to his home here for a rest, declared that he was disappointed that the republicans failed to nominate a progressive for president, but said that he was willing to take the stump to help insure a republican victory in November. Prior to the convention, Senator Kenyon campaigned for Johnson.

"The people are so disgusted with the Wilson administration," said Senator Kenyon, "that they will elect Harding. However, it behooves every republican to buckle down to hard work for the ticket. Governor Coolidge's nomination for vice president strengthens the ticket. As usual, the country west of the Mississippi is forgotten, but that part of the country also will be forgotten by the democrats. Either McAdoo, Marshall or Cox will be named by the democrats.

Senator Kenyon had words of praise for the republican nominee, "Senator Harding is a man of charming personality, a splendid orator, clean and honorable in private and public life, 100 per cent American and will make a good president," he said.

Charged With Cattle Rustling, Cowboy Is Captured in Arkansas

O'Neill, Neb., June 15.—(Special.)—Otto Smith, alleged Holt county cattle rustler, tracked to the mountain home of relatives in Arkansas by Deputy Sheriff Bergstrum of this county, afoot and alone, gave himself up without a fight and came back to Nebraska with extradition papers.

"Are you ready to go back to Nebraska?" the sheriff asked when he confronted Smith.

"Yes," replied the latter, and without even waiting to bid his relatives good-bye he turned and walked out of the wilderness with the sheriff. Smith is alleged to have stolen 21 head of cattle from the Ditch Camp ranch, near here, and sold them to a Fremont banker, and was located by checks he wrote upon the Fremont bank. He had left part of the sale price on deposit in the bank in the name of Lonny Moore, an imaginary partner whom he said owned an interest in the stock.

Laborers Ignore Cry of Farmers for Help in Fields

Lincoln, June 15.—(Special.)—The farmers of the state are making calls upon the labor department of the federal and state government for farm help, but with small results.

According to the labor department few of the men who can go out on the farms will go unless they are engaged by the day. Offers of work by the month receive little consideration, the reason being given in most cases that by working by the day they can make more money and at the same time be more independent. Because of this the state department is looking forward with considerable anxiety to a solution of the problem.

First War Mothers Chapter in State Is Matter in Dispute

Mrs. Alice French.

A dispute as to whether the Omaha chapter of American War Mothers or chapters at Maxwell, North Platte and Ansley, Neb., were organized first, was brought up yesterday during the visit here of Mrs. Alice French of Indianapolis, national president of the organization.

The Omaha women claim to be the first state organization because they took out articles of incorporation in 1918. The western women base their claims to priority on recognition given them last January by Mrs. French.

Mrs. French held that the western women do not need a state charter since they have a national one. The Omaha women declared they would take up the question at the next state meeting.

Mrs. French stopped here en route from North Platte, where she spoke on Flag day, to Des Moines, where she will be a delegate at the biennial convention of the National Federation of Women's Clubs.

Following the meeting yesterday morning in G. A. R. hall at the court house, Omaha war mothers tendered her a luncheon.

Spontaneous combustion is given by police as the cause of the fire which did $100 damage to the Peters mill, Twenty-ninth and B streets, yesterday afternoon. The flames were soon extinguished.

AT THE THEATERS

THIRTY of the most tiny men and women ever seen on the stage, 3 elephants, 20 ponies, 15 hunting dogs, 3 tame deer, 1 monkey and 2 carloads of scenery appear in the headline attraction, "The White Dove," at the Rialto theater Friday and Saturday of this week. The theater would have to be much larger than it is to accommodate all the people who want to go to the afternoon show starting at 2:40, or to the evening show starting at 8. But the performance which begins at 6:40 will leave patrons a wide choice of seats. Patrons will be making no mistake to bring the children to this show. The small people appear in 10 elaborately staged scenes and specialties.

The variety bill at the Empress is composed of the stellar attractions which will show for the last time today. The Four Hurleys, America's foremost gymnasts, will present an acrobatic act which is acclaimed the best on the vaudeville stage this season. Their feats are new and will be enjoyed by the audience. The other feature attraction will be a vast poster farce entitled "On the Steeping Porch," with Mr. and Mrs. Melburne. This sketch is one of the funniest ever shown at the theater and will please the patrons. Gaylord and Herron, two charming young misses, will present a comedy skit which will cause much laughter. Their comedy is clean and enjoyable and the girls have pleasing personalities. "The Leader and the Follower," "The Leader and the Follower," will offer an act full of mirth. The tempo has a beautiful voice, while the leader will offer the comedy part of the act. His broad and jokes will leave the audience in convulsions of laughter.

MOVIES

H. B. Warner, noted English actor, is the star of "The White Dove" at the Rialto theater Friday and Saturday of this week. The picture, which points a strong moral, is advertised as the best production in which the well-known actor has ever appeared.

H. B. Warner

Dr. Sylvester Lanyon, a young Englishman, finds his mother and his wife both faithless. Then he decides that all women are without honor. He falls in love and learns through many bitter experiences that no one has a right to judge without listening to the evidence in the case. William J. Locke wrote the story. Virginia Lee Corbin, the child actress, is Dorothy Lanyon, Dr. Lanyon's small daughter.

Mr. Warner is married—happily married, he says—and declares that the secret of success in marriage is "50 per cent team work and 50 per cent sense of humor. The trouble with most couples is that one forgets the other is human."

Since "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," scheduled at the Sun theater attraction for the week of June 27, has for its most exciting episode a fight between two grizzly bears, one of which is a tame bear, Tara, the protector of Marge, the Sun management is looking for a real live bear for publicity purposes. They even expect to go so far as to place the animal in the lobby during the week.

Hallam Cooley has two cars—a huge one done in battleship gray, and a tiny one painted just ordinary gray. He calls 'em Mutts and Jeff.

Ora Carew has decided to answer all her fan letters herself and by hand. This rash announcement on the part of Miss Carew comes from a feeling of gratitude which she entertains toward those who take the trouble to tell her how nice she is.
