After Fanning Twice "Batter ing Babe" Wallops Out Circuit Drive-Nearly Hit Another.

Chicago, June 17 .- "Babe" Ruth, the home run king of the New York Americans, Thursday made his 19th circuit drive of the season, the visitors winning from Chicago, 7 to 2. Ruth had struck out twice previously. A man was left stranded on base on each occasion. "Lefty" Williams wabbled in the fourth inning and after two were out he walked Ward and Pipp. He then had the call two and two on Buth and took a chance grooved a fast one waist high, and the big slugger drove it over the right field bleacher wall. The high wind deprived Ruth of another homer in the last inning. 'He hit in the same direction, but the north wind carried it foul by a tew feet. He followed this with a drive to
