

Brief City News

Newsies Are Entertained—The Salvation Army entertained 300 Omaha newsboys at the army's headquarters, 1111 Davenport street, last evening.

Rifled Mail Sack—Fred Rosseto, a trucker at Union station, was arrested yesterday charged with rifling a mail sack of some clothing at Union station.

Chickens Near Cops Stolen—Fourteen chickens were stolen from the henhouse of Al Lurganta, 1308 Capitol avenue, two blocks from the police station, Wednesday night.

Movies of Navy—Motion pictures of "What the Navy is Doing" will be shown by officials of the Omaha navy recruiting station tonight at 8:30 at the bandstand at Hanson park.

Shriners Go to Convention—Several special trains of Shriners to the national council in Portland, Ore., passed through Omaha yesterday. Two special trains carried Chicago Shriners.

Get Your Milk Bottled—Enforcement of the ordinance requiring serving milk in public places from original containers was announced yesterday by Health Commissioner Edwards.

Says Wife "Forked" Him—Alleging that his wife, Rose Clarke, stabbed him with a fork, tried to shoot him and made attempts to poison him, Thomas L. Clarke yesterday filed suit for divorce.

School Bulletin Issued—"The Bulletin," new monthly publication of the Omaha School Forum, made its first appearance yesterday. Local public school teachers write the contents of the "Bulletin."

Weaver Improves Slowly—J. D. Weaver, secretary of A. S. Ben, is reported to be little improved following the stroke of apoplexy which he suffered last Tuesday. He is at his home, 411 South Thirty-third street.

Dunn's Hearing Next Week—Charges against Chief of Detectives Dunn will be "aired" before the city council next Tuesday. He is charged with failing to turn over to the police relief fund half of a reward of $150.

Butler Funeral Saturday—The body of Joseph P. Butler, brother of City Commissioner Butler, will be buried Saturday morning in Holy Sepulchre cemetery following services at 9 in St. Peter's Catholic church.

Red Carriers Picketing—Striking red carriers and building laborers continued yesterday picketing construction jobs and work was at a standstill. Contractors say they will not pay the increases demanded by the men.

How to Treat Your Dog—"Tie the dog up for two weeks and observe him if you suspect he is mad," is the advice given yesterday by Health Commissioner Edwards. He says mere "strange acting" is no sign a dog is mad.

Big Catholic Event—Ten thousand witnesses are expected in Omaha to witness athletic contests which will mark the national convention of Bethlehem Catholic sokols here September 3 to 6. Teams will be entered from many cities throughout the nation. Several teams of girls will be here.

Says Cop Discourteous—A written complaint from H. J. Plunkett, negro attorney, that Harry Buford, negro policeman, was discourteous to J. R. Lemme, negro salesman, is being investigated by Police Commissioner Ringer.

Shriners Go to Portland—Nobles of Tangle temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine, to the number of 238, accompanied by the wives of 80 of them, left last night by special train for Portland, Ore., to attend the annual council, June 22 to 24. The party is due to arrive in Portland next Sunday morning.

$488,000 More For Plant—To authorize a supplementary appraisal of $488,000 for improvements, extensions, supplies, materials and accounts receivable, in addition to the $4,500,000 purchase price of the gas plant, the board of condemnation met yesterday in the court house. The plant is to be taken over by the city July 1.

Mother Love Defended—City commissioners, in informal discussion yesterday, took issue with T. H. Welch, superintendent of the welfare board, who asserted that a father has greater love for his children than the mother. Commissioners U're, Zimmerman and Zimmerman vociferously upheld the mother side of the debate. Other commissioners were not present.

Grade Damage Awards—Appraisers' awards of damages to property in the proposed grading of St. Marys avenue were approved by the city council yesterday in the aggregate sum of $37,958. Bids for the grading will be called for within a few weeks.

Union Outfitting Co. Puts Large Purchase of Porch Swings On Sale Saturday
Sale Prices Are Less Than You Would Pay at the End of Season.
Swings Weatherproofed, Bolted and Braced With Rustproof Chains.
What a pleasure it is to sit out on the porch in a big comfortable Porch Swing in the cool of the evenings getting the slightest breeze—and how easy it will be to own a swing because of a sale at the Union Outfitting Company next Saturday.
The sale is the result of a special purchase made months ago before prices advanced and includes a large number of models.
The various models are made of selected hard wood, stained to withstand outdoor weather for years and have rustproof chains attached.
The money-saving possibilities in this sale are further evidence of the ever increasing Buying Power of the Union Outfitting Company, located Out of the High Rent District, and their ability to make lower prices on furniture for every room in the home.

Apricots for Canning
Big Shipment On the Way
A big shipment of select Apricots is on the way and will be on sale at your grocer's within a few days. Look for announcement telling when they arrive.
These Apricots are a splendid variety—luscious and brimful of delectable flavor and nourishment. Start your plans at once so that you will be ready for canning after you have placed your order with your grocer and have obtained the quantity you desire.
How To Can Without Sugar
The United States Food Administration says—"The modern air-tight container and the development of scientific canning methods in the home have done away with the absolute necessity of using sugar as a preservative. Canning without sugar will give results provided that the time of cooking with sugar is doubled."
Full instructions on canning without sugar are given in Farmers' Bulletin issued by the Government. Write to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, for Farmers' Bulletin No. 830, 833, 835, 861, 862 and 864 and they will be sent you, free.
