

CATHOLICS OF OMAHA PREPARE FOR ARCHBISHOP

Australian Prelate Will Be Given Enthusiastic Reception by Thousands Here Next Week.

Tentative plans for the reception of Most Rev. Daniel J. Mannix, archbishop of the see of Melbourne, Australia, next Tuesday, have been arranged by Omaha Catholics to include a public reception at Creighton university.

Francis P. Matthews went to Denver yesterday to confer with the archbishop and his party and to conclude the final details of the program which will be observed in Omaha. Rev. James Ahern and Rev. J. P. McCarthy will meet the archbishop's train between Omaha and Denver and while here the distinguished visitor will be the guest of Father Ahern at the rectory of St. Agnes church, South Side. Father Ahern was a classmate of the archbishop in the seminary of Maynooth college in Dublin, of which institution Dr. Mannix later became president and which office he held when he was made archbishop.

Omaha Catholics state that the recent incident which brought the archbishop's name before the United States immigration authorities in an undesirable manner, has since been explained. They assert that on the alleged occasion when the archbishop failed to stand, the band was playing "America," and not "The Star Spangled Banner." When a message of welcome was flashed to the archbishop by wireless from San Francisco as he was crossing the Pacific, his reply by radiogram was: "Thanks for hospitality. I eagerly wait my first opportunity of saluting the American flag on American soil." Archbishop Mannix has a worldwide reputation as a statesman. He has been prominently identified in many political struggles in Australia. He is a champion of the workman and a fearless and uncompromising advocate of the right of free speech.

He is noted as a lecturer and for the startling swift manner in which he transcribes his thoughts into spoken words and for the fairness and fearlessness with which he discusses any question. The local committee arranging for the archbishop's visit states that he will be greeted at the station by thousands of the city's best Irish-American citizens and that the visitor will receive an enthusiastic reception as was accorded DeValera.

Caroline Leflang Files Cross Petition in Suit for Divorce

Caroline J. Leflang yesterday filed a cross-petition in district court in answer to a petition for divorce filed by her husband, Arthur C. Leflang, March 12, in which she asks separate maintenance.

March 24, Mrs. Leflang was granted $750 for suit money and $750 for attorney's fees. In her cross petition, she alleges extreme cruelty during the last year and a half, and professes willingness to give specific instances if the court so desire.

She alleges her husband has totally disregarded their 15-year-old son, Chester, who is a student in high school. The Leflang were married in Lexington Mo., in 1900. They have lived in Omaha about six months. Arthur Leflang is the son of E. M. S. Leflang, Omaha capitalist. Mrs. Leflang now lives at Hotel Fontenelle.

COLBY PROBABLY PERMANENT HEAD OF CONVENTION

Secretary of State Regarded by Democratic Leaders as Most Likely Choice for Chairman.

Washington, June 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, is regarded by most democratic leaders in Washington as the most likely choice for permanent chairman of the democratic national committee at San Francisco.

Mr. Colby was elected a delegate to the convention from the District of Columbia last week, heading an administration ticket in opposition to that put in the field by the Bryan Democratic club.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, and Chairman Cummings of the democratic national committee, who is to be temporary chairman of the convention, also have been mentioned in connection with the permanent chairmanship. Mr. Cummings' friends say, however, that he does not desire the place.

Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, who drew the platform adopted by the Virginia democratic convention, and since endorsed by President Wilson, has been definitely decided upon as the chairman of the committee on resolutions. The league of nations plank of the platform to be adopted at San Francisco is expected to follow closely that in the Virginia platform.

Coolidge Tells Dry Boosters He Is Against Alcohol

Boston, June 18.—Governor Coolidge's stand on the alcohol content of beverages was sent today to Virgil C. Hinshaw, chairman of the prohibition national committee. The governor's secretary, Henry F. Long, acknowledged receipt of the telegram and enclosed a copy of Governor Coolidge's veto of the bill which would legalize the sale of 275 per cent beer in Massachusetts had the United States supreme court handed down a favorable decision.
