The mail conventions may seem strange to the delegates at first, but they can easily learn to lick a stamp after they are shown how. It's wonderful how the delegate picks up tricks.

The zone system convention will mean more work for the letter carriers, but they've been the wheel horses so long they won't mind a few more tons of letter on their backs. A straw busted a camel's spine piece, but it would take a load of hay to pull one button off a letter carrier's suspenders. Famous Batsman Beaned-Mogridge Sprains Ankle-Felsch's Triple in Tenth Wins Game.

Chicago, June 19.—Chicago defeated New York for the first time this season by winning the final game of the series, 6 to 5, in 10 innings. New York, in addition to the game, lost the services of "Babe" Ruth, the home run king, who was hit by a thrown ball, and Pitcher Mogridge, who turned his ankle in the 10th inning.

Ruth started the second inning with a single. Muchl followed with a sharp grounder. Weaver got it and touched second, forcing Ruth. He attempted to complete a double play by throwing to first, but hit Ruth on the right side of the head and he dropped. After five minutes he regained his feet and refused to leave the game. However, in the fourth he became dizzy and allowed Felsch's fly to drop safely for two bases. Manager Huggins then took him out. After the game it was said that Ruth was not seriously hurt. The game was a nip and tuck affair and was won in the 10th on Felsch's triple, which scored two runners.

Kid Graves wants to fight Welterweight Champion Jack Britton at Fort Omaha July 5. Graves, who has five times defeated Britton and to whom he lost the welterweight crown on their sixth meeting, claims that Britton should be anxious to give him a chance at the title just as ften as he offered opportunity to Britton In a letter to the sports editor of The Bee Friday Graves said: "A little more than four years ago, on March 22, 1916, to be exact, Britton won the referee's decision over Graves in a 15-round bout at Dayton, O., winning the championship. Since that time Jack lost and regained the honors in contests with the flashy Englishman, Ted (Kid) Lewis. Graves has always maintained that he was Britton's master and he makes the Fort Omaha authorities the proposition to stage this championship bout on July 5.

sible exception of a heavyweight title affair. The welter championship bout in Omaha at the fort would be a magnet to draw the tans from all over the midwest.

Should the bout materialize it vould make the seventh time that Britton and Graves have tangled. Five times the Omaha boy was the victor, but on the sixth meeting the doughty Jack walked off with the palm and became the king of the class. Graves retired shortly after this affair, but has felt the call of the ring game again and is once more in good shape and is willing to go Jack another heat for the belt. On April 9 Graves signalized his return to the ring by decisively defeating Sailor Bob Anderson, a Sioux City lightweight, in an eight-round decision contest.
