

LABOR UNIONS DIRECT WRATH AT PROFITEERS

A. F. L. Recommends Co-Operative Stores to Reduce H. C. L.—Denver to Entertain 1921 Meeting.

Montreal, June 19.—Denver, Colo., was selected by the American Federation of Labor here today for its 1921 convention.

Birmingham, Ala., was the only rival under discussion.

Denver defeated Birmingham for the convention by 24,000 to 2,611 votes, when, on motion of the southern delegates, Denver was declared unanimously selected.

W. G. Shea of the Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers, was unanimously selected fraternal-delegate to the Canadian Trades and Labor congress.

To Fight Profiteers. The federation decided today it would fight "criminal profiteering" and the high cost of living by the co-operative movement. It pledged its assistance to local and central bodies in forming societies and establishing and operating co-operative stores.

A levy of $1 on every local union to establish a bureau of co-operation for "promoting and advancing the cause of true co-operation in the United States and Canada."

The federation also will urge a federal law to permit the incorporation of co-operative societies organized on the Rochdale system.

"The workers recognize clearly," says the report approved by the federation, "that if they establish and operate their own retail and wholesale stores honestly and efficiently, patronizing them loyally, they will reduce the cost of living, at least to the degree that the private retail merchant and middlemen have been profiteering upon them."

Will Fight D. C.

Deploping the "un-American condition" in the District of Columbia, "the federation pledged support to the residents of the national capital in their fight to obtain a voice in the affairs of our government."

The condition of disfranchisement in the District of Columbia was declared by the resolution "injurious to the best interests of manhood and womanhood."

The executive council and international unions were instructed to aid and protect union school teachers from being discriminated against because of their association with organized labor.

Samuel Gompers, president, was authorized to appoint a committee to investigate the feasibility of establishing a national labor university.

Congress was called upon to give representation to residents of the Pan-American Canal zone in a territorial delegate to the national government.

The executive committee also was instructed to consider a plan which ultimately would result in labor procuring control of a number of date newspapers for the purpose of giving "fair representation in matters in which labor is concerned."

The federation adopted a resolution calling upon congress to renew the 10 per cent tax on child labor employes when the child law expires in December, and urged the enactment of "more effective" child labor legislation.

He was removed to his rooms, where his condition is reported serious. Police have the license number of the car. Failure to report an accident within 24 hours in Iowa is a felony.

DAVIS WILL BE DEMO DARK HORSE AIDE SAYS HERE

Maritime Judge Advocate of U. S. Army Believes Ambassador to England Will Be Wilson Candidate.

Maj. Charles E. Peddicord, maritime judge advocate of United States army, port of Hoboken, and Congressman Joseph J. Sinoth of Virginia, were passengers on the Overland Limited yesterday, enroute to the democratic convention at San Francisco.

The major is on his way to the big democratic meet to promote the presidential candidacy of John W. Davis, ambassador to the court of St. James.

The Virginia congressman, who is assistant democratic whip in the lower house at Washington, will be chief doorknocker of the San Francisco convention. He is inclined to the opinion that Vice President Thomas Marshall will be the democratic nominee, and he is confident that Tammany will be for Marshall.

Major Peddicord was secretary to Ambassador Davis when the latter was elected to congress from West Virginia in 1911, and subsequently he was assistant when Davis was solicitor general of the United States. The major accepted an army post at a time when he could have gone with Davis to the court of St. James.

"I believe that Davis will be President Wilson's dark horse at the San Francisco convention," said the major. "I also feel confident that the withdrawal of McAdoo from the race will strengthen the chances of Davis. It may be said that Davis will have the support of the West Virginia delegation and various scattering delegates, who will stick to him."

"He may also obtain Palmer's strength. As I see the situation at this time, Davis occupies a position analogous to that of Harding before the nominations were made at the republican convention."

Harry O. Palmer of this city met Major Peddicord at the train, the latter having been roommates at Washington, D. C., and Palmer was in the service. They were made captains and majors on the same orders.

Ask Advance Rulings On Trust Regulations

a man's act may be upon another man.

Would Need Clairvoyants. "For the federal trade commission or any other body, public or private, to attempt to rule in advance upon the effect of any unperformed act or acts would require both the gift of prophecy, and of clairvoyance," said Mr. Colver. "I may modestly say that the federal trade commission, as now constituted, may have many gifts, but not those."

That seems to bring us to an impasse. He cannot repeal the law. The lawyers cannot tell you what it means, and the federal trade commission cannot prophecy. That leaves business in doubt, and doubt breeds suspicion and fear and despair. Sometimes it breeds defiance of law."

Mr. Colver is favorably impressed with a bill introduced in the last congress by Representative Steele of Pennsylvania, democrat, who is a lawyer and business man.

How It Might Work. "Mr. Steele proposes in his bill that any concern about to embark in any course of conduct may come voluntarily (he need not come unless he wants to) to the government and set out clearly just what he intends to do," said Mr. Colver. "This expression of intention is to be received, and the business concern is to be given an acknowledgment of the receipt of his declaration. He may then go back and carry on his business in accordance with his expressed intention and until some citizen shall come forward to complain either that the public interest or business institutions are being definitely injured by that course of conduct, the license granted shall be a complete defense in any court of law or before any government agency against any charges of breach of law."

"It provides further that if such charge is made, full and complete hearings shall be had, and if it shall be found that the course of conduct is against public interest then the indulgence of license may be withdrawn and thereafter the business concern shall be amenable to the antitrust laws."

Would Be Big Boon. "That means then, that if a business concern finds and feels that the undue hardship upon it, may escape those rules of law so long as it does not hurt another. It means that this device is not forced upon business but is sought voluntarily. It means that the very worst that could happen would be that the business concern would be put back in the same position as it was before it had invoked the aid of Mr. Steele's device."

"I believe that some such arrangement as that would bring to American business that flexibility and understanding of individual cases as would permit it to expand and go forward and continue the giant strides that its boundless energy indicate that it should take."

Harding Will Stay On Job at Capital

Mr. Moore, who was a supporter of Hiram Johnson, had a conference with Senator Harding and when he emerged from the nominee's office he announced he was going to "talk his coat off" for Harding.

"I couldn't be a good American and not be for him," said Moore. "There is no doubt that the people want a president who is 100 per cent American. Harding typifies this. He is the personification of the desire of the country to get back to normal."

Next week Senator Harding will confer with many more leaders of the progressive wing of the party. Among those who are scheduled to see the nominee are Ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana and Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

To Rest Over Sunday. Senator Harding expects to spend Sunday resting. He has no engagements of any kind and probably will not leave his home except for a short auto ride. Virtually all his time Monday will be devoted to the conference with Will Hays and other representatives of the national committee.

In addition to Chairman Hays, those at the conference on behalf of the national committee will consist of National Committeemen Charles D. Hilles of New York; John W. Weeks of Massachusetts, former senator from that state; T. H. Hart of Kentucky, J. L. Kramer of Oklahoma, Ralph Williams of Oregon, Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the national committee, and Clarence B. Miller, secretary of the committee.

Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio, chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign for Senator Harding's nomination, will attend the conference. The conference will consider not only plans for the ratification ceremonies, but various questions relating to organization and plans for the campaign.

Hold Short Conference. Senator Harding held a sort of preliminary conference with Weeks, Hart and Daugherty today, but all the participants declined to discuss it. Reports are going today that some sort of high position in the management of the campaign is to be found for Daugherty in recognition of his services as manager of the Ohio key-note speech at the Ohio convention.

Hays, of course, is to be retained as the chairman of the national committee and Daugherty is to have a kind of roving commission or the credentials of an ambassador-at-large, according to the report.

Senator Harding lunched with a number of publishers of farm newspapers. Among them was Samuel Adams Lang, who offered himself as a candidate for vice-president at the Chicago convention.

The senator conferred with A. R. Johnson of Ironton, who is to deliver the key-note speech at the Ohio republican convention on June 28.

It was announced today that "Jimmie" Sloan, who used to guard Roosevelt and Taft, had been selected as Harding's bodyguard.

Among Senator Harding's callers today was Miss Miss Bonham, "cowgirl" from Cheyenne, who recently rode her bronco into the Congress hotel lobby in Chicago. She invited Senator Harding to attend the annual roundup in Cheyenne and promised to get him a good pony if he would come.

DARTMOUTH HEAD DENIES WHISKY FLOWS FREELY

Aftermath of Murder Is That Prexy Says Undergraduates Are Outside of Liquor Ring.

Hanover, June 18.—President Ernest Martin Hopkins of Dartmouth college in a statement Friday regarding the fatal shooting of Henry E. Maroney, a Dartmouth senior, on Wednesday last for which another student, Robert T. Meads, is under arrest, charged with murder, said that "the strength of character and high purpose of practically all of the under-graduate body put them entirely outside of consideration in this matter."

President Hopkins said he wished "unqualifiedly to deny that there had been any general system of smuggling in of liquor to Hanover."

A. H. Meads, a Chicago attorney who came east to arrange for his son's defense, arrived here today from Woodsville, where he had talked with the Rev. Mr. Wright who has been retained to defend the boy.

They conferred with Judge Harry E. Burton, before whom young Meads was arraigned after his capture. Judge Burton later said the object of the conference was to give Mr. Meads an opportunity of ascertaining the facts in connection with the charge against his son, as the father refused to accept accounts in the newspapers.

Dr. W. W. Wise of Akron, O., father of Crite N. Wise who was released from jail today after $1,000 bonds for his appearance as a material witness had been furnished, also reached here today.

President Wilson May Ask for Third Term

and Murphy discussed mutually the efforts that will be made at San Francisco to get a pledge in the democratic platform for modification of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act and also a plank dealing with the cause of Irish freedom.

The Tammany leaders did not have their ideas on these subjects in definite form, stating that the schedules would be taken up with the New York delegation in conference in San Francisco.

Outline Program. But the Tammany program, broadly speaking, was outlined as follows: Maintaining the unit rule for state delegations. Retention of democratic convention rule requiring a two-thirds vote to nominate a candidate.

Suppression of the influence of William J. Bryan. Liberal interpretation of the prohibition amendment, preservation of state rights, repeal of war-time legislation, which leaves President Wilson without autocratic power.

Reference in the platform to the "Irish repatriation."

The Tammany leaders were joined here in the afternoon by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Murphy and Lewis Nixon, public service commissioner of New York, who will go with them to San Francisco, leaving Chicago tomorrow night. Mr. Nixon has some champions in the New York delegation for the presidential nomination, but he was not regarding them seriously. Mr. Nixon said he looked for a spirited contest among the presidential aspirants at San Francisco, but that there was no chance for any such bitter fight as the republicans had in Chicago.

"Whatever happens," he said, "you will find none of the rancor or bad blood such as is shown in the aftermath of the republican convention."

Look for Hot Fight. Mr. Brennan and the New York leaders, after discussing the probable effect of McAdoo's withdrawal on the immediate nomination situation at San Francisco, were inclined to the view that it would make Attorney General Palmer and Gov. Cox the leading candidates in the balloting. They were not unkind, however, that it is a difficult thing to round up two-thirds of the delegates for one man and were inclined to believe that there would be a spirited nomination contest with many entries.

Among the candidates given consideration, they believed, would be Vice President Marshall, John W. Davis, ambassador to England, who will have the support of the West Virginia delegation from the beginning; Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, retary of state; Representative

Irish In America Are In Midst of Fight; May Ask De Valera to Leave

New York, June 19.—Factional strife has broken out among the American workers for Irish home rule and it was reported today that the conservative element, led by Justice Daniel F. Cohan, head of "The Friends of Irish Freedom," may issue a statement inviting Prof. De Valera, president of the Irish republic, to leave the United States.

Prof. De Valera and his advisers are accused by John De Voy in today's issue of the Gaelic American of using at Chicago $50,000 of the funds subscribed for Sinn Fein bonds.

Despite the friction, it was learned that Prof. De Valera and Frank P. Walsh would attempt to have the democratic national convention at San Francisco adopt the
