

BAPTIST PASTOR RAPS BAN PLACED AGAINST DANCING

Progressive Columbus Minister Declares Church and Graveyard No Longer Belong Together.

Columbus, Ohio, June 19.—"Churches should not place a ban on dancing. Men cannot be made good that way," said Rev. A. E. Cowley, Baptist minister. "Those who want to dance will dance," continued Rev. Dr. Cowley, "irrespective of its nature or the person. Those who do not dance would view the lifting of the ban as condoning of the dance. "The church and the graveyard no longer belong together. "Christianity never has been opposed to the God-given instinct for recreation. It does insist that people must distinguish between recreation and dissipation. "Americans are wearing out their nerves through running after cheap amusements. Commercialism, professionalism and immorality are prostituting the play instinct for gain. "The church must do something to remodel amusements. Shorter hours for the worker will prove a curse, instead of a blessing, unless men can be shown how to rightly spend their leisure time."

English Experimenting On Bamboo Substitute In Wood Pulp Shortage

London, June 19.—Experiments are being conducted at the British Imperial institute for the purpose of obtaining a satisfactory substitute for wood pulp. Bamboo is said to have given the most satisfactory results and to give better promises than any other of the substitutes tested. It has been suggested that one way out of the difficulty would be for consumers in each country to form organizations on the lines of the British Cotton Growing association for the purpose of encouraging and developing the production of pulp in various parts of the world. At the present time England is practically dependent on Norway for supplies of the needed pulp. In a single week recently, according to figures obtained by the American Chamber of Commerce in London, 7,866 tons of mechanical wet pulp were imported from Norway, whilst only 490 tons were obtained from Canada.

Gunman Seeks Job In Movies; Has 15 More Years In State Pen

Jersey City, N. J., June 19.—Christian Larsen of Jersey City may be what a certain famous statesman would call a "forward looking" man. About to be sent to state prison for 15 years, they tell him, Larsen is looking around for a job when he comes out. Experience, the Jersey City man believes, has fitted him for the moving pictures. "In a better gunner than anybody in the movies or anybody in this jail," Christian writes to the New Jersey manager of one of the film companies. "I can beat that guy Hart on the drop of a gun. If you don't believe me, go to Fourth street, Union Hill, and ask the fellow that owns that store. Ask the cop in East New York how I got away from him. "Now I must go to state prison, maybe for 15 years. Let me know if I can go to work for you at $500 a week when I come out, because if you don't want me I want to write to the other moving picture companies. Maybe you won't have to wait 15 years. I might break out. Write quick."

Keep Sabbath Holy; Make Your Business Pay, Says Babson

Boston, June 19.—Going to church pays in business! Religion; to put it another way, is an economic asset! "Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day," taught by Moses centuries ago, pays today despite the scoffers. Cardinal O'Connell in a recent pastoral letter, Bishop Lawrence in many sermons, Bishop Hughes—all great churchmen—have been telling people of the United States that going to church brings material as well as spiritual benefits. Now comes Rover W. Babson, a specialist in cold figures, a statistician who makes figures fail to lie and proves by those self-same figures that the churchgoer, the man who brings religion into his daily life is better off financially than his non-churchgoing brother.

Prosperous Red Men Buy Government Certificates

Bismarck, N. D., June 19.—Twenty-eight Indians of the Fort Berthold agency, Elbow Woods, have bought $25,068 of Treasury department savings certificates, according to an announcement made by E. C. Kibble, director of the Ninth district government savings organization. These certificates cost the Indians $83 each and will pay $100 on January 1, 1925.

Students Throw Bad Eggs at Superintendent

Sterling, Kan., June 19.—A "bad egg" barrage they laid down over Superintendent of Schools Eastwood proved a "boomerang" for seven high school lads here recently. The "barrage" grew out of Eastwood's efforts to suppress cigarette smoking in the school yard. The fines of the "bell-eggers" ranged from $25 to $200 each.

32 Years On South Side; Has Been Downtown Once

Police Captain at Cudahy's Satisfied With Home As His World—Dislikes Automobiles.

Thirty-two years in Omaha proper, with but one visit to the downtown district—and that to the court house—to look after his property interests—is the boast of W. J. McGuire, 4115 R street, captain of police at the Cudahy packing plant. Nor does the captain feel chagrined that he has not seen more of the world, particularly the immediate surroundings. His Home Is His World. From a cozy and comfortable home, enlightened in family spirit by four boys and four girls, to his duties at the packing plant has been Captain McGuire's world since his migration here from Kansas in 1888. "What's outside of a home?" he asks. "My family is my life. What more enjoyment can a person have than to be among his children?" Regarding amusements, picnic or automobile rides, Captain McGuire has this to say: "There's plenty of amusement about the home. Every married man knows that. And it's all one grand picnic if you make it so. He's Off Auto Forever. "Automobile rides? Man, deliver me. I'll walk." Here the venerable police captain told of his first, last and only automobile ride he had ever experienced. "It was last fall. My son induced me to step in the front pew with him. No, it wasn't like the by-gone one-hoss shay. We rode somewhere out west and before I was aware of it, he said we had traveled 15 miles. I thought we were too far out. I told him I'd get out and start walking home. That's the farthest away from home I had been since 1888. Happy Hollow Dazzled Him. "Then, on the way home, we passed some high-falutin', barbeque hall on a green lawn. There were lots of bright lights dazzling my eyes, and fairly maidens were skipping lightly about the floor and lawn with their male friends. My son told me that was Happy Hollow club house. I thought it was Mickey Donovan's museum in Kansas City." Captain McGuire confesses freely that if he were detailed by his wife to go on a shopping tour in Omaha, he would need a compass and a city directory to locate himself. He says he has heard of Farnam, Douglas and Sixteenth streets, but would need direction to find them. On his next wedding anniversary,

Captain McGuire and wife will make a grand sojourn through the city department stores, he says. But He Knows Cudahy's. Though the captain is not well versed in the location of city stores and attractive places, there is not one single foot of space of the 35 acres covered by the Cudahy packing plant that he does not know. He has been on the police department at Cudahy's for the past 31 years. Chief of Police Peter Jolly at Cudahy's has this to say regarding Captain McGuire: "He's my most efficient man, and is a true friend to everyone in the plant. The younger element here look up to him as a father." Is 55—Wants to Be 100. Captain McGuire is 55 years old. He believes firmly that he will reach the century mark in age. "I can easily see 45 years ahead of me," he asserted. "I cannot even imagine I'll die before then. Why, half the deaths in the country today occur because persons lose their constitution too quickly—they die because they continually think they're going to die any moment." Captain McGuire is a lively sport fan. He says he would rather see a good base ball game than win at poker.

Spends 45 Years in Bath Tub in Asylum; Found Not Insane

Providence, R. I., June 19.—Anthony Baden Duffee spent his days living in a bathtub. So they put him in Butler Asylum. They kept him there 45 years. Now they have released him, the court finding that Anthony was not insane at all. Duffee is 75 years old. He left his bathtub to talk to a reporter. "You will have to excuse me," said he politely, "as I am just from the bath. I am tired of living in an asylum. Forty-five years is enough, don't you think? I don't know where I shall live yet, but shall let my relatives help me choose a place." Attorney Edward J. Noons, who fought the case against Duffee, says he has no objection to the patient's freedom so long as his property is properly administered. Attendants at the asylum say that besides his obsession for cleanliness, the patient has other pronounced tastes. He abhors automobiles, and will walk miles rather than ride in a motor or electric car.

German Militarism Supported by Soviets

Paris, June 19.—German militarism has no support whatever in soviet Russia, according to Mr. Tchitcherin, the bolshevik foreign minister, in an interview with Charles Pettit, the special correspondent of the Petit Parisien, who has just returned from a trip to Russia.

Girls, Don't Wash Your Face

Use Liska cold cream instead (you have never used anything like it). Just try it once, and you will never be without it. Soap and water has a tendency to make the skin rough, and does not clean the skin as thoroughly as Liska cold cream. To prove it make this test: Wash your face with soap and water, dry thoroughly, then apply Liska cold cream, massage it well into the skin. Then apply the same perfumous cream with a soft white cloth, cleaning the skin and see how much dirt has accumulated thereon. Liska cold cream cleanses, softens and beautifies the skin. For sunburn or after a dusty auto trip there is nothing like it. It's fine after shaving too. Let hubby or brother try it. Just compare Liska cold cream with any other you have ever used, and you will need no further argument to convince you that it's the best. It's put up in tubes, the only sanitary way. Try it tonight. You will be delighted. At toilet counters everywhere, including Sherman & McConnell, Boston and Merritt Stores.

FAT WOMAN IS AS EFFICIENT AS THIN TYPE

Business Success Aided by Sensible Clothes, Lecturer Says—French Heels a Hindrance to Career.

Boston, June 19.—Fat women take hope! You're just as efficient in business as thin women. So declares Mrs. Frank B. Tupper, lecturer on secretarial ethics and adviser to girl students at Boston university. Mrs. Tupper also tells women how to be successful in business. Here are the rules she gives: "You should not wear extreme styles. She should not wear her hair in huge puffs over her ears. She should not wear French heels. She should not wear dropstitch hose and short skirts. The average business man regards girls attired as described above as 'poor fools,' according to Mrs. Tupper. The successful business woman should be clean, continues Mrs. Tupper. She should not have any prejudices on race, creed and national origin. She should have an easy manner of speech. "It is your fault if any employee costs too much," said Mrs. Tupper. "Make your employees responsible for errors in their department. Put your own experience behind your organization. The old idea of bossism is gone; we must have co-operation." The speaker said that a whole lot could be accomplished if both employers and employees would refrain from bringing their troubles and family matters into the office. "Women do not like to work for women," she said. "Women will take a chance quicker than men when it comes to changing their jobs," Mrs. Tupper added. "One thing a woman possesses more than a man is patience. You can't tell me anything about the differences between men and women when it comes to jealousy over somebody else's promotion. A woman's intuition has saved many a man in business. "You can't tell us to stay home and replace our jobs with men. It is too late. We are in business and we are going to stay. "If I am worth anything to a man he should pay me for having me around. "I would not send a red-headed girl to work for a red-headed man nor a quiet girl without initiative to a man of similar type."

"Living Skeleton" Killed; "Snake Charmer" a Widow

Pontiac, Mich., June 19.—Artie Atherton, the "skelton" of circus fame, known and loved by children all over the world, is dead here as the result of injuries suffered when struck by an automobile several days ago. Atherton, whose real name was Moll, was for years with the Barnum & Bailey and Ringling Brothers shows. His wife was Miss Blanche Buckley, snake charmer. Mary Adelaide, 7 years old, Moll's oldest child, won first prize several years ago in a national perfect baby contest.

MY TIRED FEET ACHE FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions. There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. Get a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

To Remove First Signs of Old Age

"The inflexible first sign of age is the sagging cheek muscles," says Miss Cavali, whose fame as a beauty culturist is scarcely less than a songstress. "These are more difficult and serious to treat than wrinkles," she continues. "The sagging muscles indicate they have grown too weak to remain in place; they must be assisted, strengthened." The best way to strengthen them is by bathing the face in a simple lotion made by dissolving a ounce of pure powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. This creates a freer circulation to the parts, besides causing muscles and skin to contract. Saxolite, procurable at every drug store, has long been known by complexion specialists to possess remarkable tonic and astringent properties, valuable in treating flabby tissue and wrinkles.

Boston Clergyman Says Man Who Plays Ball Is Clergyman

Boston, June 19.—Can a man be a Christian and a sport? Boston clergymen answer in the affirmative. "A man who plays base ball, golf, tennis or any other sport is a better citizen than one who stays at home and spends his time reading," says the Rev. Kelley Jenness, Methodist minister. Rev. Selden E. MacGeeghon, pastor of the Congregational church of Northboro, says: "A Christian cannot only be a sport—he ought to be." Ministers who oppose Sunday base ball agree with those who favor it that sportsmanship should be an American institution. Rev. Richard Wright, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church, Cambridge, says: "Sport leads to fairness and fair play. Therefore sport and Christianity go hand in hand."

"Lifer's" Criminology Work Best Yet Published

Salem, Ore., June 19.—Based on his own "inside" experience behind the walls of the Oregon penitentiary under 12 different wardens, and supplemented by data and information gathered from many of the larger penal institutions throughout the United States, Jesse P. Webb, a "lifer" in state's prison here, has produced "The American Prison System," a 202-page book said by many to be the most able and comprehensive presentation of the subject yet published. "The average girl today is choosing ancestry, 12-cylinder cars and a beautiful home in place of true manhood. "Young men, do not be deceived by the old saying that two can live just as cheaply as one. There's nothing in it. Tax for Bachelors. "The laws of our country should require every young man and woman applying for a marriage license to present a certificate of good health from the family physician. "It is the duty of every normal person to marry. I am in favor of a dog tax on bachelors after they are 25 or 30 years old. "Married men, fulfill your contract. Above all, stay married. Eighty per cent of divorce cases are the fault of the man." Telephone connection has been established between Halifax and the long distance systems of the United States. PARLOR CORNERS WITH LOW LIGHTS CAUSE TROUBLE

Columbus Pastor Denounces "Lovers' Lane"; Man Blamed for Nearly All Divorce Cases.

Columbus, O., June 19.—"America can go nowhere but to perdition, unless its social customs and practices are changed," declared Rev. Dr. Daniel F. Rittenhouse, local Baptist clergyman, discussing the subject, "The Mismatched Pair." "Young people no longer consider it necessary to consult father and mother about the most important question of their lives, but, instead, choose the corner of the back parlor with the lights turned low, or the end of Lovers' lane on a moonlight night. "The average girl today is choosing ancestry, 12-cylinder cars and a beautiful home in place of true manhood. "Young men, do not be deceived by the old saying that two can live just as cheaply as one. There's nothing in it. Tax for Bachelors.
