Aided by Certain Pipe of Big Group Tom Moore has a fad, after all.

For all the years he has been on the stage and screen, he has loudly denied that he had any of the fads and foibles on which press agents pounce with such delight. "I guess I'm not an artist," he used to say with his Irish smile, "and certainly I'm not a genius. How could I be without having some queer things to tell about me?

So far, so good. But the other day a visitor who had dropped into Moore's dressing room, asked him how it came he had so many pipes. And it seems Moore has a mania

Poseurs for Stage But Not for Screen. Says Big Director

Hereafter youth and beauty are to have first call in the stage presentations, the Shuberts announce. Another exponent of the same idea. Florenz Ziegfeld, has announced that beauty is not the only qualification for stage success, but is the most important one. "Let the stage have an idea we are discarding and welcome," commented Frank Lloyd the director.

"Mere physical beauty," Lloyd added, "is a poor reed to lean on, and the makers of screen drama have at last found it out.

They come ready-sweetened.

They come acidulated with pure fruit acid, made irom lemons or from grapes.

A bottle of liquid fruit flavor comes in each package. We crush the fruit, condense the juice and seal it in a bottle. So Jiffy-Jell is a real-fruit dainty, rich in fruit.

Simply add boiling water as directed on package, then the fruit essence from the bottle, and let cool.

If you used fresh fruit, plus a lot of sugar, you could make nothing more delicious.

Serves six-at trifling cost

One package of Jiffy-Jell serves six in mold form, or twelve if you whip the jell. And the fruit alone which we use in it would cost you more than the whole dessert.

The Marsh Canning Co. attempts to monopolize the salmon canning industry of the country. Wayland is behind the trust. Big George is behind the trust. Big George Rolt, Cherry Malotte and Emerson line up on the other side. Marsh, in the pay of Wayland, performs some villainous deeds. Mildred Wayland is a cold, young society girl, who is beautiful enough so that it takes Emerson some time to that the takes Cherry discover that he loves Cherry (Myrtle Stedman) instead. Marsh, in order to break up the budding romance, tells about that Emerson is the father of Snowbird's child. Snowbird is a young Indian girl, Faced with the charge, the whole party visits the cabin of the girl only to discover that Marsh is the betrayer. In the meantime the sal-mon, "the silver horde," arrives, mon, "the silver horde, arrives, and the little company, battling the big trust, makes good. Wayland acknowledges his deleat and Emerson discovers he loves Cherry.
