Delegates to Des Moines Federation Convention Entertain Friends—Minnesota Woman Seeks Presidency.

By MYRTLE MASON. Staff Correspondent of The Bee. Des Moines, June 21.—(Special Telegram)—Many of Nebraska's delegation to the biennial General Federation of Women's clubs scattered over the city and into nearby towns for Sunday. Those who remained at their hotels attended the memorial service at the Coliseum in the afternoon where, among others, a former Omaha woman was remembered, Mrs. Charles Stoughton. Dr. Lynn Harold Hough, president of the Northwestern university, was one of the speakers at the service. Monday evening marked the high tide of sociability among our state people. A dinner at the Youngers, attended by 100 Nebraskans and former Nebraskans, was a happy affair. "The history of the progress of Nebraska" was the general theme carried out in decorations and toasts. Tiny Indian figures recalled days before the white men came. Oxen drawing their carts suggested pioneer days. A miniature steam engine and train, toy automobiles and airships told their story of progress in transportation. Place cards were in the shape of Nebraska state.

Those Who Spoke. Mrs. T. J. Gist was toastmistress. Responses were made by Mesdames A. E. Sheldon, A. W. Richardson of Lincoln, M. D. Cameron of Omaha, John Slaker of Hastings and Mrs. P. T. McGerr of Falls City. Mrs. E. S. Luce of Lincoln had charge of the music. Miss Katherine Worley was committee chairman. Hostesses who entertained at special tables included Mesdames C. L. Hempel, Edgar Allen, Edward Phelan, M. D. Cameron of Omaha, H. H. Wheeler, Mrs. James T. Lees of Lincoln, Mrs. John Slaker, Hastings. Mrs. C. G. Ryan returned to Grand Island Saturday night. Mrs. John R. Hughes joined the Nebraska delegation Monday morning. Mrs. M. D. Cameron's name is being discussed as candidate for corresponding secretary, which office she is now filling temporarily. Mrs. K. R. J. Edholm, chairman of the anti-tuberculosis committee for the general federation, spoke Monday afternoon at the public health conference on "Tuberculosis and Tomorrow."

Gowns Are Criticized. Mrs. John Slaker of Hastings, Neb., state president, seconded in the nominating committee Monday.

It's Easy to Put On Flesh All you have to do if you are too thin and want to put on several pounds of solid "stay-there" flesh is to take a fruit-fruit tablet of Blood-Tonic with each meal. This builds up the nervous system, enriches the blood and thus enables the vital organs to assimilate the flesh building, strength-making elements of your food which now largely go to waste. Folks who have tried it state they not only put on flesh but that it also invariably increases their strength, energy and endurance. You can get enough Blood-Tonic tablets for a three weeks' treatment from Sherman & McConnell Co., or any other druggist for only $1.50 and it's so uniformly successful that your druggist, a man you know, is authorized to refund your money if you don't like it. Better get a package today and begin to get stronger and healthier, as well as better looking.

Golden Wedding Is Observed by Family Reunion in Omaha

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sykes. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sykes, 4122 South Thirty-ninth avenue, old residents in Omaha, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, although the anniversary was not until Monday. A number of close friends and their children who are in Omaha gathered at their home Sunday to participate in the celebration.

morning the nomination of Mrs. Thomas Winter of Minnesota for the federation presidency. Mrs. Winter and Mrs. Slaker were girlhood friends and schoolmates. Miss George Bacon of Massachusetts is the other presidential candidate. The "to and behold dress" held on one shoulder by a string of beads and on the other hand by the grace of God, as worn by girls of today, was herated by Mrs. Charles Green, chairman of the home economics department, before the convention at the Coliseum today. She also criticized parents for permitting children use of automobiles.

Hold Election Today. Voting for officers will begin early tomorrow and continue the greater part of the day. More than 1,500 delegates are eligible to vote. Mrs. T. G. Winter of Minneapolis and Miss Georgia A. Bacon of Massachusetts were the only two named for president. Their respective supporters and campaign managers were working hard tonight to get the uncommitted and doubtful states in line before the polls open tomorrow. The nominating committee this afternoon reported the names of Mrs. J. S. Jennings of Florida and Mrs. Eugene Reilly of North Carolina as candidates for the vice presidency. The Alabama delegation nominated Mrs. L. J. Haley from the floor. Mrs. Reilly then requested that her name be withdrawn. The result of the election probably will not be announced until Wednesday.

Discuss Child Welfare. Child welfare as a home economics problem was considered at one of the sectional meetings this afternoon. Mrs. Ira Couch Wood of Chicago declared that malnutrition was the source of the majority of children's defects. Malnutrition, she declared, is caused by physical defects, lack of home control, over fatigue, faulty food habits and faulty health habits. Eighty per cent of the school children are defective, she asserted, but only 3 per cent of the causes of malnutrition could be traced to actual poverty. Proper study of home economics would remedy many of the defects from which children suffer, Mrs. Wood said.

G. A. R. Members Pleased At Encampment Change Lincoln, June 20.—(Special)—The announcement that the location for holding the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic had been changed from Atlantic, N. J., to Indianapolis, meets with general favor at G. A. R. headquarters here. Assistant Adj. Gen. Bross has already wired for headquarters for the Nebraska department.

The change will make no difference in the route over which the special train will run from Nebraska and it is probable that the rate of 1 cent a mile will continue in effect. The change of the G. A. R. encampment to Indianapolis probably will carry with it a change of the other patriotic encampments, which generally meet at the same time and place.

Axtell Man Drowns When He Is Seized by Cramps Kearney, Neb., June 21.—(Special)—Ed Miller, 47, of Axtell, Neb., was drowned at Cotton Mill Lake, near here, Sunday. His body was recovered after three hours of grappling and diving. The dead man is survived by a wife and four children. He and three companions had been fishing at the lake and Miller was taking a swim. While at a point where the water is from 20 to 30 feet deep he was seized with cramps. His companions were unable to swim.

Old Settlers' Reunion. I. W. W. BEHIND LATEST CHICAGO RACE TROUBLE

"Star Order of Ethiopia" Organized by Radicals as Mask to Revolutionary Movement.

Chicago, June 21.—With the capture of "Dr." R. D. Jones, self-styled "official" escort to the Abyssinian delegation to United States and Grover C. Redding, reputed leader of the Abyssinian "uprising," Chicago's latest race trouble quickly subsided. Sunday's flare-up, which cost the lives of two men, the serious wounding of several others and fresh agitation of the already acute color vexation, was in no sense a race riot. The police and other authorities who have gone into the genesis of the matter thoroughly, are confident that the "Star Order of Ethiopia," is an off-spring of the I. W. W., and was organized under the guise of an uplift society. This, however, was merely a mask to cover the revolutionary movements being conducted under cover. By providing the impressionable negroes with gaudy regalia and lofty titles and promising them important offices when Abyssinia should come into its own, the schemers, who were pulling the wires from the dark, hoped to inaugurate a race war.

Urged Third Party. According to the evidence in the hands of the police, Jones came here some time ago with flamboyant documents proclaiming him the representative of Abyssinia and authorizing him to encourage racial emigration. He has been urging the formation of a third party and advocating a political offensive and offensive union of the Jews, Irish and negroes, the new party to declare war against oppression. All witnesses agree that Jones had a small American flag concealed in a brief-bag. Some of his agents are supposed to have provided the bonfire and he threw the flag, already oiled, upon the fire. A negro policeman immediately sprang for him, but was shot, undoubtedly by some other member of the society or the I. W. W., many of whom "happened to be right on the spot."

Slayer Identified. Edward Redding, a negro leader of the motley parade, which turned so suddenly from comedy to tragedy, has been identified as the one who shot to death Joseph Hoyt, a cigar salesman. Robert Lawson Rose, a jackie from Great Lakes station, accompanied by two white policemen, mixed in the incipient riot and one of the Abyssinians pressed a pistol to his side and fired. Rose then ran into a cigar store for protection, and this brought about the death of the cigar salesman, who was killed by bullets intended for Rose. The Abyssinians were participating trouble is shown by the fact that as soon as it started they ran to an automobile drawn up in the parade and drew out loaded rifles. Those now under arrest and fairly well connected with the uprising are: "Dr." R. D. Jones, white; Edward Redding, Edward Bush, George Brown, Hiram Wilson, John Smith, George Brown, Miss Catherine Jackson, all negroes.

Seek Higher-Ups. However, the authorities believe all of these are merely pawns in the hands of the master mind of the I. W. W. and bolshevik movement in this country. It is hoped that from some of them will be obtained a clue to the actual promoters of racial strife here and elsewhere. Following the flag-burning and shooting, minor fights broke out in various parts of the city. Gangs of toughs seized upon the occasion as an excuse to lurk about negro churches and beat the preachers and people as they came out. There were also numerous cases of negro men and women being caught out alone by gangs of hoodlums and severely beaten and stabbed. The city took immediate steps to stamp out the rising embers of another race riot. Officers hastened in from Great Lakes station and rounded up the jackies, hundreds of whom were in the city on leave, and squads of police hurried through the black belt, breaking up gangs of thieves, sluggers and hoodlums who were hoping for another saturnalia of bloodshed and its attendant opportunity for looting and burning the homes of well-to-do negroes. All inquiries have failed to connect reputable negroes with the Abyssinian movement in any way. The law-abiding negroes considered the Abyssinians a bunch of nuts" and fought shy of any connection with them or their white leader.

Name New Chancellor. Berlin, June 21.—President Ebert has appointed Konstantin Fehrenbach, chancellor. He is president of the Reichstag. Warden Fenton is preparing to go before the next legislature with a recommendation for a junior reformatory, taking the younger and first-offense men and placing them in some other institution.

State Penitentiary Is Jammed; Warden Wants New System

Lincoln, June 20.—(Special)—While prohibition emptied the county and city jails, the state penitentiary is facing a situation wherein apartments in that institution are in as much demand as rooms in a rooming-house in the average Nebraska city and Warden Fenton already is compelled to place two men in some of the cells, which is not considered in the best interest of prison reform. Responsibility for this condition is due to the fact that public opinion has declared against the parole system and for that reason the men are not being turned loose as fast as they have shown signs of being reformed. The capacity of the prison is about 350 inmates. There are now in the institution more than 400.
