

DEMO LEADERS ARE CONFIDENT OF 'GOING OVER'

Special Train En Route to Frisco Stops in Omaha While Party Chiefs Talk of Victory.

"Whom are you going to nominate at San Francisco?" Robert Sweitzer, Chicago political leader, clerk of Cook county and opponent of Mayor Thompson in the late mayoral race, was asked while the Illinois delegation's special train was at the Union station here yesterday.

"We're going to nominate the winner," replied the little, round man, and after assailing the republican convention and platform at length and with great picturesqueness of diction, Mr. Sweitzer further remarked that the democrats will try to adopt a plank of "state rights" or the prohibitory laws.

"The Volstead act should be amended so that states may choose for themselves whether they want to allow sale of liquors with one-half of 1 per cent alcohol or with 3 or 5 per cent," he said.

"Won't Mr. Bryan have something to say about the tariff," was asked. A cloud seemed to come over his face.

Bryan Will Be Busy. "I haven't noticed Mr. Bryan getting any violent attack of silence lately and I think it safe to say he will do plenty of babbling at San Francisco," he said.

"The withdrawal of McAdoo will tend to confuse matters at the convention. I can't account for his action."

"Senator Hitchcock? Why I didn't know he was running."

Bertrand G. McIntire, chairman of the Maine delegation and candidate for governorship in Maine, declined to comment on the probable results of the convention.

There are 12 delegates from Maine. Among them are W. A. Pettengill, ex-attorney general of the state, and O. C. Curtis, ex-governor.

Hiram Is Silent. Senator Hiram Johnson of California refused to talk about the republican convention or political problems when he passed through Omaha yesterday morning on the Overland Limited. He was on the same train with democratic chiefs who are en route to the conclave in Frisco.

Senator Glass, ranking dem on the train, was interviewed while in the early stage of dressing, but he refused to give out any of his instructions from the president.

Other democrats who were on the train were: Gov. A. E. Smith of New York, "Boss" Charles Murphy, Tammany leader; Lewis Nixon, street commissioner. In the Ohio delegation that boosted Cox were former Gov. James J. Campbell, Judge J. G. Johnson, P. C. Berg, banker, and Charles E. Morris.

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminec specialists state that one of the best things for the nerves is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain, tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

By strengthening the nerves, weak, tired people regain energy and vigor; thinness and anæmia give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. It is sold by Sherman & McCann and all good druggists.

CAUTION.—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.
