

WILSON MACHINE BEHIND M'ADOO

GIRL'S DYING WORDS MAY SAVE FATHER

Mrs. Fred Bozlemann Takes Stand as Witness in Defense of Her Husband, Charged With Murder of Daughter.

DEATH CAME FEW DAYS BEFORE WEDDING DATE

Mother Tells Jury of Death-bed Statement Which Exonerates Father; No Trace of Poison in Stomach.

Hebron, Neb., June 28.—(Special Telegram.)—"I did not take poison and no one gave me anything."

Those were the last words uttered by Frieda Bozlemann, 19-year-old girl of Stoddard, who died last Monday just two days before the date set for her wedding, according to the testimony of her mother, Mrs. Fred Bozlemann, at the inquest being conducted here. The girl's father, who was known to be opposed to the wedding of his daughter to W. J. Butzke, 22 years old, a teacher in the Lutheran school in Chester, is held in jail pending the outcome of the inquest. The inquest, being conducted by the county attorney, recessed late this afternoon until tomorrow morning.

The mother of the dead girl, two young brothers and a sister of the girl were the principal witnesses at the afternoon session. Mrs. Bozlemann was dressed in black with a heavy mourner's veil, concealing the checks as she held between sobs of the circumstances surrounding the tragic death of her young daughter. Mrs. Bozlemann admitted that her husband was determined to prevent the marriage of Frieda to young Mr. Butzke. "But I am confident," she testified, "that he did not give her poison while they were riding Monday evening."

The girl's last words. "I did not take poison and no one gave me anything," were the last words spoken by Frieda before she slipped quietly into the valley and shadow, the grief-stricken mother testified.

A report from the chemists of the Omaha Medical college who examined the stomach for possible traces of poison was read just before the close of the inquest today. The report failed to indicate that death was caused by poison.

While it has not been brought out in the testimony thus far introduced, it is generally understood among her friends that Frieda had been for a week or more before her death taking a patented headache tablet.

Some believe that she might have taken an overdose of the drug, resulting in her death.

The testimony of the two brothers, Henry, 17, Elmer, 15, and the one sister, Marie, 13, was unimportant so far as having any direct bearing on the circumstances surrounding their sister's death.

"Fred Is Killing Frieda." Dr. Arthur Bolles and his wife were the first persons to reach the Bozlemann home, following the sudden illness of the girl, the doctor testified. He said that when he reached the home the girl was suffering from convulsions.

That the threats made against his daughter were uppermost in the mind of Mrs. Bozlemann at the time she was riding with her father was shown by the testimony of a neighbor woman. She testified that when Mrs. Bozlemann first heard the screams of her daughter she called to her, "Get a car and come quick, Fred is killing Frieda."

The witness testified that Mrs. Bozlemann heard the screams of her daughter, while she was at least a quarter of a mile from her home. At the morning session of the inquest there was open talk of violence toward Bozlemann.

The high fever subsided following the development in the following testimony given by Mrs. Bozlemann carried great weight and officials say responsible for quieting the reports of violence.

Pictures of the Opening Sent to Newspapers in Fast Army Airplane

San Francisco, June 28.—Photographs of the opening of the democratic national convention for middlewest newspapers were dispatched from here at 2 p. m. today in an army airplane to catch the Overland Limited train at Reno. The train left here this morning at 9 o'clock. The airplane was furnished by the army recruiting service and was piloted by Maj. Carl S. Spatz, one of the transcontinental flyers in the army endurance tests last fall. All arrangements for the trip were made by the army recruiting service.

UNREST SPIRIT GROWS IN ITALY; MANY RED FLAGS

Rome, June 28.—Reports of disorders in widely separated parts of Italy appear to corroborate the impression that they are a part of a deep scheme to overturn social order throughout the entire country. Unemployment is the alleged reason for strikes now in progress and for rioting.

At Cadore, Venetia, red flags have been hoisted above municipal buildings. Telegraph lines have been cut and roads blocked with trees at Lozzo, Callazo and Domogio. Car-bombers in armored cars have dispersed rioters at Brissago. At Roncole an aqueduct has been cut.

Discontent has burst out violently at Piombino and soldiers and police have been attacked with revolvers and hand grenades and have replied with machine gun fire. Many on each side have been killed and wounded.

Further disturbances in and around Ancona are reported in dispatches from that city today. Anarchists believed to possess a machine gun are concentrating around the labor bureau there. Three have been killed in encounters with policemen. Reinforcements were met with shots from neighboring houses and, it is said, women participated in the fighting.

Two trains were attacked near Borgaccio. On one train eight passengers were wounded and five subsequently died. The other train was killed and four wounded. A destroyer has arrived at Ancona with reinforcements for the troops there.

Brescia, Italy, June 28.—Socialists and populists have clashed at Rezzato. One policeman was killed and it is believed there were other victims.

Pisa, Italy, June 28.—Barracks were attacked here yesterday, but the assailants were repulsed. Two rioters were killed and many arrested. There were a number of casualties among police and soldiers.

London, June 28.—The Greek have landed a force at Panderna, on the south coast of the sea of Marmora, according to a dispatch to the Evening News today from Constantinople. This force is intended to operate southward against the nationalist forces of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, northeast of Smyrna.

G.O.P. KEYNOTE OF DEMOCRAT KEYNOTER

National Chairman Cummings Opens Convention With Old-Fashioned Rip-Roaring Assault on Republican Congress.

WILSON AND HIS RECORD FRAMEWORK OF ADDRESS

Meeting on Tiptoe From Start And Every Mention of President Signal for Demonstrations—League Big Issue.

By ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. San Francisco, June 28.—As official "keynoter" Homer Cummings, national chairman of the democratic party, started the democratic convention on its way today by an old-fashioned, rip-roaring attack upon the republicans. For two hours the donkey planted its heels on the ribs of the G. O. P. elephant while the enraptured delegates and galleries made the welkin ring with shouts and cheers.

Woodrow Wilson's seven years' record in peace and war years, the treaty and the league of nations, formed the framework of the "bell-ringing" address and every sentence of praise for the democrats was followed by a paragraph walloping the republicans. On the league of nations three sentences epitomized the "keynoting" of Mr. Cummings:

"We will not submit to the repudiation of the peace treaty or to any process by which it is whittled down to the vanishing point."

"We will not submit to the repudiation of the peace treaty or to any process by which it is whittled down to the vanishing point."

FAVORITE SPHINXLIKE AS HIS BOOM FOR PRESIDENT IS GAINING MOMENTUM

Son-in-Law of Nation's Chief Far in Lead for Honors With Outcome Unknown Until Bryan and Old Guardsmen Announce Definite Choice—Tieup of Ancient Enemies Would Elect Dark Horse.

By The Associated Press.

New York, June 28.—William G. McAdoo would neither affirm nor deny that he would accept the presidential nomination if tendered him by the democratic convention. Early in the day, it was said at his office that he might comment on the statement by Thomas B. Love, national committeeman from Texas, that Mr. McAdoo would not refuse the nomination. He left his office for the day, however, with out having made any statement.

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

San Francisco, June 28.—At the close of the first day of the democratic convention William G. McAdoo is so far in the lead for the nomination for president that the prospect at this hour is distinctly the choice of either McAdoo or a dark horse.

The big question of the moment is whether the dwindling forces opposed to McAdoo will be able to hold sufficient strength intact after the balloting begins to deprive the president's son-in-law of the two-thirds majority requisite for the nomination. If the avowed enemies of McAdoo realize the expectations they are reiterating tonight they will be able to block indefinitely the naming of the former secretary of the treasury and to open the gate to the dark horse paddock.

Bryan Unknown Factor. In speculation upon the probable fate of the nomination, McAdoo's position to be adopted by William J. Bryan is a big and an unknown factor. Will he oppose McAdoo? Will he join his ancient enemies in the democratic old guard to thwart McAdoo's victory?

If Bryan, who is suspected of hankering for a fourth nomination, should fight McAdoo, the commoner is likely to prove the big obstacle in the path of the president's son-in-law. For the New York, New Jersey, New England, Indiana, Illinois and other old guardsmen cannot be relied upon to go into the last ditch against McAdoo if by so doing they risk loss of reserve seats on the band wagon of the winner. Tammany and some other old guard aggregations already have betrayed some signs of nervousness over the possible cost in the way of patronage of too, inveterate an antagonism of McAdoo, in the event of his nomination and election.

Bryan to Fight the McAdoo Boom to Last Ditch, Says Herdman

San Francisco, June 28.—William Jennings Bryan will fight to the end against the nomination of William Gibbs McAdoo, according to Lee Herdman of Omaha, Neb., a close friend of Mr. Bryan. Herdman, today, following a conference with Bryan, stated he was in a position to "positively" declare that Mr. Bryan will oppose the nomination of McAdoo to the end.

"Mr. Bryan takes the position that Mr. McAdoo is really a candidate without making any declarations," said Herdman. "He feels McAdoo should have announced his position on the great issues that are before the convention and does not feel the party can afford to nominate a man who has not let his attitude be known on problems confronting the party."

58,000 Rail Men In East Threaten To Walk Out Soon

Philadelphia, June 28.—An ultimatum outlining demands of employees of the Pennsylvania railroad, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor was issued last night by Harry S.
