According to Mrs. Charles Dietcentrate its efforts on organization of the counties for the organization of citizenship schools. The paid organizer will be a woman from the citizenship school held in Chicago last February. The women will conduct their campaign for organization in a dignified, business-like manner, Mrs. Dietrich says. A budget has been partially formed to care for the regular salary of the state organizer, for her traveling expense and for incidental expenses of the board such as stationery, stamps, telegrams and printing bills. Each county will have its allotment to the budget paid from the dues of 25 golf club manufacturer of Newark, ents taxed on each member of the eague. The regular fees paid into he state by the districts and counties will be apportioned as each county sees fit.

The legislative headquarters for the state league will be in Lincoln, the executive headquarters in Hastings. Mrs. Dietrich announced Friday that the chairman of the "Americanization" committee and 'Woman in Iudustry" would be named later.

Some changes in organization have been made since the Omaha convenbeen made since the Omaha convention. The permanent officers are: Mrs. Charles Dietrich, Hastings, chairman; Mrs. E. S. Rood, Omaha, vice chairman; Mrs. C. E. Johannes, Omaha, treasurer, and Miss May Gund, Lincoln, secretary. Under the original arrangement of offices, Mrs. E. B. Penney of Fullerton was treasurer and Mrs. Johannes was director of the second region in the state. Since Mrs. Johannes has state. Since Mrs. Johannes has been made state treasurer for the or-ganization, Mrs. Rood, state vice chairman, has the responsibility of directorship in the second region, which is the same area geographically as the Second congressional district in the state.
