INTERLOCKING DEALS FEATURE OF BUSINESS

Liabilities of Two Concerns Involved $130,000, Assets $4,500-Attorney Davis Remains to Face Music.

Echoes of the financial difficulties of Peter Elvad during his career in Omaha, are being heard in Chicago in connection with a receivership which has been appointed for the Continental Engineering Construc-tion company and the Fidelity Securities company.

Charles E. Davis, who was an attorney with Elvad during the latter's connection with the Bankers' Realty Investment company in this city, was president of both of the Chicago companies at the time one of the directors forced a receivership. Davis is still in Chicago, facing the music. Elvad deft Chicago last month and is now in Los Angeles.

According to reports from Chicago, operations of the two windy city enterprises were similar to those of the Bankers' Realty Investment and North American Hotel companies of Omaha. Named as Receivers.

Davis was a member of a skeleton organization which Elvad took Sharon with him from Omaha. Others were William and Charles Johnson, brothers of Mrs. Elvad; Arthur Gross, lawyer; F. W. Fitzpatrick, architect, and Miss Florence Nash, stenographer. Miss Nash was appointed secretary-treasurer of the Continental company soon after she arrived in Chicago. Investigations of the two Chicago companies have thus far disclosed that Elvad was fronted as president.

One of the transactions which the receivers are endeavoring to reconcile involves a note given by Davis ers, Cleveland, for $95,000 of stock, of which $23,000 The Shenngo was said to have been disposed of in Nebraska. ### MILITANTS ON IRISH QUESTION START FIGHT Sympathizers Stage Scene Before Committee - Chiefs Hopeful of Drafting Plank Carrying Real Meaning.

By GRAFTON S. WILCOX. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. San Francisco, June 29.-Leaders of the Wilson administration, who are dominating this democratic con-vention, are inclining a listening can to the friends of Irish freedom, who are here demanding a stronger declaration for the Irish republic than the republican party gave them in its declaration of principles adopted at Chicago. After a turbulent demonstration by the militant Irish sympathizers before the convention committee on resolutions during which one indomitable auburn haired woman had to be ejected from the room because of her persistent heckling of representatives of the Loyal Coalition Opposing the Irish Cause, it became known that administration leaders were seeking to evolve a plank on the issue which might lure the Irish vote next No-
