Errors Lose 15-Inning Game for Palmero---Visitors Win

BOOSTERS TAKE FINAL GAME OF SERIES, 3 TO 2

Cuban and Cykowksi Hurl 15-Inning Game-Jack Coffey Stars for Coon Creekers.

Errors, one by Gislason and one by Palmero, cost Omaha a 15-inning game yesterday, the fast of the Des Wash'ton 31 27 .534 Ph'delphia 17 47 .266 Moines series, and allowed the Coon Creekers to split the four-game series even. The score was 3 to 2.

Jack Coffey, second baseman and manager of the visiting club was the star of the game. Coffey got three singles and a double in six trips to the dish, stole a base and made four put-outs and five assists without an error. Next in order of merit was French, Booster shortstop, who made 10 putouts and five assists without an error; got two hits and fielded everything that came within possible reach.

Palmero pitched good ball, walking but one man in the 15 innings and fanning five. Until the fifth inning not a Booster could hit a ball out of the infield.

Rourkes Score First

The first score of the game came in Omaha's half of the sixth. Gislason led off with a single, went to third on Platte's single and scored on Donica's single.

The visitors tied the count at 1 to I in the next frame when O'-Connor doubled to lead off the inning, Milan got a life on Palmero's error, O'Connor going to third. both teams was the feature of the O'Connor scored on Hasbrook's sacsifice fly to Lee.

Omaha went ahead in the eighth. Gislason doubled, went to third on Weidell's sacrifice bunt and scored on Platte's sacrifice fly. Des Moines tied the score again in the ninth inning. With one out, Milan was safe at first on Lelivelt's error, Buckalew ran for Milan. Hasbrook flied out to Platte. Jack Coffey sailed a sizzling double into deep right center, scoring Buckalew with the fying run. Anderson grounded Oklahoma City......0 2 0 5 0 0 1 0 x-8 one out, French bunted safely and Palmero threw the ball wild into right field, trying to catch French at first. French went around to third. O'Connor hit a bounder to Gislason, who booted it, allowing French to tally. Banner hit into

The Rourkes went out one, two, three. Hale popped out to French; Palmero flied out to O'Connor, and
