Heir to Estate Worth Million Is Mustard Maker of Chicago

Chicago, July 7.—Count Albert Broel-Plater, who has just been notified that he is soon to receive a million dollars actual money, was found today stirring a pot of mustard over a kitchen stove and consented to pause long enough to talk of his future. The million dollars is to come from the Polish government within two years, in return for 6,000 acres of land belonging to his father, and which was confiscated during the war. As soon as he gets it Count Albert intends to do three things. First, he will enlarge his mustard factory, then he will buy a modest little apartment and hunt an American wife. Just at present he is living in a room above a store and his mustard manufacturing is confined to what he can handle on the kitchen stove when it is not on duty preparing the meals for the family with whom he lives. He is very proud of his mustard and says he formerly prepared it for the late czar of Russia. After his "ship comes in" he will branch out putting up caviar and certain lines of preserves from Warsaw, July 7.—(By The Asand certain lines of preserves from Warsaw, July 7.—(By The As-recipes brought from the Russian sociated Press.)—Along a front of tine has conferred a genuine blessing upon a multitude of women. This peculiar substance seems to paralyze and shrink up the hairs to which it is applied, right down to their roots—and these hairs come out very easily and quickly, roots and all, before one's very eyes!

Phelactine is perfectly colorless, non-irritating, non-poisonous—a child could est it without the least harm. Not to be compared at all with depilatories or electrolysis. It leaves the skin so soft, smooth and hairless, no one would guess you ever had a moustache or other hairy growth. If you will obtain a stick of phelactine from your druggist and follow the simple instructions, you will certainly be "more
