CLOSE-IN DOUGLAS COUNTY FARM

If you want one of the best located farms near Omaha, on a paved road, you should surely see this 122-acre farm, located within a mile of Omaha city limits. This is just as sure to increase in value as Omaha is sure to continue to grow. The house is a new 8-room, strictly all-modern home, with large airy rooms, furnace, electric lights and bath. Beautiful shade trees. The land is first class and is being offered for much less than any other adjoining land. Terms can be arranged and owner will subdivide into two smaller farms if wanted. This is a real bargain and will make someone a good, safe investment. See us about it at once.

Man Escapes Bandits And Saves His Roll By Whipping Horses

Driving to market at 4 a. m. yesterday, C. J. Leapley, 1407 P street, was stopped by three masked men at Thirteenth and Canton streets. The highwaymen ordered Leapley to hold up his hands, he told police Leapley was carrying a roll of money to make purchases at market, he said, and had no idea of allowing the bandits to take it from him. So he whipped his horses into a gallop and escaped. The highway-men fired a volley of shots after him, none of which hit him, he said, Leapley gave South Side police a good description of the highwaymen, who police believe are responsible for a number of hold ups and robberies in that same neighborhood

Correct diagnosis in obscure or doubtful conditions is necessarily of first importance. After diagnosis comes the best methods of treatment.

There is good in all methods. However, no method of treatment can be successful if the condition has been wrongfully diagnosed. Advanced science has given so much for proving diagnosis that it is really astonishing that the intelligent physician should go wrong in many Mr. M. L. Gillett of Bartlett,

Kan., writes as follows:

"Bartlett, Kan., May 21, 1917. "I had been suffering for about a year and a half, was treated by a number of doctors. Some of them pronounced my condition tuberculosis, others would diagnose my case as first one thing and then another. On May 3. 1917, I called at the Inter-State Sanitorium. I had run down to 107 pounds. They examined me and I placed myself in their care . In eighteen days' time I gained 291/2 pounds. I cheerfully recommended the inter-State Doctors.
