

ARMED BANDITS HOLD UP MAN; 10 HOUSES ROBBED

Highwaymen Get $8 From E. F. Mahl—Sneak Thieves Get Loot From Many Homes.

One highway robbery and 10 burglaries and thefts were reported to Omaha police Friday night. E. F. Mahl, living at the Carter Lake club, reported he was held up and robbed of $8 by two unmasked men at 1 a. m. near Ninth and Locust streets.

S. M. Trimble, 2524 Lake street, reported burglars tore loose the screen door on his home and stole $60.

One silk shirt and a pair of cuff links valued at $40 were stolen from Sylvester Hare, Keystone hotel, while at work at 1408 Farnam street.

One pair of trousers, two hats and two pairs of shoes comprised the loot of burglars who broke the lock on the front door of the home of James Brewer, 1124 Dodge street.

A suit, hat and pair of shoes, stolen from the home of George Windsor, 2337 Seward street, were later recovered by detectives from negroes in the neighborhood.

Clothing valued at $75 was reported stolen from the home of Effie Miller, 2433 Franklin street.

Two pairs of trousers were taken from the room of Andrew Swanson, 1322 Douglas street.

Burglars who heaved a brick through the window of the home of A. Keyser, 1002 South Thirteenth street, were frightened away before securing any loot when Keyser was awakened by the falling glass.

Prof. B. H. Crocator of the University of California, Berkeley, Cal., who is touring the country in his automobile, left his car at the Blackstone garage, he reported to police, and when he returned his $65 coat was missing.

John Harris complained of the loss of $30 worth of clothing from his room in the Albany hotel.

An extra tire was stolen from the Scott Tent and Awning company truck as it stood at Fifteenth and Howard streets.

State Editors' Meet In Omaha Is Promised Large Attendance

Indications are that the annual summer session of the Nebraska Editorial association in Omaha, July 26 to 28, will be one of the largest in the organization's history, according to George S. Foxworthy of the Western Newspaper Union, who returned Friday from Sioux City, where he attended a meeting of the Tri-State Editorial association.

Nebraska delegates at that convention pledged themselves to attend the Omaha meeting.

Arthur Thomas, manager of the Chamber of Commerce publicity bureau, also attended the Sioux City gathering.

Carnival Workers Arrested; Gambling Devices Seized

Twenty-eight alleged gambling devices and 21 men and women were taken by state agents and city police in a raid Friday night on the Gold Medal carnival at Eleventh street and First avenue, Council Bluffs.

H. E. Billick, general manager of the carnival; H. Walker and H. A. Greenleaf, were arrested with 18 other men and women. All were taken to the county jail, where they await decision of County Attorney Swanson as to size of individual bonds. State Agent O. O. Rock conducted the raid.

Children's Code Commission Considering Proposed Laws

The children's code commission met at the Omaha Chamber of Commerce yesterday to discuss proposed bills for submission to the state legislature at its next session. Judge Arthur Wray of York, who attended the third party convention at Chicago, was expected to be present. He is a member of the commission. Others who attended were C. F. Prevo, secretary, and Judge Lincoln Frost of Lincoln. Dr. James P. Edwards and Mrs. Draper Smith of Omaha.

Commerce Girls Outstrip Boys' Attendance Record

Records at the High School of Commerce show that the girls lead the boys in perfect attendance. The following girls were not absent, tardy or excused during the past four semesters: Louise Novak, Cecelia Adolphson, Alcen Hansen, Emma Johnson, Lucille Petrie, Martha Lund, Esther Petersen, Jessie Sauters and Esther Hansen.

Sail for Europe

District Judge Redick and his family left Friday for New York, where they will sail July 24 for Europe. They expect to return to Omaha September 16.

The Bee's Fund for Free Milk and Ice

How can people ignore the sufferings of the babies of the very poor these terrible days of heat? Unless they get help some of them will not be in the land of the living next fall. Don't you have a certain duty to perform in this?

Send or bring a contribution to this fund which supplies pure milk to the babies of the poor and fatherless than one minute.

BABY, VICTIM OF POISONING, TAKEN TO KANSAS CITY

Parents Leave With Body of Child Who Took Overdose of Tonic.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Page, 4808 Chicago street, left Omaha yesterday for Kansas City with the body of their little daughter, Lucille, 2 years and 3 months old, which is to be buried there.

The child died last Thursday in convulsions. Dr. A. S. Rubnitz was called, but failed to save her. On the death certificate, filed with the board of health, Dr. Rubnitz gives the cause of death as "strychnine poisoning—accidental."

Neighbors said the Page family was preparing to move Thursday and in the hustle and bustle of packing Lucille and her 4-year-old brother were left to their own devices.

The children had been taking a tonic, prescribed by the family physician and a bottle of this tonic was on a shelf in easy reach of the tots during the moving preparations.

Lucille reached for the bottle and drank too much of it, neighbors declare, convulsions which caused her death resulting.

Tramps Who Rescued Lad From Drowning Rewarded With Ride

Because they had saved David Bleicher, 14 years old, 1919 Willis avenue, from drowning under the Illinois Central trestle at Carter Lake Friday, Robert O'Neill and Tom Cunningham, tramps, were given a free ride out of Omaha in a Northwestern caboose by a yardmaster.

Young Bleicher was bathing with boy companions. He dove too deep and was unsmothered in seaweed. Cries of his friends attracted the tramps, O'Neill, after a long struggle under water, brought the lad to the surface. Both were semi-conscious.

Cunningham helped the pair to the shore and resuscitated them. The Northwestern official happened along at this point and asked the tramps what they wanted. Their reply that they wished to get out of town was fulfilled by the order of the yardmaster.

When Peggy Fortune, Krug park diving girl, and Fred Kasner, Krug park life guard, were smashed in their motorcycle Wednesday night at Thirty-sixth and Farnam streets, Peggy lost a diamond ring set in platinum and valued at $175.

Imbedded in a crevice of the pavement, but in plain sight, her ring was found late Friday afternoon by Detectives Ford and Trapp.

Kasner, who lies in Nicholas Senn hospital with a fractured skull and other injuries was reported much improved yesterday. Little hope was at first held for his recovery.

Kasner lives at Nineteenth and O streets. Miss Fortune lives at 3024 North Fifty-fourth street.

Says Woman 70 Years Old Flirted With Grandfather

Accusing her next door neighbor, Mrs. M. Bosneck, 70 years old, 2815 R street, with flirting with her grandfather and pushing her down while at her home, Mrs. A. Frivicky appeared in Justice of the Peace Collins' court yesterday and asked that Mrs. Bosneck be placed under a peace bond. The case was continued one week.

Plan Building Campaign If Test Home Satisfies

Officials of the Council Bluffs Chamber of Commerce took the first step Friday in what promises to be the largest building boom that city has known for years.

Pledges of $3,350 were made to finance the construction of a model steel and concrete house, to be constructed 80 per cent below the cost of all wood or all brick homes.

If this model satisfies the real estate association and officials of the chamber, contracts will be let for 100 similar homes, the capital to be furnished by the two organizations.

Revival Meetings Here

Revival meetings will be held at Sixteenth and Ohio streets, starting Sunday. Rev. M. B. Long of Long Pine, Neb., and Sister Trihbet of Sargis, Mich., will be in charge of the meetings.

Reckless Driver Fined

Charles Buresh, Thirteenth and Edwards streets, was fined $20 in South Side police court yesterday for reckless driving. Buresh was charged with passing a street car unloading passengers at the O street viaduct. This is his second offense, police said, and the judge threatened him with a jail sentence.

Woman Held, Man Freed

Mrs. Callie M. Robins, 4118 South Twenty-seventh street, charged with illegal possession of liquor, was in South Side police court yesterday. Her case was continued to August 2. Thomas Hart, who was arrested during the raid on the Robins home, was discharged.

Seeking Clarence Stokes.

Clarence F. Stokes, who is supposed to be working with an undertaking establishment or garage in Omaha, is being sought by his brother, K. M. Stokes, Eagle Lake, Minn.

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. J. D. Jones, 79 years old, founder of the Kings Daughters society on the South side, died at her home, 412 South Twenty-seventh street, of heart disease. She was familiarly known to old residents as "Mother Jones." She had been a resident of Omaha for 25 years and was born in Jones, Frank A. of Omaha and Charles E. Jones of Houston, Tex. Funeral services will be held from her home Sunday at 4 p. m. Burial will be in Forest Lawn.

Clara B. Bishard, 72 years old, died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Bishard, 2409 North Forty-first street. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 4 p. m. from the Haynes chapel, Twenty-fourth and Ames avenue. Burial will be in Forest Lawn.

WANDERER WILL TELL FULL TALE OF HIS CRIME

Was on Verge of Detailed Confession When Fellow Prisoner Interrupts Him From Nearby Cell.

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

The child died last Thursday in convulsions. Dr. A. S. Rubnitz was called, but failed to save her. On the death certificate, filed with the board of health, Dr. Rubnitz gives the cause of death as "strychnine poisoning—accidental."

Neighbors said the Page family was preparing to move Thursday and in the hustle and bustle of packing Lucille and her 4-year-old brother were left to their own devices.

The children had been taking a tonic, prescribed by the family physician and a bottle of this tonic was on a shelf in easy reach of the tots during the moving preparations.

Lucille reached for the bottle and drank too much of it, neighbors declare, convulsions which caused her death resulting.

Cunningham helped the pair to the shore and resuscitated them. The Northwestern official happened along at this point and asked the tramps what they wanted. Their reply that they wished to get out of town was fulfilled by the order of the yardmaster.

When Peggy Fortune, Krug park diving girl, and Fred Kasner, Krug park life guard, were smashed in their motorcycle Wednesday night at Thirty-sixth and Farnam streets, Peggy lost a diamond ring set in platinum and valued at $175.

Imbedded in a crevice of the pavement, but in plain sight, her ring was found late Friday afternoon by Detectives Ford and Trapp.

Kasner, who lies in Nicholas Senn hospital with a fractured skull and other injuries was reported much improved yesterday. Little hope was at first held for his recovery.

Kasner lives at Nineteenth and O streets. Miss Fortune lives at 3024 North Fifty-fourth street.

Says Woman 70 Years Old Flirted With Grandfather

Accusing her next door neighbor, Mrs. M. Bosneck, 70 years old, 2815 R street, with flirting with her grandfather and pushing her down while at her home, Mrs. A. Frivicky appeared in Justice of the Peace Collins' court yesterday and asked that Mrs. Bosneck be placed under a peace bond. The case was continued one week.

Plan Building Campaign If Test Home Satisfies

Officials of the Council Bluffs Chamber of Commerce took the first step Friday in what promises to be the largest building boom that city has known for years.

Pledges of $3,350 were made to finance the construction of a model steel and concrete house, to be constructed 80 per cent below the cost of all wood or all brick homes.

If this model satisfies the real estate association and officials of the chamber, contracts will be let for 100 similar homes, the capital to be furnished by the two organizations.

Revival Meetings Here

Revival meetings will be held at Sixteenth and Ohio streets, starting Sunday. Rev. M. B. Long of Long Pine, Neb., and Sister Trihbet of Sargis, Mich., will be in charge of the meetings.

Reckless Driver Fined

Charles Buresh, Thirteenth and Edwards streets, was fined $20 in South Side police court yesterday for reckless driving. Buresh was charged with passing a street car unloading passengers at the O street viaduct. This is his second offense, police said, and the judge threatened him with a jail sentence.

Woman Held, Man Freed

Mrs. Callie M. Robins, 4118 South Twenty-seventh street, charged with illegal possession of liquor, was in South Side police court yesterday. Her case was continued to August 2. Thomas Hart, who was arrested during the raid on the Robins home, was discharged.

Seeking Clarence Stokes.

Clarence F. Stokes, who is supposed to be working with an undertaking establishment or garage in Omaha, is being sought by his brother, K. M. Stokes, Eagle Lake, Minn.

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. J. D. Jones, 79 years old, founder of the Kings Daughters society on the South side, died at her home, 412 South Twenty-seventh street, of heart disease. She was familiarly known to old residents as "Mother Jones." She had been a resident of Omaha for 25 years and was born in Jones, Frank A. of Omaha and Charles E. Jones of Houston, Tex. Funeral services will be held from her home Sunday at 4 p. m. Burial will be in Forest Lawn.

Clara B. Bishard, 72 years old, died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Bishard, 2409 North Forty-first street. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 4 p. m. from the Haynes chapel, Twenty-fourth and Ames avenue. Burial will be in Forest Lawn.

Tenants Ordered to Vacate May Join League of Renters

Tenants of the Birchwood and Mayfair apartments are considering joining the Omaha Tenants' Protective league, according to members of that body, following notices to vacate at the expiration of their present leases.

According to members of the league, Birchwood tenants have all received notifications of their landlord's desire that they move by September 30. At the Mayfair tenants were notified that they must vacate, because of contemplated changes and renovations.

According to tenants and members of the league, the requests are attempts on the part of the landlords to secure vacant property to offer at increased rentals.

Exams for Postal Clerks and Carriers in Omaha August 14

The postal branch of the government needs clerks and carriers in Omaha. Postmaster Herbert Daniel said yesterday an examination will be held August 14. The government, he says, has several attractive offers for good applicants. Good pay, a vacation and a pension system is part of the service.

Operated Without Consent, Woman Says; Asks $50,000

Mrs. Etta Peterson filed suit in district court yesterday against the Nicholas Senn hospital, Dr. A. P. Condon and Dr. C. Harold Newell for $50,000. An operation was performed upon her without her consent, she says. She entered the hospital March 22, she says.

"Prohibitionist" Would Know Law On Manufacturing Wine

"When is a prohibitionist not a prohibitionist?" asks Deputy United States Marshal Emmett C. Quinley. Quinley received a letter yesterday from a woman living near Norfolk, which reads: "In regard to making home-made wine or cider for your own use, would like to know the law in the matter. I am strickley a prohibitionist but not of the W. J. Brine type."

Mother of Tom Falconer Reported Seriously Ill

Mrs. Margaret Falconer, mother of City Commissioner Thomas Falconer, 214 Maple street, was reported very low yesterday. Mrs. Falconer is 69 years old and is believed to be suffering from diabetes. Her condition was considered very serious today. Commissioner Falconer was reported slightly improved yesterday.

Quinley Received Letter Yesterday From Woman Living Near Norfolk, Which Reads:

"In regard to making home-made wine or cider for your own use, would like to know the law in the matter. I am strickley a prohibitionist but not of the W. J. Brine type."

Quinley Wonders if She is Referring to the Commissioner.

The woman's inquiries will be answered.

Mother of Tom Falconer Reported Seriously Ill

Mrs. Margaret Falconer, mother of City Commissioner Thomas Falconer, 214 Maple street, was reported very low yesterday. Mrs. Falconer is 69 years old and is believed to be suffering from diabetes. Her condition was considered very serious today. Commissioner Falconer was reported slightly improved yesterday.

BEST QUALITY Auto Oil, 80c gallon; Good Grade Auto Oil, 60c gallon. Bring your own can.

14th and Capitol Ave.

July Sale

Sweeping Clearance of Quality Furniture

Complete Outfits

Unequaled Service

Below Are a Few Items That Will Convince You of the Genuineness and Bigness of This July Clearance

Luxurious Chair in Velour

Clearance Sale Price... $6945

Most beautifully upholstered in Old Rose Velour of best quality.

A chair possessing all the comfort-giving qualities; a chair of remarkable beauty.

Splendid Cane and Mahogany Sofa

Clearance $14150 Sale Price

A large sofa, most elegant in appearance, and best in construction. There are removable and spring-filled cushions, as well as luxurious pillows.

Beautifully upholstered in fine Tapestry.

Satin Walnut Kitchen Cabinet

Clearance $5950 Sale Price

The cabinet we offer is very similar to the illustration, and in every way up to our standard of quality. In it you will find a place for everything that should be in a Kitchen Cabinet; the arrangement is most convenient.

A Dican b. Day—A Bed by Night

Clearance $3985 Sale Price

A handsome and useful piece of fine furniture at a remarkably low price.

Easily converted into full sized bed; covered with imitation Spanish leather.

Mahogany Finish Wood Bed

Clearance Sale Price... $1475

Now is your opportunity to secure at a very low price a bed to match your other bedroom pieces. The bed illustrated is the staid-end type, very much in style today. The price is far below present-day cost to manufacture.

Splendid Wood Bed in Fumed Oak

$1725

Similar to the picture, but not an exact reproduction. Full size, well made and neatly finished.

Big value.

Solid as the Oak Tree From Which It Is Made

and most rigid in construction; in fact these rockers are so well made and so handsomely finished that many years of service is guaranteed; suitable as an extra rocker in your home, or as a porch rocker.

Clearance Sale Price... $495

Oak Buffet

$2865

Massive, colonial design, rich golden finish. Just like the picture and a wonderful value.

Oak Buffet

$3165

Simple, yet attractive design that will harmonize with almost any design of golden oak dining furniture.

Fumed Oak

$4495

Straight line, mission design; a style that will always be very much in demand. Splendid construction and finish.

Fibre Fernery

Clearance Sale Price... $1250

Hand-woven of excellent fibre, artistic and durable. Equipped with heavy, rust-proof pan.

Short Lengths Bordered Voiles Marquisesettes and Curtain Nets

39c Per Yard

Many of these remnants contain enough material to make two pairs of curtains.

On Sale Monday.

Remnants and Discontinued Patterns of Printed Linoleums

89c Square Yard

Best quality and many select patterns. Some remnants large enough for one room.

Best Felt Base Floor Covering

Many choice linoleum patterns. Clearance Price—

59c Square Yard

All Grass Rugs at Clearance Prices

Best Designs and Colorings

Size 9x12 ft. July Clearance Price, $7.95 each.

Size 8x10 ft. July Clearance Price, $6.45 each.

Size 6x9 ft. July Clearance Price, $4.35 each.

Size 4x7 ft. July Clearance Price, $2.65 each.

Size 3x6 ft. July Clearance Price, $2.15 each.

Size 27x34 in. July Clearance Price $1.05 each.

Piles Fistula—Pay When Cured

A mild system of treatment that cures Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases in a short time, without a severe surgical operation. No Chloroform, Ether or other general anesthetic used.

A cure guaranteed in every case accepted for treatment, and no money is to be paid until cured. Write for book on Rectal Diseases, with names and testimonials of more than 1,000 prominent people who have been permanently cured.

DR. E. R. TARRY Sanatorium, Peters Trust Bldg. (See Bldg.) Omaha, Neb.
Dr. R. S. Johnston, Medical Director

A POLLO TODAY

EUGENE O'BRIEN in "THE FIGUREHEAD" Also a Mac Bennett Comedy "THE STAR BOARDER"

CARS WASHED and Stored All Day $1.50

14th and Capitol Ave.

For Relief From the Heat and for Comfort in the Home Use an Electric Fan

You'll feel better, work better and rest better if you have an Electric Fan in the home.

Select and purchase now while the stock is complete.

Straight Blow and Oscillating Fans $11.00 to $43.00

See them at work at the Electric Shop.

Mahogany Toilet Table $3265

Just as you see it pictured above; triplicate mirrors of best French plate.

Mahogany Duofold $3985

A handsome and useful piece of fine furniture at a remarkably low price.

Mahogany Toilet Table $3265

Just as you see it pictured above; triplicate mirrors of best French plate.

Mahogany Duofold $3985

A handsome and useful piece of fine furniture at a remarkably low price.