

DEMOCRATIC HARMONY IS THREATENED

Twenty-Six Senators Who Are Opposed to Wilson's Stand On League of Nations Turn Against Attitude of Cox.

SEVERAL INSURGENTS VINDICATED BY PARTY

Candidates for Congress in Number of States to Run on Platform Directly Opposite To Presidential Nominee.

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, July 21.—The country is beginning to hear from some of the 26 out of 47 democratic senators who repudiated the uncompromising attitude of President Wilson on the peace treaty and whom Governor Cox, the democratic nominee for president, now brands as guilty of promoting "bad faith to the world in the name of America."

What the 26 democratic insurgents are thinking and some are saying of this charge made by their new party leader embracing the president's stand on the covenant at the White House conference last Sunday forebodes difficulties for the democratic nominee in promoting party harmony on the league issue in a large number of important states.

26 Bolt Leadership.

There were 21 democrats who stood with the president and 26 who bolted his leadership in the last vote on the treaty on March 19. The following 23 democratic senators voted for the covenant with the Lodge reservations: Ashurst of Arizona; Beckham of Kentucky; Chamberlain of Oregon; Fletcher of Florida; Gerry of Rhode Island; Gore of Oklahoma; Henderson of Nevada; Jones of New Mexico; Kendrick of Wyoming; King of Utah; Myers of Montana; Nugent of Idaho; Phelan of California; Pittman of Nevada; Pomeroy of Ohio; Smith of Georgia; Smith of Maryland; Trammell of Florida; Woodcut of Delaware; Owen of Oklahoma; Ransdell of Louisiana; Walsh of Massachusetts; Walsh of Montana.

Candidates for Re-election.

Of these 26 democratic senators who refused to follow the leadership of the president on the league question, 10 are completing their present term of office and nearly all of them are candidates for re-election. They are Beckham of Kentucky, Chamberlain of Oregon; Fletcher of Florida; Gore of Oklahoma; Henderson of Nevada; Nugent of Idaho; Phelan of California; Smith of Georgia; Smith of Maryland; Thomas of Colorado.

It thus is apparent that in a number of states there will be a spectacle of the democratic nominee for president appealing for support for the covenant without the Lodge reservations and a democratic senator seeking re-election on his record of voting for the covenant with the Lodge reservations, now characterized by Governor Cox as representing a projected act of "bad faith to the world in the name of America."

Outspoken Against Cox.

Senators Ashurst of Arizona, Walsh of Massachusetts, Chamberlain of Oregon, Reed of Missouri and Shields of Tennessee have been most outspoken in resenting Governor Cox's imputation of promoting "bad faith to the world." They do not believe that any question of good or bad faith is involved.

Senator Owen contends that Governor Cox has not surrendered to the president and that he is as much committed to reservations as ever. He takes issue with the president's assertion that the republican reservation on article 10 "cut the heart out of the covenant."

Proceedings of Three Butchers World Court May Be Kept Secret

Plans Virtually Adopted Provide for Closed Sessions Upon Request.

The Hague, July 21.—Secrecy may envelope the proceedings of the high court of nations in certain cases unless the league of nations council changes the plans which already have been virtually approved by the jurists commission in drafting the plan of the tribunal. In the main the submission of the jurists has decided to follow the five power plan submitted by the five neutral nations for the proceedings of the high court, but has inserted a clause providing that, while generally the arguments before the court shall be public, on the request of any party to the case to be held in secret and that the court shall have discretion in certain cases involving some other interests.

All decisions, however, are to be read at public sessions. In the event a charge is brought by one party before the court that the other party and all the members of the league of nations are to be informed of it. While some of the jurists think this means that publicity inevitably will follow, there is no official provision to give the press or the public access to briefs or complete proceedings. The procedure of the court in other respects is to follow generally the model of the supreme court of the United States, with a special provision for the expression of minority opinions.

SHAMROCK IS DEFEATED IN CLOSE FINISH

Resolute Wins First Victory Towards America's Yacht Cup in Hard-Fought Contest With British Contender.

ELAPSED TIME OF BOTH CRAFT EXACTLY SAME

Defender Crosses Line Seven Minutes Ahead of Her Rival—Must Take Next Two Races To Win Pewter Trophy.

By MONTAGUE WORTHLEY. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. New York, July 21.—Resolute won her first leg on the America's cup today. She won it by her allowance of seven minutes and one second, for it took both her and the Shamrock IV the same amount of time, to a second, to cover the 30-mile windward and leeward course.

It was the first time in the history of America's cup races that two yachts have taken exactly the same time to cover the course and it is the rarest of rare happenings for any yachts to tie. The score now stands at two races to the challenger and one to the defender, which means that Resolute must win the next two to keep the cup in this country, while one victory for the Shamrock is all it needs to lift it for Sir Thomas Lipton.

Next Race Triangular.

The next race on Friday is to be a triangular one, with at least one leg of reaching, at which Shamrock has demonstrated itself to be superior to Resolute. If Mr. Burton cannot manage to win the breeze does not play pranks which favor the defender, the chances are that Sir Thomas may at last accomplish what he has tried to do for the last 21 years. However, Resolute is far from being defeated in advance of the final leg of the contest, and if she manages to win it Sir Thomas might as well give his order to Mr. Nicholson for another challenge.

One Day of Rest.

At the conclusion of the race today, Shamrock flew the code letter which indicated she did not want to race tomorrow, so there will be a day of rest, and overhauling between now and Friday.

The breeze at the start was from south by west, which took them to a point off shore from Ocean Grove, and in this 15-mile leg on windward work Resolute's actual time consumed was 1 minute and 28 seconds, less than the losses taken by the challenger. On the run home before the wind the challenger, as a result of her greater spread of canvas, not only overhauled the white Bristol sloop but finished 19 seconds in the lead, having gained a minute and 47 seconds on the 15-mile run, which conditions considered, was a very good showing.

BRYAN DRIES' NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT

Prohibitionists Name Commoner by Acclamation; Friends Say He Will Not Consent to Head Ticket.

BIG DEMONSTRATION FOR CHIEF OF ANTI-WETS

Miss Marie C. Brehm, Long Beach, Colo., Is Chosen as Permanent Chairman of Convention in Session at Lincoln.

Lincoln, Neb., July 21.—William J. Bryan was nominated by acclamation as the prohibition party's presidential nominee at the national convention here today. The nomination came after a resolution "tendering" him the position of standard-bearer had brought out the fact in debate that he had telegraphed friends here that he "could not accept."

The text of the resolution follows: "Be It Resolved, By the prohibition national convention assembled in Lincoln, Neb., this 21st day of July, 1920, confronted by the cowardice of both old parties as shown by the silence of their platforms on the great issue of the century and in response to a flood of requests from men and women of all parties, that we hereby tender our nomination for president of the United States to that peerless moral and political leader, William Jennings Bryan."

Disregard Telegram.

"And be it further Resolved, That we hereby instruct the proper officers of this convention immediately to communicate with Mr. Bryan and report his reply to this convention."

An attempt to bring the Calderwood motion tendering W. J. Bryan the nomination was made after the reading of the Bryan telegram by Howard. The motion to table was overwhelmingly defeated.

Miss Marie Brehm then relinquished the chair and placed in actual nomination W. J. Bryan, declaring he "must not accept" and tendered the nomination but actually gave it.

A paraded led by the Missouri delegation was started immediately. South Dakota joined and then all the delegations fell in line. Some Spangled Banners on old flags and the delegates whooped and yelled at the top of their voices. The piano continued with "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and then swung into "A Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight." Someone grabbed Howard and forced him into the parade.

Howard Is Criticized.

A letter from Charles W. Bryan, brother of W. J. Bryan, was read to the convention, stating that his name was not mentioned in connection with the nomination and that the Calderwood resolution should not be passed.

C. W. Bryan in his letter said: "Kindly request the members of the convention to omit Mr. Bryan's name from consideration in connection with the nomination or in the adoption of such a resolution."

"Friends of Mr. Bryan and in the cause of prohibition will discourage such action." The letter was addressed to C. N. Howard, a New York delegate. Howard read it to the convention.
