Any Ragtime Music Makes His Feet Start Jazzing

Rhythmic Click of Dirt Train Wheels on "Dodge Short Line" Track Is Melody to Darcy—His Dancing Disturbs Judge Fitzgerald.

Not even thoughts of a term in the penitentiary can cause Walter Williams, colored, to keep his feet still when he hears "ragtime" music.

Miller Park Golfer Drives Vicious Ball And Slays a Gopher

J. J. Thiele lives near Miller park and plays golf on the links at this recreation and rest center.

Mr. Thiele telephoned to the park department office and inquired if the city allowed any hotshots on gophers.

Bumble Bee Buzzings

Society BUMBLE BEE

Things are buzzing among the worth-while people and they are getting engaged and married just like common folks.

Delightful Mrs. Codfish

Just last week Mrs. Codfish (she is a member of THE Codfish family whose grandfather made his start as a shoe peddler here in the early days, though that is not mentioned now) was talking to Mme. Scandal in her own charming manner and let us know that we may look soon for an announcement of the engagement of a certain young lady very closely related to Mrs. Codfish.

Bachelor Wins Omaha Girl of High Degree

The charming bachelor who is to marry the person related so closely to Mrs. Codfish lives in a city not more than 400 miles from Omaha and on the Missouri Pacific. He has visited in Omaha several times, when more rhythmic. Walter stood up. As the cars passed the police station the wheels broke into a lively ragtime and Walter's feet started. Long after the train was beyond hearing 23 pairs of hands and feet continued to keep time and Walter continued to dance.

Judge Fitzgerald was trying a case in the court room adjoining the bull pen. He halted an attorney questioning a witness and listened.

"What the hell is going on in there?" he asked the court sergeant. Sergeant Holden opened the door of the cage and held Walter in the act of doing some fancy buck and wing stunts. Walters applied the brakes, but it was fully two minutes before his feet stopped working.

"I jes couldn't help it, cap'n; I's jes naturally got it in me, and it's got to get out somehow," explained the prisoner.

and he would be paid 25 cents if he furnished evidence of the tragedy which he related.

Frank Elias, secretary in the park office, at first understood Mr. Thiele to say "golf" over the telephone and expressed great surprise to think that a goat could be killed by a golf ball.

Gladys Leslie has arrived in Los Angeles and expects to make the west coast her future home.

Edwin Earle, who has been featured as leading man in many east-city musical productions, is in Los Angeles for an indefinite stay.

Parents Object

He is a most attractive bachelor of the blond type and she is a beautiful brunette. They have been seen frequently together and 'tis said the wedding will take place in October in spite of parental objection. Her father is employed by the smelter and is a large man. Recently, 'tis whispered, he kicked our young Romeo out of the house. Then the little brunette left home and secured a position in the 10-cent store, where she is now employed. The young pair eat lunch together there at noon and papa knows nothing of it.

Young Doctor and a Charming Nurse

A certain young doctor and an attractive trained nurse have been seen together so much lately that Mme. Scandal just knows there is something "in the air." The doctor has a position in a local drug store. He never took his degree at the veterinary college where his family had his friends call him "Doc." The trained nurse met him while purchasing something in the store. He

Caught on the Fly

Prof. C. F. Crowley, city chemist, was apprehended the other afternoon leaving the city hall with O. A. Scott, city lighting superintendent.

An elderly man, anxious to conduct a small fruit stand at Eighteenth and Cumming streets, called on City Commissioner Zimman a few days ago with an earnest request that the commissioner assist him in obtaining a permit.

There is one little girl in Omaha who thinks a lot of M. J. Dineen, assistant chief of the fire department. A few days ago the chief responded to a telephone fire alarm calling at an address where he was unable to find any evidence of fire or find anyone who knew of an alarm having been sent in.

J. E. Kirk, owner of the Grand theater, returned last Thursday from a vacation among the Minnesota lakes.

J. E. O'Brien, president of the Tenants' Protective league, received a telephone call last week from a widow who lives on North Twenty-fourth street and owns six houses in a row.

She is temporarily unemployed but expects to take up a course in trained nursing.

Woe, Woe From a Southern Romeo

He came up from the southland, this dashing Romeo, some time ago and promptly laid siege to the heart of one of Omaha's girls of an exclusive family living in north Dundee or south Benson.

Her mother looked on complacently for the dashing southerner told of the ancestral home and the little plantation and the levees of the Mississippi where his family had lived for generations.

The Omaha mama, being very careful, wrote to the southern city for information and got an answer that dashed her visions of daughter surrounded by ex-slaves to do her bidding. Mother read the riot act to would-be son-in-law the next time he called.

der was $100,000 he might consider the proposition, but he was not attracted by $1.

"Did you ever go away from your old home town and meet somebody who inquired about a person or place?" asked E. L. Bradley, who recently returned from the Shriners' big meet at Portland.

"It is music in your ears when you are a long, long way from Omaha," said Mr. Bradley.

Jealous of Husband; Ringer's Weight 220; They Said on Street

Detached bits of conversation occasionally have a humorous touch. They stimulate the imagination and pique the curiosity of the one who has not heard the entire conversation.

"I've got a broken back." "Are you going to take your trunk with you?" "I've been in Omaha 20 years and I've done nearly everything except peddle booze."

Citizen Who Inquires "Is It Hot Enough?" Should Be Punished

Keep cool! That is the advice of Dr. J. F. Edwards, health commissioner.

The health commissioner explains that one may worry himself into a state of considerable heat by talking and thinking about the temperature.

He advocates a moderated speech and a conservation of conversation during the good old summer time.

1920 Relics Flood Paris For American Purchasers

Paris, July 24.—"Prehistoric" arrowheads "made in the year 1920 A. D." and destined for allegedly credulous curio collectors of America, have been discovered in Paris auction rooms.

Mr. Palmer stated that the captain was the breeziest object he had observed this summer.

Minister, Good at Repartee, Takes Dig at Legal Friend

Rev. Frank G. Smith Gains Reputation as After-Dinner Speaker—Here's Pair of His Most Recent Stories.

Rev. Frank G. Smith, pastor of the First Central Congregational church, is gaining a reputation as an after-dinner speaker. He is clever at repartee.

At a recent function Carl Herring, lawyer, took a little fling at the ministers in the presence of Rev. Mr. Smith and other local ministers.

When Rev. Mr. Smith spoke, he took advantage of the opportunity to get back at his legal friend by saying:

"What do you mean, you're going to Canada?" "You might do worse." She replied: "It would be hard to do worse."

Breezy Visitor Carries Eloquent Umbrella Along

Harry Palmer Has to Shut Off Electric Fan When Captain Who Is Traveling "East and West" Appears.

A man wearing fierce mustachios and heavy eyebrows and bristling with esprit du corps, breezed into the office of Harry O. Palmer yesterday afternoon and immediately announced himself as Captain Castro of Butte, Mont.

The visitor waved an umbrella to accentuate the inciveness of his words and otherwise impressed himself in a temperamental manner.

Weighted 623 in January; He's Down to 347 Now

Atlantic City, N. J., July 24.—Emory Titman, who a year ago claimed all records for weight for his age, has cashed in enough jets to keep him in smokes for another year no matter what "reformers" do to the "weed."

Mr. Palmer stated that the captain was the breeziest object he had observed this summer.
