

BRIDAL PAIR IS FURNISHING FUN AT EDITORS' MEET

Chambers Sun Honeymooning at Convention — Country Scribes Seeing Life—Fat Man Missing.

The Nebraska Press association turned out in full force yesterday. Two hundred and twenty-five tired country editors, and their eager wives and children, have registered at headquarters and more are expected today. Many are driving to Omaha in automobiles.

Wolfgang Schmidt of Fullerton, long-looked-for for the association, had not arrived yesterday. The huge red, yellow and green made to order bathing suit may yet be unoccupied unless by chance a most substantial editress, who is attending the convention, decides to wear it.

This is the Life.
The visitors enjoyed life at Krug park yesterday after spending Monday getting acquainted and enjoying the Athletic club roof gardens and Ak-Sar-Ben Den.

A bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Hyatt of the Chambers Sun, are "taking in" the convention as a part of their honeymoon and furnishing a great deal of material for fun making on the part of the older married folks.

At Lakoma Club.
The airplane whirled the most popular of the Krug park concessions yesterday and the managers of the country newspapers, as well as their children, were enjoying life.

Much preparation had been made for the afternoon events in tilting, slipper kicking, swimming and rapping.

This afternoon the visitors will frolic at the Lakoma Country club. The Fort Crook Military band will entertain the visitors with music for their meals today.

Clothing Disappears
Clothing valued at $100 was stolen from a trunk in the home of Irene Johnson, 1230 Capitol avenue. Monday night, according to police reports.

"RED" NEAL GIVEN FURLOUGH TO HELP HARVEST HIS CROP

Man Sentenced from Omaha For Automobile Thefts Is Released from Pen.

"Red" Neal is out of the penitentiary. He was released on leave of absence on authority of a letter from Governor McKelvie to Warden Fenton.

Warden Fenton says he assumes all responsibility for Red's return at the expiration of his leave. The leave was issued from July 10 to August 10, to enable Red to harvest his crops near Peru, in Nemaha county.

County Attorney E. F. Armstrong, of Nemaha county, asked for Red's release, which was approved by Secretary H. H. Antles of the welfare board and Warden Fenton.

Neal was sentenced to the penitentiary for one to seven years for aiding and abetting grand larceny. Maurice Kattelman was given a similar sentence with Neal, April 20, following a long and intricate legal war in the district court in Omaha.

Kattelman is still in the penitentiary.

Highest Per Capita Taxes May Be Paid by State of Nebraska

Washington, July 27.—(Special.)—Nebraska may lead all states in the union for the highest per capita grand total tax contribution to the federal government for the fiscal year ending June 30, treasury officials indicated today.

A total of $16,250,000 in income and excess profit taxes, miscellaneous taxes of $7,971,000, or a grand total of $24,221,000 was paid into the treasury from Nebraska.

This makes the per capita amount slightly over $20 or $100 for the average prewar family.

Iowa paid $30,325,000 income and profit tax, with miscellaneous federal taxes amounting to $8,693,000.

The surplus female population of the world has risen from about 5,000,000 to 15,000,000 since the beginning of the world war.

Charges Pair With Owing Still; One Man Released

Charges with having in their possession a still for the illicit manufacture of liquor, J. W. Wilfong, a carpenter, 4043 S street, and James McKenna, Fiftieth and Grover streets, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Boehler yesterday. After examination Wilfong was released, but McKenna waived a hearing and was bound over to the federal grand jury. According to testimony of George Summit, city detective, he found in the house a still and five or six gallons of whisky. Wilfong testified that he had been called to the house by McKenna to do some carpenter work and had no knowledge of the still.
