

SAINT GAUDEN'S LINCOLN STATUE GIVEN TO BRITAIN

Elihu Root Makes Presentation Speech—Lloyd George Accepts It for British People.

London, July 28.—Elihu Root, former American secretary of state who recently took part in the work of the commission of jurists at The Hague for the establishment of a permanent international court of justice today formally presented to the British people the Saint Gauden's statue of Lincoln in Canning square as a gift from America, and later the statue was unveiled.

Premier Lloyd George abandoned pressing official business to deliver the speech of acceptance. The presentation was made in the presence of a distinguished audience in the central hall of Westminster with Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States, presiding. The event was widely heralded in the British press as further cementing Anglo-American friendship.

In the course of his address Mr. Root declared:

"It would be difficult to conceive of a sharper contrast in all the incidental and immaterial things of life than existed between Lincoln and the statesmen whose statues stand in Parliament square."

Later in his address, however, Mr. Root said:

"It is the identical fundamental conception in both countries which make it impossible that in any great world emergency Great Britain and America can be on opposing sides. These conceptions of justice and liberty are the breath of life for both. While they prevail, both nations will endure, if they perish, both nations will die. These were Lincoln's inheritance."

"We may disregard all life's prejudices and quarrels that result from casual friction and pin pricks and from outside misrepresentation and detraction, and rest upon Lincoln's unerring judgement of his countrymen and his race. We may be assured from him that whenever trials come, whenever there is need for assurance, of the inherent power, truth and triumph of justice, humanity and freedom—then, the peace and friendship between Great Britain and America will prove to be as Lincoln desired to make them, perpetual."

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. Get a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it over. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
