

TOBACCO THIEF IS CAPTURED IN RUNNING BATTLE

Man Charged With Cigar Store Burglary Confesses—Presents Penitentiary Sentence at Lincoln.

Following a running gun battle in which the pursued dashed through a neighbor's home and leaped from a second story window, only to be caught a few blocks farther on, Arnold Solomon, 2702 California street, was arrested Thursday night by Detectives Danbaum and Palmtag.

Solomon signed a written confession, yesterday to the burglary of the Perego & Moore cigar store, Fourteenth and Howard streets, Tuesday night, Chief of Detectives Anderson said yesterday.

Hold Sunday Picnic—Young Judican council of Omaha will hold a picnic in Elmwood park, Sunday. Two ball games will feature the outing.

Judge Sears Returns—District Judge Sears returned yesterday from the southeastern Iowa horse races at Corning, Ia., where his horse, Shade-line, was second place in the 2:16 pace.

story window in the house and the chase was renewed. At Twenty-eighth and Cuming streets Solomon, exhausted, gave up. Chief of Detectives Anderson said that Solomon declared he would plead guilty at his preliminary hearing and asked to be sent to the penitentiary at Lincoln.

Solomon has already served two terms in the Lincoln prison, he declared.

W. W. Dawson, proprietor of a soft drink stand at 312 North Sixteenth street, was arrested at noon by Detectives Danbaum and Palmtag charged with receiving stolen property.

The detectives say they found some of Solomon's loot in the Dawson establishment. Dawson was released on $50 bond.
