$250 Wins $50,000

Men and women everywhere, city and country, we want you to buy oil leases in the Great HIGH ISLAND District, Gulf Coast Oil Fields of Texas, from the Gulf Coast Development & Refining Company of Omaha.

Everybody buying. Our Company is a fine, producing, money-making Company. We have just struck oil on our 10,000-acre lease in Wyoming. We are expecting to bring in a gusher on our 88-acre lease at Burkburnett, Texas, most any day. Now drilling close to the gusher sands. We own 7 fine producing wells and drilling more at Humble Gusher Field, Texas.

We own all our own drilling rigs and equipment. We start drilling at HIGH ISLAND as quick as our men can rig up and spud in. These leases most valuable on the market. Government reports describe HIGH ISLAND with wonderful possibilities.

Sale just started. Over 30 per cent of entire tract sold before we could advertise this proposition. Act on that impulse. Get in quick. Come to our office if possible and talk it over. Learn the facts. Make us prove to you that this is the most wonderful chance for big money from a small investment ever offered investors in the State of Nebraska, and WE CAN DO IT.

Write or wire for your lease reservation. Get our bulletin, hot off the press, with maps and pictures of great gushers of Gulf Coast Fields, most wonderful gusher district in America.

One 5-acre lease should make you independent. Two should make you wealthy. Three or more should make you rich. These leases going into big money. A chance for every lease owner to clean up $50,000.00 on his small investment of 5 acres the minute a big gusher is brought in. It looks like a sure shot.

Men backing this Company are "Old Time Operators." This Company has made good every promise. Every prediction has come true. This Company has never drilled a dry hole. This is Nebraska's very own oil Company. Fully 98 per cent of our investors are citizens of Nebraska. Every citizen should buy. We want every citizen for our friend and booster.

We have been here in your state for years and are here to stay. We have the confidence of the people, which will put this proposition over the top into big money. We ask you to use your red-blooded brain power. Take a man's chance.

Quick action necessary. Work with us while we work for you.

This proposition looks like the most wonderful big winner that we have ever seen. This chance will never come again. 5-acre leases now selling for $250.00. This price won't last. We expect the price to advance very fast. Don't fail to get our bulletin.

Officers of Company in charge:

H. R. ELLWOOD, President Oil Operator of Omaha, Nebraska

WILLIS E. REED, 1st Vice President Formerly Attorney General of Nebraska, of Madison, Nebraska

> W. J. GASKILL, 2nd Vice President Live Wire Business Man of Omaha, Nebraska

These men do big things, play the winners. We want your order.

Where once grew luscious buffalo grass, where the red man lived in ease and plenty, today streams forth from the hills and prairies liquid gold in such quantities as to startle the world.

Texas oil fields are greater today than they were yesterday, and smaller today than they will ever be again. Remember to follow this advice. If you always had a hundred or two and not much more, keep it and you will always have not much more.

Call at the office or write or wire your reservation, or have one of our representatives call on you to get your order.

Our references are any and everybody in Nebraska.

THOUSANDS AT HOMECOMING OF GOVERNOR COX

Ceremonies at Dayton Attract Huge Crowd-Nomi. ee and Wife Almost Mobbed By Admirers.

By ROBERT B. SMITH.

Dayton, O., July 31.-Dayton knocked off work on cash registers and airplanes Friday dressed up in its holiday togs and, along with the rest of the Miami valley, devoted itself wholeheartedly to rejoicing officially over the honor that has come to its favorite son, "Jimmie," alias James M. Cox, democratic nominee for the presidency.

Twelve thousand persons, exceeding in number the estimates even of the Chamber of Commerce, marched past the reviewing stand to show Governor Cox how proud they were of him. For three hours, the governor sat in a blistering sun and watched his townsmen march by and yell "Hurray for Jimmie." There were floats depicting the governor's childhood days, jazz orchestras, glee clubs, a score of bands and airplanes swooping overhead and dropping bombs, prominent citizens, newsboys and brother Elks, all do-

When the last man in the parade filed by the reviewing stand, the crowd threw off all restraint and rushed to shake hands with their friend and neighbor, "Jimmie." The policemen couldn't hold them back. The governor and Mrs. Cox, in the False Stories for Publicity reviewing stand, were literally mobbed. They tried to meet the avalanche of outstretched hands for a while and then looked about for means of escape.

Delegations from a number of odges marched by carrying banners: "In honor of Brother Cox." There were girls' glee clubs and orchestras on auto trucks passing the review stand singing "Ohio," the Cox song at San Francisco. Scores of big Dayton concerns had floats carrying everything from mermaids to cigars and untrue statement of fact conand bearing banners: "Congratula-

Floats Represent Rise.

An important section of the parade, meanor." consisted of floats representing the governor's rise to fame. The first showed his birthplace, a humble farm ome. Another represented him toiling away as a reporter on a small country newspaper and finally becoming publisher of the Dayton News. The last of the series was a reproduction of the White House, showing Cox already occupying it. Another interesting float contained an electric printing press in full operation. It was busy publishing a miniature newspaper, copies of which were scattered through the crowd.
"A printer for the White House," was the inscription on the side of the printing press float.

The governor had not intended to make a speech, but the clamor of the crowd weakened his resolution.
