$1.00 Is All Needed To Join the Hoosier Cabinet Club at Union Outfitting Co.

Other Special Inducements Are Being Made During Hoosier Demonstration.

A Beautiful Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet Given Away Friday Evening, August 6.

On one point all women agree—that kitchen work causes more mind and body fatigue than any other part of housekeeping. With the idea of bringing "happiness to the kitchen" the Union Outfitting Company is forming a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet Club.

All this week special inducements are being made. The payment of ONE DOLLAR delivers a labor-saving "Hoosier" to your home. Then a few easy payments of a DOLLAR a week and the Cabinet is yours.

If you have an old cupboard or Kitchen Cabinet, $5.00 will be allowed for it on the purchase of a new Hoosier.

The Union Outfitting Company is known as the "Home of Home Outfits," and this season is making special inducements to young couples just starting housekeeping. No transaction is ever considered complete until the customer is satisfied.

TWIN STORIES BY LUCY FITCH PERKINS

By LUCY FITCH PERKINS. Irish Twins Dance a Jig. The old woman and the Twins made their way to the platform and sat down on a bench near the edge of it. Many other people were sitting or standing about. An old man stood up on the platform. He told the story of Cuchulain—the "Hound of Culain"—and how he fought all the greatest warriors of the world on the day he first took arms.

When he had finished, another man took his place and told the story of Deirdre and Naisi, and and they were having such a good time that they might have forgotten to go home at all if it had not been for a sudden Larry hadn't shaken Eileen's arm and said, "Look there!" "Where?" Eileen said. "There!" said Larry. "The rough man with the brown horse." The moment Eileen saw the man with the brown horse she took Larry's hand and they both ran as fast as they could back to their father.

"We saw the Tinker!" they cried the moment they saw Mr. McQueen. "Then we'd as well be starting home," said Mr. McQueen. "I'd rather not be meeting the gentleman on the road after dark."

He got Colleen and put her into the cart once more. Then he and the Twins had something to eat. They bought a ginger cake shaped like a rabbit, and another like a man from one of the hawkers, and they bought some sugar sticks, too, and these, with what they had brought from home, make their supper.

I'M THE GUY!

I'M THE GUY who grafts free rides from the automobile salesman on the bluff that he's going to buy a car.

I have no idea of buying one, but I do like to take a spin out in the country or even through the city now and then, and that is one way I can enjoy the fun without having to pay for it. If I can ring some friends or my family in on it, so much the better. The more the merrier so long as I am not paying for the gas!

Of course, the time the salesman wastes on me he might be devoting to a real customer, and it may cost him a good commission now and then, but that's no part of my worries. I get the rides and that's all I care about. If he wants to lose any sleep over what he may have lost let him grow the wrinkles. I only wish they'd make even more divergent kinds of automobiles. Then I could graft more rides. (Copyright, 1920, by Thompson Feature Service.)

Sheriff Starts Campaign Against Auto Tax Dodgers

Sheriff Clark and County Treasurer, Endres are to start a drive against all owners of automobiles who are attempting to evade payment of automobile license tax. According to the sheriff, the evaders ride only in the night along the suburban roads, so he is to post deputies along the roads to make arrests. A license costs $20, while penalty on conviction under the charge of evading the payment of the tax calls for a fine of not more than $50 and imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three days.
