

COURT SUSTAINS W. O. W. IN BOOST OF LODGE RATES

District Judge at Nebraska City Refuses to Grant Permanent Injunction Against New Fees.

The permanent injunction, asked by Charles Fowler and others against the Woodmen of the World rate increase, was refused in the district court at Nebraska City Thursday by Judge Frederick W. Button. The case involved the validity of laws passed by the society in July, 1919, calling for an increase of rates to provide a sufficient fund to pay promised benefits amounting to $1,180,000. Plaintiffs in the suit attempted to obtain an injunction to prevent the taking effect of the laws calling for a raise in individual rates going into force December 11, 1919.

May Stop Other Suits.
According to officials of the organization the old rates were not adequate to pay outstanding benefits and without the increase a deficit of $176,000,000 would have occurred. Actions of the society in its plan of adjustment were approved by the district court.

The decision handed down by the court is of unusual importance, because it will be used to prevent litigation in other states, Nebraska being the original domicile of the Woodmen of the World.

W. A. Fraser, sovereign commander, in expressing himself on the decision, said:

"Business Necessity."
"The result is not different from what I expected. Business necessity and the right were on our side, and the action taken by the society was necessary for its perpetuation."

"The decision of the court was clear, definite and is sustained by the decisions of the courts of last resort in this and other states," said D. E. Bradshaw, general attorney for the organization.

Ak-Sar-Ben Governors, Regaled in Silk, Will Head Pilgrim Parade

John L. Webster, who is at the head of the committee in charge of the great parade marking the 400th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock, which will take place September 21, announced yesterday that the governors of Ak-Sar-Ben, dressed in their brilliant silk regalia, will ride horses at the head of the parade.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben also will furnish the title float, which will indicate the general purpose, plan and scope of the celebration.

The Jobbers' Manufacturers' association will furnish the float depicting "The Landing at Cape Cod." The Omaha Retailers' association will be represented in the parade by a float entitled "Miles Standish in Search of a Place to Form a Colony."

Auto Leaps From Bridge, Mother and Child Hurt

Mrs. Gust Cavay, forty-first and Q streets, sustained a slashed artery in her right hand and a fractured collar bone when the automobile in which she was riding with her husband and 15-month-old baby crashed off a road bridge into a ravine 50 feet north of Dodge street on Seventh.

The baby was bruised and injured internally but Mr. Cavay escaped without serious injury. Mrs. Cavay and the child were taken to the Methodist hospital by a passing autoist. A speeding car which caused Mr. Cavay to veer his car to the side did not stop when the Cavay car crashed into the ravine. The car was entirely demolished.

Valuation of Douglas County Farm Raised 100 Per Cent

A 100 per cent increase in Douglas county farm land assessed valuation over that of last year was revealed by the county assessor yesterday. News of the increase has aroused farmers, and a large number of protests are expected. The assessor defends the increase with the contention that even with the boost farm land is assessed only from $50 to $200 an acre, and that this is the first assessment made since 1916, during which time there has been a great increase in the money value of practically everything.

Preacher, Held for Board Bill, Decries "Bad" World

John J. Freeman, formerly an English minister, and now an employe of the Cudahy packing company, was summoned to Justice Collier court yesterday to settle a room and board bill for $19. While waiting for the case to begin, Preacher Freeman, who is old and feeble, bitterly decry the rapid course of civilization in its sinful neglect and failure to support of ministers of the gospel.

Speedster Draws Sentence Of 15 Days in City Jail

O. J. Quinn, 2947 North Forty-seventh street, was sentenced to 15 days in jail for speeding by Police Judge Foster yesterday. He is the third man to be given a jail sentence. He was arrested Thursday night when he crashed into the pavilion at Elmwood park and charged with reckless driving and intoxication. Judge Foster also fined 17 speeders and discharged two yesterday.

High Rates May Keep Civil War Veterans From Reunion.

Civil war veterans from Nebraska may be prevented from attending the annual national encampment at Indianapolis in September by the railroad rate increase. F. W. Simpson, Civil war veteran, who is secretary of the Douglas County Relief commission, said yesterday that unless railroad rates on veterans the usual flat rate of 1 cent a mile at least 150 Omaha veterans would be unable to attend.
