TIMELY HITS OF LOCALS PILE UP LEAD FOR FUHR

Boosters Ouhit Rourke's, But Their Efforts Are Widely Scattered — Many Curious Catches.

The Rourke's won the opening game of the series from Des Moines yesterday, 4 to 2, although out 9 to 7 by the visitors. The locals' hits were timely and three of them were for extra bases. Mr. Althaus, who started the moundwork for the visitors, committed two errors, too, and each resulted in a tally for the home club.

Ruth Has Hit More Home Runs Than Any Other American Leaguer After battling five years in major livery "Babe" Ruth started the present season with a lifetime batting record of .318, ranking sixth among the swart artists of the Jihsonon circuit.

Bambino is destined to increase by a wide margin this figure, his season's batting figure of .391 having boosted his lifetime batting mark up to .356 just 3 per cent behind Shoeless Joe Jackson and 24 points behind the champion Ty Cobb.

When Ruth busted the elusive shoots if George Dauss last Friday for a pair of touch-every-bass licks, Bambino ran his four sacks total up to 90, more home runs than any American leaguer ever hit. The former champion had 77, Frank "Home Run" Baker took 10 years to amass that number. Ruth has poled 90 in less than six playing seasons.

It took Hans Wagner just 21 years to elout an even 100 homers in the National league, the Flying Dutchman retiring with the honor of hitting the most National league circuit smashes.

This record has been passed by Gavy Cravath, the Phillies' manager.

Al Munro Elias was passing through Omaha Monday and wrote the above story in The Bee office.

SISLER'S HOMER IN EIGHTH WINS GAME FOR LYNCH

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Low Acosta of Washington made a mistake in pitching to Jackson in the tenth inning today, and Jackson's double, sending Weaver, who had doubled home with the run which won the game, to a 4-to-2 victory.

The White Sox had taken a lead by hitting opportunistly but when Faber weakened Washington tied in the eighth with Milan's homer while Judge was on base.

HITCHCOCK AND MORRIS DEBATE LEAGUE ISSUE

Polish-Russian War Adds to Interest Between Nebraska Senator and Overseas Officer.

Winona Lake, Ind., Aug. 10.—The Polish-Russian war, which is daily becoming one of concern to the allies of the recent great war added to the interest in the debate on the league of nations here last night between Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska and Maj. Jackson Morris of Somerset, Ky.

Senator Hitchcock, who conducted President Wilson's fight in the senate for ratification of the league covenant, gave an elaborate explanation of the league and its purposes and urged that America should become a member of it. He declared it to be a great measure for world peace.

Opposing the Nebraska senator, Maj. Jackson Morris, former overseas soldier, spoke for the Lodge reservations. Major Morris declared against America entering the league as it now stands but expressed himself in favor of a league. He is willing to accept the covenant as brought back from Versailles only with strong reservations which make America's position plain and fully protect every American right. He argued that article 10 would commit America to every European fuss and declared strongly against acceptance of this article of the covenant unless it included the Lodge reservation.

Referring to the acute Polish situation, Major Morris declared that had America adopted the covenant as it was brought back from Europe, this nation might soon be called upon by the league to mobilize troops to send to Poland to preserve its political independence and integral territory; he said that under the Lodge reservations America itself would decide such a question rather than be morally bound to such a proposition.

Senator Hitchcock took the position that since Poland was the aggressor, its political independence and territorial integrity had not been attacked by Russia and that therefore this question would properly be subject for the league to take up. He said that France and Great Britain, because of the danger of the bolshevik movement spreading and enflaming Europe, are interested in seeing the terms of the peace treaty protected and that this is their reason for proposing aid to Poland at this time. Poland's territory as granted under the peace treaty, is now being invaded but he said that Russia attained this success while defending itself against an attack initiated by Poland.

Would-Be Ranch Hand Loses Prospective Employer and Money

Sam Craven, Hartsville, Mo., thought he had a job on a Nebraska ranch yesterday. Now, he's out $7, can't find his employer, and knows not where the ranch is.

Sam told the police he met a stranger in front of the Brandeis theater building, who told him he had a load of cattle coming in to the South Side stock yards.

"How'd you like to work for me on my ranch?" Sam says he was asked.

"Fine," he says he replied. "Well, you're hired. Say, I've got a bunch of drafts and checks here that I don't want to cash just now. Let me have $7 for a minute."

Sam says he did, and his employer went into the Brandeis theater building, telling him to wait outside.

Sam got tired waiting and went to police for aid.

Pass this all along the line

Thursday P.M.

Dear Pete: Just blew into Pittsburg to close that N & P purchase while I was waiting for the contract to be signed who ambles in to the G.M.'s office but President Holt! Asked me if I had a cigarette. Slipped him my "Camel Garage." Remember, he hit the "straight" boys when I met him last year?

Pete, you ought to hear Mr. Holt talk Camels! Gee, I thought I was some Camel speiler. But he went right to the meat with the subject. Say, if I could have shorthanded that line of super-stuff I'd have the job writing Camel ads by noon today!

"Reynolds ought to get a dollar for every Camel cigarette," Mr. Holt declared. "Why, my boy, Camels are simply wonderful," he added. "Don't ever let anybody talk about mild cigarettes compared with Camels! I know! (Get that, Pete). I've proved it to a hundred smelters that Camels are the mellowest and most refreshing cigarette in the world." Etc, Etc.

Pete, Camels won Mr. Holt like they won me—on their quality! After hearing him cut loose, I feel like saying: "you tell it, old parcel post, I can't Express it!"

Pete, I'm hatching an idea about Camels. I'll spill it your direction next time I write! It's what York State folks call a "pip-ing!" And it's ripe!

Your till the next fire-up.
