

WILL PROTEST AGAINST CUT IN U. N. REVENUES

Chancellor Says Institution Already Handicapped by Lack of Funds—Salaries Too Low.

Lincoln, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Chancellor Avery and Secretary Dales of the State University appeared before the State Board of Equalization this morning for the purpose of protesting against any possible action of the board which might tend to cut down the revenues coming to the institution because of the increased valuation of the state. There had been a rumor that the board was contemplating cutting down the levy fixed by the legislature in order to even up increased revenue which would naturally come from the increase in the state valuation. The only way the revenue can be kept the same as last year is to cut down the valuation of the state. Chancellor Avery told the board that the university was growing very rapidly and that with the increased cost of maintenance because of the larger number of students and the higher cost of material, with the necessary increase of salaries, that it is simply a proposition of a greater revenue. The board of regents the past year have kept the institution on an even basis by cutting out proposed building plans.

Can't Meet Competition.

We must have certain standards in order to meet the competition along educational lines," said the chancellor. "For instance, Dean Stout, who, before the war, was drawing a salary of $3,000 a year and who was raised to $4,500 later, has been lost to us simply because some other institution could give him $10,000 a year. Our salary list is much lower than that paid by institutions on the same par."

The chancellor said that the university was up against the proposition continually of appearing to create a deficiency in its different departments when such was not the case. Appropriations made by the legislature are made available at once, but the money does not come in till some time later. He said that he was considering the matter of asking the legislature to make an appropriation sufficient to put the institution on a cash basis. By not cutting the levy or the valuation it will enable the institution to place itself in that condition.

Must Pay More.

He called attention to some of the causes which have been responsible for the increase in maintenance. He said that a few years ago they were able to employ an electrician for $1,000 a year because he considered there were advantages in connection with the job which made up for the small salary. Now they had been compelled to pay the union scale. He said that the increase in valuation would bring an increase in revenue of about $204,000 and this should not be used except to place the university on a cash basis.

HAYS DECLARES WILSON IS MAIN CAMPAIGN ISSUE

National Chairman Says Republicans Intend to Force Fight Against Continuation of Present Policies.

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Marion, Ohio, Aug. 11.—Fundamentally, it is the Wilson administration, including the Wilson league of nations, that forms the outstanding issue of this campaign, according to Chairman Will Hays of the national committee, who visited Senator Harding at his home Tuesday.

Governor Cox's speech of acceptance, Mr. Hays thinks, has placed the democratic candidate in the attitude of accepting all President Wilson has done. On that line the republicans intend to force the fight. Mr. Hays came bearing confidential reports from many states. He reported 103,000 precinct commitments are at work. He added that the situation everywhere is extremely satisfactory to the republicans.

Working for Suffrage.

One of the things he is working hard to bring about now is suffrage ratification in Tennessee. He received reports on the situation there during the day and sent urgent telegrams to party leaders in Nashville. The republicans, he said, sincerely want all the women to vote, regardless of which state takes final favorable action.

Senator Harding's part in the campaign was discussed. One of the big questions of policy, on which the candidate is expected to declare himself soon, is just what specifications he would take to reform the league of nations to make it acceptable to this nation. He will not permit Governor Cox to define this position for him, assuming that because Harding is against the Wilson league he is against any league. Governor Cox's speech and the re-

Comptroller of Currency Charges Banks Get as High As 20 Per Cent on Call Loans.

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, Aug. 11.—That exorbitant interest rates on call loans exacted by New York banks and running as high as 20 per cent are largely responsible for unsettling the stock market and hampering the railroads and industry in financing essential reconstruction outlays, was charged by Comptroller of the Currency Williams.

"Interest at 1 per cent on $1,000,000,000 of call loans would amount to $10,000,000 per annum, about $30,000 per day," continued Mr. Williams. "Therefore, whenever banks
