

600 VISITORS FROM STATE WILL ATTEND SHOW

But Three More Shows Will Be Given by Samson Before Annual Fall Festival.

With but three more shows to be held at the Ak-Sar-Ben den before the fall festival, officials promise to make each one bigger and better than the one preceding.

A delegation of 600 out-of-town visitors from Fremont, Valley, Waterloo, Elkhorn and Millard will attend the performance of "Sky-Lo" or "Washday on the Moon," next Monday night.

These towns always send enthusiastic crowds of Nebraska boosters, Samson says. Fremont will send a special train and bring a band.

The problem of keeping the girl drummer of this band out has not yet been solved. No woman has ever been in the den, and when the blanket invitation was issued it was not known that girl was a member of the band. Samson expects to have a difficult and tearful scene at the gate, and it is expected that an unusually large crowd of Omaha knights will be on hand to watch developments.

Photographs of the crowd and the players will be taken at this performance.

Frank Nelson is in need of additional horsemen for his two parades September 22 and 23. His telephone number is Douglas 4115.

Zimman Not Worried by Recall Election Threat

City Commissioner H. B. Zimman professes himself untroubled by the threat of a recall election, made by Elmer E. Thomas, executive secretary of the "Committee of 5,000." He is standing pat against the demand for rescinding the police department ordinance. A committee will confer with the city council on the ordinance, Mr. Thomas declared Friday.

Mr. Zimman had a long conference with F. A. Peterson, assistant United States attorney, yesterday morning. Peterson who is attorney for Chief of Police Marshall Eberstein, discussed the pending ordinance asking the chief's resignation. Action on this measure will be taken up after the return of Eberstein from his vacation, about September 1.

Indiana Boys Come Here Prepared for Wild West

With revolvers up their sleeves, two 20-year-old boys from Indiana came to Omaha expecting to meet Indians, Mexicans and cowboys. They were brought before Judge Foster in Central police court yesterday after having been arrested Wednesday in the pawnshop of I. Gerber, 410 South Tenth street. They had asked Gerber to change a $20 bill for them.

The judge took their revolvers, assuring them that they were as safe in Nebraska as in Indiana. He then found rooms for them at the Y. M. C. A. where they will stay until they earn enough to return home.

Boy Struck by Automobile While On His Way to Work

Enroute to Union station to go to work as dishwasher on a dining car bound for Winona, Joe Vian, 14 years old, 2421 South Twenty-fifth street, was slightly injured when struck by an automobile driven by Samuel Pittman, negro, 2562 Cumming street, Thursday at Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets. Pittman was arrested for reckless driving. Will Howard, 81 North Fifteenth street, and Savannah Harmon, 1324 North Twenty-sixth street, both negro occupants of the automobile, were also arrested.

No More Water Dances for Omaha, Says Dr. Callfas

If the young men and women of Omaha wish to dance in the water, they will have to go to Atlantic City or some other watering place. Never again, says Dr. Jennie Callfas, acting head of the board of public welfare.

Eight Young Men Held on Charge of Shooting Craps

Patrolman Taffette interrupted an alleged crap game Thursday night at Thirty-third and State streets, and arrested eight young men who gave the following names: Frank Carlson, Florence; Ray Green, 8612 North Thirtieth street; William Michels, 3023 Reynolds street; Walt Poland, Florence; W. E. Michels, 3023 Reynolds street; O. F. Green, 8312 North Twenty-ninth street.
