Increased Use of Raisins

Washington, D. C., Aug. 15 .- In-creased consumption of raisins in the United States since prohibition is believed to account for the 1,400 per cent increase in raisin imports from Spain during the first six months of 1920. Nearly 8,000,000 pounds were exported from Malaga up to June 30, exceeding the total exports from that port from 1913-1919, inclusive.
