

CIVIC CLUBS TO JOIN IN PARADE OF PILGRIM FETE

Kiwanis, Concord and Rotary Organizations to Have Floats in Tercentenary Parade.

The Kiwanis, Concord and Rotary clubs have definitely decided to participate in the tercentenary celebration parade which will be held here on September 23, in commemoration of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock.

John L. Webster, chairman of the general committee, appeared before the Rotary club yesterday noon at its regular meeting in the Rome hotel and put the matter up to the attendants.

The result was an immediate action which was unanimously adopted, directing the officers of the club to sign a contract for a float.

Mr. Webster has received from Penn P. Fodrea, president of the Omaha Concord club a letter which indicates that this organization will have a float.

At the close of the Rotary club meeting yesterday, Dr. E. C. Henry of the American Legion announced that his organization will participate and will be represented by a float.

The last float of this parade will suggest patriotism and Americanism, showing a figure of the Goddess of Liberty bearing an American flag and standing on a large globe.

Mr. Webster states that the parade will be not less than two miles long, will have at least 10 bands of music and will have thousands of marchers in uniforms.

An order for a float has been authorized by the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Freight Rates On Steamers From Japan to Be Advanced

Tokio, Aug. 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—Representatives of all shipping lines operating out of Japanese ports, in conference at Yokohama, have decided that the standard freight rate for ocean traffic will be 20 per cent higher than at present.

R. O. Baker, representing the United States shipping board, proposed a 50 per cent increase, but Japanese delegates refused to agree.

AT THE THEATERS

Whether people get Booth Tarkington's comedy through reading the pages of his books or through witnessing his plays performed on the stage, the result is almost invariably the same—an hour or an evening of rare enjoyment.

Now comes to the Omaha theater the great Hoosier author's comedy, "Clarence," for an engagement of four days, beginning tonight. Prominent in the cast are Gregory Kelly, Ruth Gordon, Grace Wilkins, Clara Blanchard, and every night at 8:15, Betty Murray, Joe Wallace, James T. Ford and Guy D'Enery.

On Friday at 9 o'clock Orpheum seats will be placed on sale and with matinee next Sunday the regular season will be started at this popular theater; matinee every day at 2:15 and every night at 8:15. The opening bill will be headed by the Barn Irish singers and dancers, Josie Heather, English singing comedienne, with John McLaughlin and Bobbie Heather will share the distinction of topping the bill. Specially featured will be Harrison Greene and Katherine Parker in a comedy skit, "At the Depot," and Bert Baker and his company in "Preparation." Sandy Shaw, the Scotch comedian, Heron and Shirley in "The Mysterious Masquerader," Arthur Ward and Ethel Dooler with song, dance, bicycle riding and aerial throwing. Klugegrams and "Topics of the Day" complete the show.

The Capps family, eight in number, a happy lot who have something in the way of entertainment that is out of the beaten path, will provide the stellar attraction of the new show opening at the Empress today. Featured on the bill are the three Eddy sisters, who will contribute exclusive songs and dancing. Lyons and West, black-face comedians, will present their offering of comedy songs, soft shoe dancing and a line of patter. Eddora and company will present an exhibition of equilibristics, acrobatics and feats of strength.

William K. Wells has found new possibilities which he has used to good advantage in "Glad in Everything," in which the Victory Belles company appear at the Regency theater. Edna Bate and Scotty Friedell are the fun-makers at the show. Emma Kohler, Sedal Bennett, Helen Andrews, Mattie Baker and Fred Reese and Ben Moore are also principals. The engagement opens Saturday matinee, it being the start of the Gayety's 14th season. At 10 this morning the box office will open. Season reservations may be made.

George White's "Scandals of 1919" will dance its way into the Grand theater for four days starting Thursday, August 19. Foremost among the dancing principals is "Lover," dimple-kissed Helen Wilson, who made her big Broadway hit on the Century roof in New York.
