

Types of the Japanese "Picture Brides" who arrived at San Francisco on the liner Shinyo Maru and who are being questioned at Angel Island by a U. S. Congressional Immigration Committee, which learned that hardly any of the girls had personally seen the men they came here to marry. They had only seen photographs. The United States has protested against the practice of the Japanese government in allowing "picture brides" to leave and it is said this is about the last group of "brides" to arrive here.

MOTHER OF GOVERNOR OF MAINE INDIANS
Clara Neptune, mother of Governor Neptune of the Passamaquoddy tribe of Maine Indians, enjoying a quiet smoke while her son is receiving the formal visit at the historic Indian battleground of Deering Oaks, near Portland, Maine, of Governor Carl E. Milliken, of Maine, and his staff. The visit was the occasion for elaborate ceremonies witnessed by about 50,000 persons.

BUCK DEER, LOCKED IN FIGHT, PERISH TOGETHER
Deer in the identical position in which they were found in the Colorado foothills, where they had fought a fight which ended in their antlers becoming locked. Both then perished of hunger and thirst. A pack of wolves had partially devoured them.

PORTLAND HAS CHINESE GIRLS FOR "BELL-HOPS"
A Portland, Oregon, hotel has found that Chinese girls are a big success as "bell-hops." The girls are all American-born and have been educated in the public schools.

The Baseball Nine of the House of David. They don't look much like ball players, but they have made an excellent showing in their exhibition games throughout the East.
