Valparaiso Banker Will Be Prosecuted By Attorney General

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Trial of A. Lower, cashier of the defunct bank at Valparaiso, on one of the five criminal charges pending against him, is due to start at Wahoo next week. The prosecution will be conducted by Assistant Attorney General Lavery, with the assistance of Judge E. B. Perry of Lincoln, counsel for Receiver E. E. Pike of the failed institution.

County Attorney H. A. Bryant of Saunders county will not take part in the prosecution, the state attorney announced. Mr. Bryant moved for the dismissal of three complaints against Lower, brought by the state, charging falsification of reports made to the state banking bureau. This was objected to by Attorney Lavery and County Judge Parmenter overruled the motion. Lower was told that he could take his pick of the five complaints and be tried on any one of them that he wished to face first. One of them alleges he violated the state banking law by loaning money to himself indirectly while an officer of the bank. Another charges embezzlement of the bank's funds on 22 different counts in the total amount of $61,350. The remaining three deal with the making of alleged false reports.
